Robinson Hints at Court Compromise

NOT CANDIDATE FOR BENCH JOB, SAYS ARKANSAN

Lists Bills President Wants Pushed.

Asks Seven TVA's

Washington, D. C., June 3.—(AP)—Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the majority leader, strongly indicated after a White House conference tonight that the administration may propose a compromise on the Supreme court reorganization.

Robinson at the same time said he was not a candidate himself for the Supreme court vacancy created by the retirement of Justice Van Devanter and that it had not been discussed with the President.

The Arkansas senator said after the two hour session at the executive mansion that the bill to add new justices to the court if incumbents over 70 do not retire would be pressed for action at this session.

May Ask Change Himself.

He quickly added, however, that some amendments would be submitted and that he may offer one himself.

Robinson would not disclose what the amendments would be, saying "You will have to wait and see."

There have been persistent reports, especially since Justice Van Devanter announced he would retire, that the administration may be willing to accept a bill providing for only two or three new justices, instead of the five provided in the legislation as it now stands.

Legislation Most "Desirable."

Robinson also said the conference discussed the general legislative program for the remainder of the congressional session and added that while there was no "must" list, it would be desirable if congress acted on the following:

1. Legislation to help tenant farmers become land owners.
2. Low cost housing and slum clearance.
3. Extension of nuisance taxes and closing loopholes against tax dodgers.
4. Government reorganization.
5. Minimum wages and maximum hours.

Robinson told newspapermen on the rain-swept portico of the White House that while some changes had occurred in the last few months which "modify the situation," there still existed the "necessity for injection of new blood into the Supreme court."

"Changes" Easy to Guess.

The "changes" he did not detail, but it was believed he referred to the regularity with which the court upheld administration acts at the term just closed, as well as the Van Devanter retirement which took effect Tuesday.

Robinson said there was no foundation for any reports that the court bill had been abandoned.

"The measure," he said, "will be proceeded with, and it is expected that action will be taken on it during the present session. Aside from the provisions that relate to the Supreme court, other features of the bill are to be regarded as of vital importance."

Some thought it possible that the amendment in question would raise the age limit in the President's bill from 70 to 75 and limit additional appointments to the court to one each year until it reaches a maximum of fifteen members.

Reduced to Five Now.

The bill as originally submitted by the President with its provisions for additional justices for each member past 70 contemplated a maximum increase of six. Justice Van Devanter's voluntary retirement automatically reduced the maximum to five.

Robinson said tonight he had discussed only in a general way the President's latest proposal for a series of "TVA'S" in major valleys throughout the nation.

While this was not placed in the same category as the five measures on which it was hoped final action would be taken, Robinson emphasized again that no bill was on an "imperative" list.

Gen. Mola Dies in Crash; Rebel Field Marshal

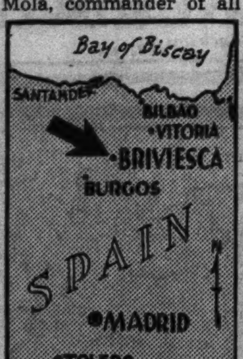
VITORIA, Spain, June 3.—(AP)—Gen. Emilio Mola, commander of all rebel armies in northern Spain and director of the two month old siege of Bilbao, was killed this afternoon in a plane crash in a dense fog.



Arrow marks location of crash in which Mola died.

Two of his staf officers, Lieut. - Col. Pozas and Maj. Senac; Pilot Capt. Cahorro and Sergt. Mechanic Barrero died with him in the wreck near Briviesca, 25 miles northeast of Burgos, former capital of Generalissimo Francisco Franco's rebel régime.

Ablest of Rebel Generals.

Gen. Mola was flying from Vitoria, headquarters of his Bilbao drive, to Valladolid. Pilot Cahorro apparently lost his bearings and smashed the plane against a mountain slope.

Gen. Mola, 46 years old, was Gen. Franco's right hand man and accounted the ablest strategist among the rebel generals. Within three hours of the tragedy Franco issued a decree splitting command of the northern rebel armies. Gen. Fidel Davila, hitherto head of the rebel technical junta, was appointed to command forces operating against Bilbao. Gen. Saliquet, commander of operations on the Madrid front under Mola, was made commander on the Aragon, Soria, and Madrid fronts.

Blow to Fascist Cause.

Gen. Gonzalo Quiepo de Llano retained command of the southern armies.

The bodies of the plane victims were taken to Burgos, where funeral services will be held tomorrow.

The loss of Gen. Mola was considered a tremendous blow to Franco's military campaign at Bilbao. It was Mola who led the march from Pamplona to the Guadarrama mountains in the early days of the civil war and his troops that captured Irun and San Sebastin last fall.

He was the second important figure in the Fascist leadership to die in an airplane smashup. The first was Gen. José Sanjurjo, who was killed last July 20.

A MAN NAMED SIMPSON DRINKS TOAST TO HIS EX-KING AND EX-WIFE

LONDON, June 3.—(AP)—Ernest Aldrich Simpson, the "forgotten man" of Britain's abdication crisis, played the rôle of just another business man today, the day his former wife became the bride of his former sovereign. He lunched on cold roast beef and salad at one of the city's famous chop houses while Mrs. Wallis Warfield was being married to the duke of Windsor in Monts, France.

And he raised his sherry glass to drink a toast of good luck to Edward and the new duchess.

The man who was the duchess of Windsor's second husband lunched with an old friend. Simpson, asked to comment on the wedding, said:

"I am afraid I have nothing to say. I have made it a rule not to comment and I should like to be permitted to continue to say nothing."

NAZIS EXECUTE CITIZEN OF U. S. IN HITLER PLOT

BERLIN, June 4 [Friday].—(AP)—Helmuth Hirsch, an American citizen described by Germany as a "Jew without citizenship," was executed on the block at Plœtzensee prison at dawn today for high treason against the third reich. Hirsch was 21 years of age.

Hirsch was sentenced to death March 20 after a trial for treasonable activities in connection with violation of the explosives law.

The state department of the United States interested itself in the case and instructed Ambassador William E. Dodd to inform German authorities the man they had condemned to die was an American citizen.

The American diplomat was instructed to render all possible assistance to the prisoner.

LINKED TO HITLER PLOT.

After Hirsch's trial informed sources in Berlin said he had been charged with intending to use explosives in an attempt to assassinate a high government official, presumably Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler.

Hirsch's grandfather, Solomon Hirsch, was naturalized in New York in 1873. This gave the youth's father, Siegfried, born in Czechoslovakia, and himself, born at Stuttgart, Germany, in 1916, status as American citizens. Young Hirsch's father, who resided in the United States from 1902 until 1910, now is in Prague, Czechoslovakia.

Start Inquiry on Girl's Story in Movie Party

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Hollywood, Cal., June 3.—[Special.]—Grand jury investigation of a "stag party" held at a film official's San Fernando valley estate on May 4 was declared imminent tonight after Patricia Douglas, 20 year old extra girl, and other movie chorus girls not named gave statements to district attorney's investigators.

Miss Douglas is scheduled to be called before the grand jury next week, according to a published report. Affidavits have been taken from her and from other girls who assertedly described themselves as "unwilling hostesses" at the movie party at which they are said to have been molested.

Guests Are Film Salesmen.

Most of the guests at the "stag" were representatives of a major movie studio who retail that studio's completed pictures to theater men about the country.

In an affidavit which has been prepared for grand jury submission Miss Douglas tells of receiving a "call" which she interpreted as a regular studio summons for extra work. She went to the studio wardrobe department. She and more than 50 other extra girls were outfitted, some as senoritas and others as cowgirls and were driven in buses to what is described in the affidavit as a "party in a big barn" where tables had been set and an entertainment program arranged. There the extra girls found themselves assigned to tables to "entertain" and dance with men they never had met, the affidavit states.

Prosecutor Gets Evidence.

Miss Douglas told district attorney's investigators Vincent Higgins and Harry Dean that she asked for a soft drink but one of the men poured her whisky, which made her ill. She said he then followed her outside and attacked her. Later, according to Miss Douglas' statement written out for attorneys, she regained consciousness and found that a nurse and physician employed by the studio were attending her.

A report by the examining physician and some of the clothing worn by the girl have been placed in the hands of District Attorney Buron Fitts. Eugene Williams, chief of the district attorney's detective staf, said the name of the man sought in the case had been learned this evening.

Parson in "Hot Water"

LONDON.—The Rev. R. Anderson Jardine, "poor man's parson" who officiated at marriage of duke of Windsor and Mrs. Wallis Warfield, faces a "peck of trouble" for defying Church of England's order to boycott wedding. Vicar Jardine must face his bishop and parochial council upon return to England and explain his actions. Jardine is reported as indifferent to threatened loss of his post. Details on page 8.

BY EDMOND TAYLOR.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

MONTS, France, June 3.—Married since noon in the eyes of God and man, Wally and Edward left the Château de Cande this evening to begin together a life which will be unlike the life of any couple since the world was made.

Marriage Like Their Destiny.

Their marriage was like their destiny, and therefore unlike any other marriage ever seen. No two observers saw the same thing.

Some saw a political demonstration—a rebuke to the oligarchy of England which tried to smother it with their official boycott and vindication of Edward and Wallis in their romance.

These observers point out the 3,000 messages of congratulations—mostly from England, including one from every member of the royal family—which were received at the château between 8 a. m. and 3 p. m., and the 25,000 fan letters which the village postoffice at Monts still is struggling to get stamped.

Parson Is Congratulated.

Not to mention the hundreds of telegrams the Rev. R. Anderson Jardine, the British vicar who defied the Church of England to marry the couple, received from admirers of his courage and honesty, the huge bouquet of roses which Premier Leon Blum of France sent to the bride, the cheering natives at the gates of the château, the flags hung out of every house in Monts, and the army of newspaper correspondents racing one another to telegraphers with the slightest scraps of news about this historic event.

The marriage of Edward and Wally was a political one all right and it was press agented and propagandized to the hilt. Nobody who was anywhere near the château can have any doubts about the alarm which such an event must have inspired in the British cabinet or justification for that alarm.

A Political Demonstration.

Was the whole thing a political demonstration? Yes it was, but it was not the implications of his act which made Edward's hands tremble when he placed the wedding ring on Wally's finger—almost the only detail on which five authorized witnesses of the press agreed upon.

It wasn't politics either which kept Edward from drinking coffee and eating croissants a maid brought to him at 8 a. m., nor which made his eyes wet during the religious ceremony or made the bride's voice break when she said: "I do."

And despite the political implications of his words there was no mistaking the sincere emotion of the Rev. Mr. Jardine, the implausible, self-conscious but authentic hero of the wedding, when he said over the phone:

"I have only one impression of the ceremony I have performed—exaltation. I felt that this was an act for

ABOARD SIMPLON-ORIENTE EXPRESS, DIJON, France, June 4 [Friday].—This smart international train, pounding through a muggy night, thundered into Dijon at 2:20 a. m. today. Three minutes later it slid out again.

Aboard the train were the duke and duchess of Windsor, who are speeding on their wedding trip from La Roche, France, toward their honeymoon castle, Wasserleonburg, in Carinthia, southern Austria. The newlyweds were asleep in their special coach.

Train Held Up 10 Minutes.

Departure of the train at La Roche was held up ten minutes because one of the couple's dogs escaped from a maid in the confusion of transferring from the automobile.

As the duke and duchess sped across the station platform the duchess noticed she had left a hat in the car. The maid, who held the leashes of two dogs was sent to get the hat. When she dashed back one of the dogs slipped its leash and scurried about the platform.

Finally, with the help of station attendants, the dog was captured. The maid brought the hat and the train got under way.

Duke's Car Loses the Way.

On the drive from the Château de Cande, the duke disclosed, his car and a truck with baggage lost their way, nearly missing the train connection.

Edward and his bride were smiling and obviously happy as they stepped into their coach, which was ahead of the regular sleepers. The duke was bareheaded.

The newlyweds were followed by the duke's equerry, Dudley Forwood, a valet and the duchess' maid. Fore and aft stood five detectives. A platoon of 50 gendarmes also stood about the train.

The honeymoon train will pass through Switzerland to Milan in northwest Italy. Then it goes to Trieste, where the duke and duchess probably will leave the train to travel by automobile to Noetsch, Austria, where castle Wasserleonburg is located.

PAROLE REFORM BILL IS PASSED; GOES TO HORNER

Minimum Sentence to Be Set by Judge.

BY PERCY WOOD.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Springfield, Ill., June 3.—Enactment of the Loesch parole reform program was declared certain here today when the house of representatives completed passage of the key bill of the series intended to eliminate much of the weakness of the present system in Illinois.

By a vote of 89 to 46, twelve votes more than the required 77, the house concurred in the Ward senate amendment to a Schnackenberg house bill, a change embodying the vital principle that trial courts in criminal cases shall fix the minimum and maximum sentences within the limitations prescribed by the present indeterminate sentence law.

For example, the bill authorizes a judge in imposing a sentence of from one to fourteen years under the indeterminate law to order that the offender shall serve a sentence such as not less than three or more than ten years or not less than three nor more than five years.

Decision Up to Horner.

In its final form, with the solid approval of both house and senate, the measure is now about to start on its way to Gov. Horner's desk for his consideration. The governor today declined to forecast his action.

This is in accord with his policy of withholding such decisions until he has seen the bills.

Party and factional lines were disregarded almost completely by the house in its final action. The majority consisted of forty-one Democrats and forty-eight Republicans. Technically the result was a reversal of the house decision on May 11 when a vote showed the membership divided 52 to 54 against the issue presented by the bill.

45 Members Absent.

This adverse decision came about because forty-five members were absent or did not vote because their minds were not made up. Approximately two-thirds of that previously silent bloc recorded itself for the Loesch bill after further time for study had elapsed.

Representative Elmer J. Schnackenberg [R., Chicago], house minority leader, who shared the sponsorship of the Loesch series with Senator Harold G. Ward [D., Chicago], field general of the majority forces in the upper chamber, led today's successful battle with strong support on the Democratic side from Representative George A. Fitzgerald [D., Chicago], who represents the home district of State's Attorney Thomas J. Courtney of Cook county.

Opposed by Adamowski.

The opposition in debate came from Representative Benjamin S. Adamowski [D., Chicago], majority floor leader, and Representative F. W. Lewis [D., Robinson]. Adamowski relied principally on his previous arguments that enactment of the proposed statute would cause grave inequalities in sentences by various courts for similar crimes and that the parole board is able to function like a hospital board in determining when a convict is ready for release. Lewis repeated the contention that the bill would destroy the value of the indeterminate sentence act.

Schnackenberg, who spoke at length when the same subject was under consideration on May 11, spoke more briefly this time upon the need for a change in a system that has brought widespread condemnation and that the parole board, a politically appointed body, now has altogether too much scope in the release of convicts.

Reflects Courtney's Views.

Fitzgerald's talk, which was taken as a reflection of State's Attorney Courtney's views, emphasized the approval given the Loesch plan by prosecutors and urged that the general demand of public opinion for strengthening the parole system be acknowledged by favorable action by the general assembly.

The Schnackenberg bill passed today provided originally only that the parole board should have no power to pass on the sufficiency of an indictment or of the evidence in a case before it. The Ward amendment, put into the measure after it had passed the house and had been sent over to the senate, was a duplicate of the Ward bill on indeterminate sentences which was lost in the house on May 11.

This procedure of reviving an apparently dead measure was conceived by Schnackenberg, carried through the senate by Ward, and brought to ultimate victory by their combined efforts.

"Courts Shall Fix Sentence."

The exact language of that part of the Ward amendment dealing with the power of the trial court system that "the courts of this state imposing such sentence or commitment shall fix the minimum and maximum limits or duration of such imprisonment."

"The term of such imprisonment or commitment," it continues, "shall be for not less, but may be greater than the minimum, nor shall it be greater but may be less than the maximum term provided by law for the offense for which the person stands convicted or committed.

"It shall be deemed and taken as a part of every such sentence as fully as written therein that the department of public welfare [parole board] may terminate by and with the approval of the governor in the nature of a release or commutation of sentence or commitment the term of such imprisonment or commitment earlier than the maximum [but not earlier than the minimum] fixed by the court."

There are three more bills in the Loesch program and their chances for passage are considered good. They provide for open hearings by the parole board; for the segregation of persons convicted of sex crimes; and for the examination by the parole board of those appearing as employers or sponsors of prisoners whose applications for parole are pending.

ASSOCIATION OPPOSES ACT.

Opposition to the parole reform bill, passed yesterday by the house in Springfield, was voiced last evening by the Citizens' Association of Chicago. Association representatives said they would urge Gov. Horner to veto the measure on the ground that its constitutionality is doubtful, and that it is inimical to public welfare. Howard Van S. Tracy, president of the association, has called a meeting of civic representatives to meet on the matter at 4 p. m. Monday in the University club.

PUT OFF HEARING FOR 2 YOUTHS IN TEACHER KILLING

Onida, S. D., June 3.—(AP)—Arraignment of Norman Westberg and Howard Christensen, Chicago youths, on charges of slaying a school teacher in an attempted robbery near here May 21, was delayed this afternoon while county officials completed legal technicalities required by South Dakota's juvenile law because the boys are under eighteen years of age.

Westberg, 17 years old, and Christensen, 16, confessed, authorities said, killing Miss Ada Carey of Blunt after she gave them a ride in her automobile. She was shot twice and beaten on the head with a hammer when she resisted the attempt of the youthful hitch hikers to rob her.

State's Attorney Francis Ryan said both youths informed him they will plead guilty. He indicated he would take them before Circuit Judge John F. Hughes "sometime tomorrow" for formal arraignment.

TOWNSFOLK SEE WRAITH IN NUDE ON CHURCH ROOF

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., June 3.—[Special.]—Tolling of the bells in Catholic church at Sugarnotch at 4 a. m. today aroused the mining town and sent most of its population to the edifice expecting to hear that a dignitary had died.

Townspeople were astounded to see a nude woman, identified as Mrs. Anna Makowski, 42 years old, mother of five children, on the church roof, attempting to scale the spire. A former patient in a mental hospital, she apparently suffered a relapse and had become obsessed with a desire for revenge when she believed a prayer had been unanswered.

Entering the church secretly she cleared the altar, ripped paintings from the walls, and then tried to rip the cross from the steeple. It was when she was mounting a ladder in the tower that she unwittingly pulled the bell rope.

After a dozen futile attempts she lost her balance and slid down the steep roof, only to be caught at the edge. Nonchalantly she arose, walked 20 feet to a corner and then started to descend the downspout. Twenty feet from the ground, she fell. She suffered three minor lacerations.

Girl Fined $200 for Hurling Ink Well at Hotel Clerk

Judge Joseph B. Hermes of the Woman's court yesterday fined Miss Dorothy McCarthy, 1234 South Wabash avenue, $200 and costs and placed her on three months' probation because she threw an ink well at the night clerk in the hotel where she lives. She also was ordered to move from the hotel. She explained she threw the marble ink well because she didn't like Harry Gustison, the clerk.

Parolee Held to Grand Jury on Loop Banditry Charges

Benjamin Kremin, 30 years old, 7805 South Halsted street, a paroled convict, was ordered held to the grand jury yesterday under $20,000 bonds on two robbery charges by Judge Frank M. Padden in Felony court. Kremin was captured May 25 at the end of a wild chase through the loop.

U. S. BRINGS CASE AGAINST MALONE TO SWIFT CLOSE

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

The government rested its case yesterday in the trial of William H. Malone, former chairman of the state tax commission, on charges of evading payment of $59,000 in income tax on $330,000 concealed income in 1929 and 1930. This afternoon the defense will start to put its case before a jury in Federal Judge William H. Holly's court.

The government closed its case rather suddenly. Apparently the closing was prompted by belief of United States District Attorney Michael Igoe and his assistant, Austin Hall, that the evidence is sufficient to prove wilful intent to evade taxes.

Reduce Parade of Witnesses.

Of the 80 witnesses who were to testify, 39 have been on the stand in the last two weeks. In Judge Holly's chambers, counsel for both sides agreed to admit certain records without going through the long process of identification, which reduced the number of witnesses.

Malone appeared as confident as the government prosecutors. He strolled into the press room, pink and beaming, and remarked:

"I think the government's case came to an anti-climax. They haven't proved a nickel of income to William H. Malone."

Summarizes U. S. Case.

Irving Bussey, an agent of the internal revenue department, who was the last witness yesterday, summarized the mass of figures introduced in court by the government in the last two weeks. Bussey's tabulation showed that in 1928, 1929 and 1930, Malone received a total of $561,880 in currency, which he deposited to his account in banks, mainly the Jefferson Park National bank. The government contends this is largely income unreported on Malone's tax returns, and that it has been unable to trace the source of these funds.

The year 1928 is not included in the indictment, as the statute of limitations has run against prosecution for any evasion then. The figures for that year, however, were offered as evidence to prove wilful evasion.

Under questioning by Hall, Bussey testified that Malone had received $233,350 in currency from undisclosed sources in 1928; $266,480 in 1929 and $62,050 in 1930.

Bussey testified that if these amounts had been reported, Malone in the three years would have paid $110,220 more income tax than he did. In figures read to the jury, he contended that Malone's income tax in 1928 should have been $53,586 instead of $242; in 1929, $56,209 instead of $5.28, and $672 in 1930 instead of nothing.

Remaking Her Life

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, June 3.—The countess of Warwick, formerly Rose Bingham, one of England's most striking debutantes, sailed on the Bremen today for America. The divorce suit which the earl of Warwick, who plays under the name Michael Brooke in Hollywood films, has filed against her, is due to come up some time this month in the British courts.

"I am going to New York for a short visit but shall not go to Hollywood," the countess said. "There is no possibility of my going into the movies." Asked about her husband's plans, she said: "I have not heard from him lately, but I expect to see him in New York."

Recently the countess was quoted as saying: "My married life is ended. I must remake my life. But please do not let people think that there is anything romantic in my future plans. I am through with marriage and romance."

PLOT TO SLAY CHANCELLOR OF AUSTRIA BARED

VIENNA, June 3.—(AP)—A chancellery official tonight disclosed the discovery by police of an immature conspiracy to assassinate Austrian Chancellor Kurt von Schuschnigg when he visited the grave of his wife, and a "fantastic" plot to drop incendiary bombs on the chancellery from the air.

The official said persons to whom police attributed Nazi sentiments had been arrested after a lengthy investigation, launched in September when an infernal machine in a suitcase exploded in the West railway station.

Police declared their inquiry led to discovery of a group of conspirators who apparently were without effective leadership, and documents hinting at the plan to kill the chancellor at the graveside.

"The chancellery bombing plot is fantastic," the spokesman said, "but it will be brought out in court in the next few weeks."

TWO CONTEMPT CITATIONS FILED AGAINST LAWYER

Order Follows Charges in $35,000 Injury Suit.

Contempt citations were ordered against Attorney Irving G. Zazove yesterday by the executive committee of the Circuit court in connection with a dispute with Corporation Counsel Barnet Hodes over a $35,000 personal injury verdict against the city.

After attempting vainly to get a change of venue on grounds of prejudice and to have the petitions dismissed for lack of jurisdiction, Zazove was given fifteen days in which to file his answers to two citations, one charging direct and the other indirect contempt. The committee, which sat en banc, consisted of Chief Justice Harry M. Fisher, and Judges Joseph Burke and John R. Caverly.

Damage Verdict Upset.

Zazove is attorney for Claude Wayland, 640 Wrightwood avenue, who won the verdict on a showing that he was permanently injured when he tripped over a defective sidewalk. Last Friday Judge William J. Wimbiscus of Spring Valley, the trial judge, granted the city a new trial on new evidence.

During hearing on this motion, Zazove declared that he was approached to sell the judgment at a discount to a brother of an assistant corporation counsel. Alleging that this and other matters raised by the lawyer were prejudicial and extraneous to the case, Mr. Hodes asked for the direct contempt citation.

Second Citation Presented.

Assistant Corporation Counsels Arthur A. Sullivan and Alexander J. Resa presented the petition for the indirect contempt citation, alleging that Zazove circulated a prepared statement in court at a hearing Tuesday.

Zazove admitted publishing the statement, but denied it was presented to any one in or near the courtroom. This statement declared that Zazove now was being punished for daring to cross Hodes, whom he termed a dictator.

"While I have great respect for the executive committee of this court," Zazove declared, "I don't think I could get a fair trial. May I have the privilege accorded others of filing a petition for reassignment of this matter [the second petition]?"

Venue Change Denied.

"This matter involves the Circuit court," replied Judge Fisher, "and if the affidavit is true it involves this branch of the court. This petition involves such a question of malconduct as might lead the court to consider the suspension of an attorney from practice. No change of venue is possible."

Zazove then asked to speak to the judges in chambers on a matter of importance, but was told that anything connected with the contempt matter should be presented in open court.

WOMEN JURY BILL KILLED BY SURPRISE; GETS A SHOT IN ARM

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Springfield, Ill., June 3.—[Special.]—A surprise move in the senate today brought defeat to the women on jury bill but parliamentary tacticians rushed quickly to the rescue and instilled a breath of new life. The patient will survive at least over the week-end.

Today's journal of proceedings will show that house bill No. 1, as the jury bill is identified, was killed by a vote of 18 to 7, the "aye" count being 8 short of the constitutional majority of 26. The journal also will show that two senators who voted against the measure—George C. Dixon [R., Dixon] and James O. Monroe [D., Collinsville]—served notice that on the next legislative day, Monday, they will move to reconsider the vote by which it was defeated.

Should a majority of the senate agree to reconsideration, the roll will be called again, and proponents will have more of an opportunity to plead for support than they had today. Under the rules only those voting on the prevailing side of an issue can move reconsideration.

GIRL, 4, IS KILLED BY CITY TRUCK IN FRONT OF HOME

Four Police on Way from Strike Area Hurt.

Lois Qualey, 4 years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percival Qualey of 4134 North Albany avenue, was run over and killed by a city dump truck in front of her home yesterday.

The driver, Max Remer, 48 years old, 4843 Monticello avenue, who was held by Albany Park police for the inquest today, said the child ran in front of his truck from between two parked automobiles. The child's father is a train conductor.

Four Policemen Hurt in Crash.

Four policemen of the North avenue station, returning home from strike duty in the steel mill district, were injured early today when their car was rammed by another at 55th street and Cicero avenue. They are William Durak, 42 years old; Robert Forrest, 34; Joseph Terry, 33, and Frank Murphy, 39. Durak's collar bone was broken. Terry suffered chest injuries and Murphy possible rib fractures. Forrest was the most seriously hurt with a brain concussion.

They were taken to the Holy Cross hospital. Chicago Lawn police arrested Alex Bombar, 41 years old, 3552 South Ashland avenue, and Mike Wozeard, 30, of 3547 Union avenue, occupants of the other car, on charges of going through a stoplight and being under the influence of liquor.

Crash Results in Second Death.

Ernest Herzfeldt, 72 years old, 2241 South Kirkland avenue, died yesterday in Garfield Park hospital of injuries suffered Sunday in an automobile collision at 159th street and Crawford avenue, Bremen township. His was the second death of the accident. Mrs. Angela Fleming, 23, of 209 Park avenue, Joliet, a passenger in the other car, was killed.

Up to 4 p. m. yesterday there were 445 trafic fatalities in the county in 1937, according to the coroner's office. Of this number 346 were killed in Chicago, where in the same period 8,570 were injured.

70 SPEEDERS VISIT MORGUE AND HOSPITAL

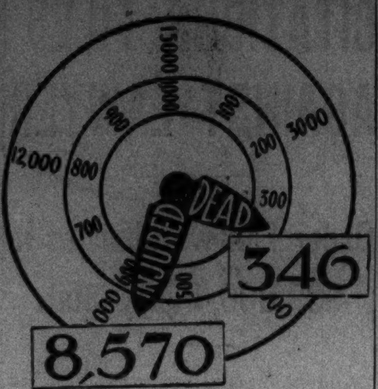
Seventy persons, convicted of speeding by Judge John Gutknecht in Trafic court yesterday, were taken on a tour of the county hospital fracture ward and of the morgue to show them the tragic results of trafic violations.

The tour was conducted by Joseph Romano, bailif of the court. Prior to the tour they paid fines totaling $350, which will go to patients of the hospital.

In the Safety court Judge George B. Weiss imposed a 20 day jail sentence on Mortimer McInerney, 37 years old, 7257 Vincennes avenue, for reckless driving.

THE MASSACRE

Chicago's 1937 Trafic Toll



More than 98% of the city's automobile fatalities are of a nature physically impossible on an elevated highway.

PAROLED CONVICT SHOT BY POLICE IN RUNNING FIGHT

John Murray, 34 years old, 6315 South Green street, a paroled convict, was shot twice and captured in a battle with police last night after he had robbed a United Cigar store at 741 Madison street and had tried to shoot a citizen.

He first held up Charles J. Lange, 4851 North Tripp avenue, the cigar store clerk, getting $23. Hoping to find more, he made Lange lie on the floor behind the counter, but he had no chance to search for the money because of incoming customers. He waited on them for 20 minutes before finally dashing out with the original loot.

Meantime a newsboy had spread the alarm, and Edward Goldstein, 1420 Solon place, was waiting for him with a pistol. The pistol was not loaded, although Goldstein did not know this. As Murray jumped into a cab Goldstein menaced him with the gun. Murray snapped his revolver at Goldstein, but the weapon jammed. Goldstein snapped the trigger of his gun, also without result.

Murray then took to flight on foot north in Halsted street, where Policemen James Alesia and Stephen Watson of the Des Plaines street station took up the chase. He fired twice at them before his gun jammed again. Their aim and guns were better. He dropped with bullets in a hip and an arm. Murray was paroled from Joliet prison in December, 1933, after he had served eight years of a robbery term. He had been sought since last March for parole violation.

KILLED IN FALL FROM PORCH.

MORE STALLING PERILS FATE OF DRIVER LICENSE

Both Houses Defer Action on Rival Measures.

BY HAL FOUST.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Springfield, Ill., June 3.—[Special.]—Rival drivers' license bills, favored respectively by Gov. Henry Horner and by Secretary of State Edward J. Hughes, tonight were in a race against time as well as in a competition with each other.

Both the house and the senate postponed advancement of either of the bills until next week, and there are only three and a half weeks left before this session ends July 1.

The squabble within the Democratic party for new patronage to be created is a handicap to enactment of either of the life saving measures before adjournment.

Hearings Next Week.

The senate executive committee this morning referred the Horner bill to its committee on licenses and miscellany. Senator Patrick J. Carroll [D., Chicago], a wheel horse in the anti-Horner Democratic faction, is chairman of this new group to take charge of the governor's proposals. The hearing before the Carroll committee is set for next week.

In the house the Hughes bill is before the committee on public welfare headed by Representative Ray O'Keefe [D., Chicago]. He announced today his committee will not meet until next week.

Hornerites offered an amendment yesterday to substitute the governor's highway department for the office of the secretary of state as the administrative agency for the driver regulation, and an adjournment for lack of a quorum saved the amendment from being called for a vote in the O'Keefe committee.

Amendment Hinted.

In the lobby of the senate, where anti-Horner Democrats with coöperative Republicans control a majority, there was gossip this afternoon that the upper chamber might amend the Horner bill to substitute the secretary of state for the highway department as the administrative agency in the bill passed by the house Monday.

Neither the Hughes bill, passed by the senate, 37 to 0, nor the Horner bill, passed by the house, 128 to 6, can become a law until there is a concurrence in all amendments.

BOYHOOD FRIEND LINKS M'KINLAY TO ZINTAK BRIBE

$10,000 Double Cross Charged at Trial.

Gustave V. Anderson.

But friendship was forgotten yesterday in the Criminal court of Judge Robert Jerome Dunne. As the state's chief witness Gus accused Bob of offering him a $10,000 bribe as a juror to hold out for acquittal in the first embezzlement trial of Frank V. Zintak, ousted Superior court clerk.

Bob is Robert W. McKinlay, 59 years old, 7817 Essex avenue, former legislator and county commissioner, now a federal court receiver on trial for bribery.

Gus Not So Successful.

Gus is Gustave V. Anderson, 58 years old, 330 West 58th street. His right hand is crippled. The hair on his forehead runs high to a bald crown. He is not employed now. Once he worked as automobile builder and railroad hand.

Before Anderson began his testimony, Assistant State's Attorneys Wilbert F. Crowley and Mal Coghlan, and the defense counsel, Benedict J. Short, W. W. Smith, and McKinlay's son, Robert Todd McKinlay, conferred with Judge Dunne in chambers.

The judge overruled the state on a motion to introduce conversations Anderson said he had with McKinlay about the second Zintak trial which resulted in acquittal for Zintak. The state was limited strictly to proof of the bribery charge.

This so shortened the trial that the state had almost completed its evidence when court adjourned last evening. The prosecution announced it may rest this morning without calling more witnesses.

The Whoopee Jury.

Zintak was tried on an embezzlement indictment after a $26,500 shortage was discovered. The first jury was discharged on Dec. 10, 1936, after deliberating 41 hours. The second jury acquitted Zintak last Feb. 3 in six hours, but its members were sent to jail later when it was discovered they had gone on a whoopee round of taverns with bailiffs assigned to guard them.

In his opening statement, Attorney Smith declared the defense would show the bribery charges were made by Anderson for revenge after he failed to extort a job from McKinlay after pestering him many years.

The attorney referred to McKinlay's character, and to his brothers, Donald S., a judge of the Superior court, John, former president of Marshall Field & Co., and James, former official of the Illinois Central railroad.

Tells of McKinlay Meeting.

Anderson said that after he was called for jury service he stopped in at Eddie's restaurant on 59th street on Nov. 16.

"McKinlay came in," he said, "looked all around the restaurant, then spotted me. I said 'Hello, Bob,' and he said, 'Hello, Gus.'

"Bob said, 'I see you may be on the Zintak jury.' I asked him how he knew and he said, 'We know everything. If you get on, vote for acquittal and there is $10,000 in it for you. Zintak is a friend of mine.'"

"How were you to get the $10,000?" asked Prosecutor Coghlan.

"I didn't know how the payments were to be made," Anderson answered.

Anderson then told of voting not guilty on the seven ballots, although it was not his honest conviction. Afterward Anderson said McKinlay gave him $25 and promised to get him a job for four years in the city water department at $7 a day. When he finally became convinced he had been double-crossed about the job Anderson said he went to the state's attorney and confessed the alleged bribe.

Couple Speeds Across France on Honeymoon.

which God destined me when I was ordained as priest."

It was easy to understand the correspondents who came out of the ceremony starry eyed and cabled thousands of words of rapture in which the dryest details somehow took on a Cinderella glamor.

Writers Put on a Race.

Yet there were moments when the whole thing seemed to be turning into a burlesque—for instance, when the correspondents waiting at the gate of the château for the first news of the wedding ceremony saw five distinguished gentlemen, impeccably dressed in spats and striped trousers with tails and top hats marching with weighty dignity down the driveway from the château.

They were the five agency correspondents—three American, one British, and one French—admitted to the actual ceremony. Their less fortunate colleagues stepped back with awe as these peers of the press walked gravely abreast through the gate and then, as in a Charles Chaplin film, broke into a mad dash for the telephones, their tails flying in the breeze and their toppers falling off in the race.

The Mayor's Speech.

The main comedy element was furnished by Mayor Charles Mercier, who performed the civil ceremony. His speech, written by a local newspaperman, was a gem. Here it is:

"Your highness, your grace:

"By one of those whims of destiny, it is under the blue sky and among the flowers of the garden of France, in the laughing valley of the Indre, that the most moving of all idylls has just unfolded itself.

"Behind the foliage of the hundred year old park of the unassuming Château de Cande, in a setting which M. and Mme. Bedaux [the American owners] could not have better prepared if they had foreseen the great event which was to occur there, the illustrious wedding which innumerable hearts will celebrate in secret today has for its celebrant the mayor of a little town of Touraine.

A Wish of Happiness.

"He would be unworthy of the great honor which falls to him if he was not aware, in fulfilling the rites and the laws of his country, that he represents at this simple but august ceremony a nation which has always been charmed by chivalrous and bold acts dictated by the heart.

"In saluting in its name a prince who was the well beloved sovereign of a friendly people and her whom his highness has chosen from a noble country to which we are attached with the same precious bonds—greatness and glory—permit him who has just received the mutual consent uniting your destinies to give you, in the name of his fellow countrymen and in his own name, the most sincere wishes for your happiness, a happiness the dawn of which the commune of Monts sees rising on this memorable day of June 3, 1937.

"To these wishes I add a hope:

"To see you often on Touraine's soil. Your presence is as welcomed by us as it is an honor to us. Your highness, your grace, we rejoice in your happiness."

Reveals Bits of Color.

In a memorable interview after the ceremony, Mayor Mercier, his little white mustache bristling with importance, revealed curious bits of color. Edward has signed the marriage register in French, "Edward, Duc de Windsor." Wally had signed "Wallis, Duchess of Windsor."

Asked what he thought of Wally, Mayor Mercier said:

"She is very agreeable."

"They were very reserved."

"What about the donation the duke is making to the poor of Monts?" one reporter asked.

"I haven't heard about it yet," Mercier replied.

"You mean you are still waiting to see the money?"

"Yes."

Mercier was somewhat surprised at the guffaw this slip provoked.

Asked if he had given Edward and Wally the usual "livret de marriage" with blanks to record the names of numerous offspring, Mercier suddenly slapped his thigh and exclaimed:

"Mon Dieu! I forgot all about that. And I must give it to them before they leave. It is the law. I am glad you reminded me of that. For once the press is of some use."

All Get a Look.

There was only one moment during the day when any correspondents except the five who were admitted to the wedding after complicated political negotiations were able to see at first hand an angle of the story in which every one was most interested—the human side of the legendary romance.

About fifty yards from the château detectives called upon us to halt and we waited a moment until Rogers, elegantly attired in a gray cutaway and trousers to match—he outdid even the duke in sartorial splendor and originality for this occasion—came out to greet us. Discovering that we were twenty-four instead of twenty-two, he took a roll call to discover the gate crashers, but finally allowed them to stay in the company.

Rogers then explained that he would introduce us each individually to the royal couple, after which the correspondents could singly or collectively express their good wishes.

Men Bow to Newlyweds.

They came out to the head of the steps and Rogers, acting as master of ceremonies, filed the correspondents past them, calling out their names and the newspapers they represented as each one passed the royal reviewing stand.

The male correspondents bowed to the duke and then to the duchess and the women curtsied. Edward returned the salutes with regal courtesy and Wally smiled brightly at each presentee, addressing by name those whom she had seen before.

One American correspondent, scorning the old world flourishes, simply nodded his head as he passed in front of the couple. Edward looked at him curiously out of the corner of his eyes with an expression which might have been either amusement or annoyance.

None of the correspondents spoke to the royal couple at this stage of the ceremony, but when the presentations were finished a spokesman for the newspaper men, addressing the couple as "Your royal highness and your grace," expressed the wishes of all the correspondents for a long and happy life together.

Thanks Newspaper Men.

Edward replied with affable dignity:

"We are sincerely grateful for the wishes you have expressed and we thank you sincerely for coming here. I am sorry that there was not more room so that I might have asked all of you to the wedding."

His face looked a little pasty under the tan, and the pouches under his eyes were more noticeable than ever. His face did seem a little tired, but he has definitly lost the strained and taut look he used to wear. It is a calm face and the ex-king seemed calm, although at the wedding ceremony, witnesses declare, he was very nervous, frequently squirming and shifting his weight.

The duchess of Windsor, although a little thin, looked in perfect health and frankly was beautiful in her Wallis blue gown, dyed to match her eyes, and slightly tilted back straw hat.

From scraps picked up from guests at the wedding breakfast it must have been the most interesting part of the whole business from a human point of view.

Edward in High Spirits.

Edward was genial and high spirited. Many of the guests were a little strained at the unprecedented nature of the occasion and the mixture of regal pomp and informality.

The duke did his best to put them at their ease and it was not his fault if history slightly weighted the atmosphere.

"Help yourselves," he urged the guests. "It is there to eat."

Eventually some one inquired about the wedding cake—a gorgeous six tiered affair three feet high, with white icing, roses, and ribbon of gold icing.

"Let's not wait! Let's cut it now!" the bridegroom cried.

Newlyweds Cut the Cake.

Edward popped up at her side and the two of them cut the cake together, putting aside and wrapping up pieces for the Rev. Mr. Jardine's two grown daughters and a son and other absentees.

Maj. Edward D. Metcalfe, an equerry of the duke and his best man, proposed a toast to the couple and Edward, beaming with joy, remarked:

"I didn't know Metcalfe could make such a good speech."

He then made a short reply to the toast himself. Nobody proposed a toast to King George VI., Edward's brother and successor to the throne.

The duke shook hands with everyone, including the servants. The English guests shook the duchess' hand and the French guests gallantly kissed the hand. The women curtsied to Edward, but not to his bride.

Parson a Great Favorite.

The Rev. Mr. Jardine was a great favorite during the wedding breakfast. He enjoyed himself hugely, holding up his own well with champagne, a beverage which a country parson in England doesn't often get a chance to enjoy.

The breakfast, which was held partly in the dining room and partly at little tables on the terrace, ended about 2 p. m., and the guests quickly said their farewells.

At 3:15 Rogers appeared at the gate, accompanied by Mrs. Rogers in a chic Wallis blue dress, and issued on behalf of the duke and duchess two statements. The first statement said:

"The duchess and I wish to thank all those who so kindly sent us presents and good wishes on the occasion of our marriage.

"We shall never forget their friendly messages, which mean so much to us on this day.

"After the trying time we have been through, we now look forward to a happy and useful private life and to that measure of peace that we hope will be granted to us."

The Second Statement.

The second statement said:

"The duke and duchess of Windsor wish to take this opportunity of expressing their appreciation of the courtesy which has been for the most part shown to them in unprecedented circumstances.

"They like it to be on record that although inaccurate statements and reports seem to have been unavoidable during these months which have been trying to all concerned, there has been an evident willingness to contradict them.

"As regards the future, the duke realizes that any atmosphere of secrecy is unsatisfactory and he will always be prepared to supply any news of importance concerning the duchess and himself.

"At the same time the duke and duchess, while fully understanding the difficulties, want on this day to appeal to the press of the world to give them that measure of consideration of the privacy which they feel is now their due."

Rogers then emphasized that Edward and his bride wish to be left alone, particularly during their honeymoon, and requested correspondents who had been ordered by their newspapers to accompany the couple to make themselves "as inconspicuous as possible."

Rogers then was presented by the newspapermen with a souvenir—a gold pen—as a gesture of appreciation of his courtesy and helpfulness in his dealings with the press.

Feels Exaltation

Radiophoto of the Rev. R. Anderson Jardine, pastor who defied the Church of England to perform ceremony for the duke and duchess of Windsor. In explanation he said: "I have only one impression . . . exaltation."

STORY OF WEDDING

MONTS, France, June 3.—(AP)—Edward of England and Wallis Warfield were married today in the Château de Cande in two simple services.

The rotund country doctor and mayor of Monts, Charles Mercier, read the civil service prescribed by French law before required witnesses in the château salon.

The "poor man's parson," the Rev. R. Anderson Jardine, vicar of St. Paul's church, Darlington, England, read the religious service.

The civil service began at 11:42 a. m. [5:42 a. m., Chicago daylight saving time] and at 11:47 Mrs. Warfield had become the duchess of Windsor. The religious service in the château music room before thirty-eight persons was ended at 12:14 p. m. with the reluctant blessing of England's church by the Rev. Mr. Jardine, who solemnly proclaimed:

"Those whom God has joined together let no man put asunder. . . . I pronounce that they be man and wife together, in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. Amen."

There was only one unexpected incident.

Startled by Duke's "I Will."

Edward's firm and high pitched "I will" to the English pastor was so firm and loud that guests in the flower-banked music room were startled. And then the duke was so overcome for a moment, when called upon for a speech at the wedding breakfast, that he could say only:

"Thank all of you people for coming on this occasion so important for us."

The famous French organist, Marcel Dupre, played Bach's 29th cantata, the B minor canon by Schumann, and a prelude and fugue in G minor during the civil service.

Edward entered the salon of the château clad in black morning coat, striped trousers, roll collar, and black and white checked cravat. A white carnation was in his lapel. He chatted with William Cumming Graham, British consul at Nantes, for a moment.

Then came the bride. She was in "Wallis blue," Edward's favorite color, a soft shade of silk in the mode for afternoon dress—hat, shoes, and gloves were of matching color. The dress was of exceedingly simple lines and came up high in front. At the neck was a glittering diamond and sapphire brooch, and from her left wrist sparkled a diamond and sapphire bracelet, with ear rings to match.

A huge bouquet of peonies stood on the big stone fireplace on the south side of the room, a third table under a window held bouquets of red, blue, yellow, and white flowers, among them a large bunch of lilies.

Instructs Bridal Couple.

Dr. Mercier proceeded quickly with the short ceremony, informed the new duchess she must obey her husband, and that the duke must provide for his wife's need.

A brief "Oui" from each announced their willingness to take the other as lawful mate.

The duke nervously clasped and unclasped fingers, held behind his back. With twinkling of the eyes and a thoughtful rubbing of his chin, he watched while his wife signed the marriage register and the British consular record.

The happy newlyweds turned then to the terrace with their friends for a cocktail interlude between services, then went separately to the music room for the religious blessing.

The Rev. Mr. Jardine stood beside the altar, which was in an alcove of the room and was improvised with an old oak chest. At each end were single, tall yellow tapers and in the middle the golden cross.

Wally Enters on Rogers' Arm.

Edward and Maj. Edward D. Metcalfe entered the room after the guests. A moment later came the bride on the arm of Herman L. Rogers of New York.

The massive march from the Judas Maccabeus oratorio by Handel was played while the duke took his place. Organist Dupre played his own "cortège" for the bridal march. During the ceremony there was the soft music of the choral "Gloria in Excelsis," by Dupre, and Cesar Franck's Adagio in C major.

"We are come together here in the sight of God and this congregation to join this man and woman," the vicar intoned, reading from his red-backed prayer book and using the old English service.

Calling the duke by all his given names, he asked:

"I will," came the loud, firm, vibrant answer.

Wally Promises to Obey.

And then to Wallis the query whether she would "obey, serve, love, and honor"; and the low, steady answer, the bride repeating: "and to obey until death do us part."

Edward received the wedding ring of Welsh gold which had rested on the Rev. Mr. Jardine's open prayer book.

"With this ring I thee wed," he said, looking steadily at the woman he chose in preference to the pomp and ceremony of royalty and slipping the ring on her fourth finger.

The service ended in simple dignity with the vicar's prayer to God for His blessing on "this man and this woman." The organ gave the joyous strains of "Oh, Perfect Love" from the Anglican hymn book, during the benediction; and then the choral, "O, Jesus," by Bach. Neither the duke nor any one else kissed the bride.

AMNESIA VICTIM IDENTIFIED.

A man found Wednesday near 336 South Kostner avenue suffering from amnesia was identified yesterday as Frederick Graf, 75 years old, 1913 Dakin street, by his daughter, Mrs. Julia Muller, with whom he lives.

Here's How Duke Mixes the 'Wallis Cocktai

CHATEAU DE CANDE, MONT France, June 3.—(AP)—Here's how the duke of Windsor makes the "Wallis cocktail" he concocted in celebration of his wedding: One jigger of Cointreau, one jigger of peppermint, two jiggers of gin, juice of half a lemon, soda and ice. The duke had the cocktails served to prenuptial dinner guests last night.

When it's 75 degrees

Too warm for your 15 oz. woolens. Not steamy enough for a summer suit. But right down the alley for a Carolina Worsted—Bond's new "in-between" middleweight! A special weave that brings you cool comfort lacking in regular heavyweights. A worsted with more body, and press-holding quality, than you get in summer lightweights. The clothing treat of the year!

CAROLINA WORSTEDS do the trick

When it's 80 degrees

"Old Sol" gets hot under the collar. But not the wise man who wears a Carolina Worsted! He's set to go places in a suit that's wrinkle-proof and weather-proof. What's more, he's had the pleasure of picking from patterns that are tops on the style chart—chalk-stripes, varsity checks and glen plaids.

Comfortable from June to October

When it's 90 degrees

The old "fire-ball" puts on the pressure. You put on a Carolina Worsted—give your body a chance to breath—and forget it's 90 in the shade, with no shade. Get next to one of these middleweight champions, today or tomorrow. It'll keep you in good shape, and good spirits, all summer.

TOURAINE FOLK HAIL PARSON FOR ROLE IN WEDDING

Share Edward's Joy Over Church Ceremony.

BY MAY BIRKHEAD.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

MONTS, France, June 3.—Despite the carnival, not to say picnic, aspects of today's big event when the duke of Windsor took Mrs. Wallis Warfield to wife, it had its moving side, too.

It was touching to see how the people of Touraine and the journalists assembled here from all over the world found happiness in Edward's delight that he could have a religious ceremony for his marriage. Both he and his mother, Queen Mother Mary of England, ardently desired that there should be a church ceremony. This made the volunteer parson of Darlington, the Rev. R. Anderson Jardine, the highlight of the picture for a time.

Throng Shows Sympathy.

The people of Tours had read in their own morning paper about the Rev. Mr. Jardine's kindly, Christian gesture—contrasting so strongly with certain official attributes that had given Dr. Cosmo Gordon Lang, archbishop of Canterbury, a nickname which is not quite Auld Lang Syne, for another word riming with Syne is substituted for it.

As the Rev. Mr. Jardine, with his homely face, rather Scotch in his neat clerical dress and his sandy hair, came down the steps of the Hotel de l'Univers at Tours, accompanied by the duke's lawyer, A. G. Allen, to get into the car that was to take them to Château de Cande, a throng of ordinary folk showed him marked sympathy.

Their remarks showed that they did not regard his appearance or his act in comforting the duke as theatrical. On every hand you could hear them say, "How simple he is," and when the French say that they mean he lacks pretension.

A Murmur of Approval.

It was the same when he was driven into the grounds at the château. Every one was intensely interested in seeing him and there was a general murmur of approval.

Like all weddings, this one was sad as well as joyful and no one was unmoved, but what satisfaction showed all around that, after so many difficulties, Edward could have at his marriage the kind of service he had set his heart on!

No one could get near the Château de Cande without a card. Cornelius Vanderbilt, who was put out of the grounds at the château a few days ago because of his trailer, was there this morning with his camera.

Duke's Wedding Parson Faces Trouble but He Doesn't Care

BY DAVID DARRAH.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, June 3.—The Rev. R. Anderson Jardine, the "poor man's parson" and Darlington's intrepid vicar for the past ten years, will have a peck of trouble on his hands when he gets back to his post for officiating at the wedding of the duke and duchess of Windsor against the wishes of the Church of England.

The Rev. Mr. Jardine will have to face his bishop, Dr. Herbert Hensley Henson, and also members of the parochial council of St. Paul's church in Darlington. Confronting his superior and his council will not be made easier by continued consultations which went on in Lambeth palace over what can be done about the vicar's defiance of church authority.

Personal Feud Is Seen.

Whatever happens in the next few days and whether Jardine is thrown out on the sidewalk or not, the affair is not likely to die down quickly, for the impression grows that a personal feud is developing between the duke of Windsor and the archbishop of Canterbury, of which the wedding incident is only a new episode.

Jardine himself, presumably, does not care if he loses his job, which pays him $2,090 a year. He has lost other jobs.

His wife, who is waiting his return here in London, exclaimed today:

"He wouldn't mind if he was made to leave the church. He would sacrifice anything for a principle. We shut up our house and sent the maids away for a week and came to London."

Mrs. J. T. Rhodes, Jardine's daughter, also said her father had told her last Monday:

"I am going to marry the duke. I don't care if it means I have to leave the church. I am getting on now anyway."

Church authorities, who accuse Jardine of defying the church rules and discipline, appeared to be in a quandary about what action could be taken. It appears certain that disciplinary measures would not be popular in the country.

Bishops Wonder What to Do.

Neither the bishop of Durham nor the archbishop of Canterbury would make any comment on the case this afternoon. The archbishop of York, as well as the archbishop of Canterbury and the bishops of Fulham, London and Durham, were pondering the problem of what to do.

Members of the parochial council of St. Paul's decided last night that they would summon Jardine to explain his reasons for his action in performing a religious ceremony for the duke of Windsor without first consulting the church authorities.

"The matter will be fully discussed at the next meeting of the church council at the end of the month," said Albert Gibson, treasurer of the church council. "It would be unfair to pass any criticism until we have heard the vicar's explanation."

And so the controversy rages on. J. A. Kensit of the Protestant Truth society in an address at Rochdale, tonight said:

"Whatever is the attitude of religious people to Edward's abdication, there can be only one opinion to subsequent events. The duke and the lady he has made his wife have acted circumspectly. Every canon of right conduct has been fulfilled, and in the eyes of the law there can be no criticism of them.

"The archbishop of Canterbury is on dangerous ground in mixing up religion with politics. No bishop or archbishop has any right to do so. Jardine was carrying out a religious ceremony. The law of the Church of England provides that a clergyman may refuse to marry a divorced person if he wishes. This regulation was made at the request of a body of the clergy. Thus, it is left to the individual conscience of a clergyman to decide."

Rural Dean in a Stew.

Meanwhile the prebendary, Anstruther Cardew, rural dean of France and directly responsible for any Church of Englan ceremony that takes place in France, also is in a terrible stew about having loaned the crucifix which was used at today's wedding.

"I knew the duke of Windsor since he was a boy and, knowing his feelings for religion, I knew he would like to have the crucifix at his wedding," he said. "This would have been a symbol of comfort for him, and I gave my crucifix to a friend to take to Tours."

But it seems Cardew loaned the crucifix before he knew Jardine was going to marry the duke religiously. He frantically telephoned to Tours, but could not reach Jardine or get his cross back. Now he is wondering what the consequences are going to be for him.

Laborite Gibes Premier on Edward's Wedding

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, June 3.—John McGovern, Scotch Laborite, drew the bead on Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain from his place on the opposition benches of the house of commons this afternoon and fired the following question:

"Has the government decided to send a message of congratulation to the duke of Windsor on his wedding?"

Chamberlain looked up sourly and did not reply.

LONDON PAPERS SLAP CLERGY FOR WAR ON EDWARD

Morning Press Tones Down Wedding News.

BY DAVID DARRAH.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, June 4 [Friday.]—The furor over the duke of Windsor's wedding was toned down considerably in this morning's British press, but several popular papers take a sharp crack at the "aloof, uncharitable" attitude of ecclesiastical authorities toward the newlyweds. Yesterday's evening papers had thrown off restraint and given the wedding prominent displays on page one.

Maj. Astor's Times gives less than two-thirds of a column to a sober description of the wedding ceremony, but no editorial comment and no pictures. The Daily Telegraph devotes two columns to a description of the wedding, with one small picture.

"Condolences" to Family.

The Telegraph's editorial, which sets out to be a message of congratulation to the duke and his bride, tails off into what almost amounts to a message of condolence to the royal family.

"Controversy raged around the duke of Windsor's marriage to the very last," the Telegraph's editorial begins. "The duke and his wife carry the good wishes of all with them." But, concluding with a mournful note, the editorial adds: "Because of the intimacy which unites our people with the royal house we can in some measure enter into and sympathize with the feelings of its members. We share the thoughts and hopes with which yesterday's news from France was read by those who in other circumstances would have stood at the bridegroom's side."

Two Pages of Pictures.

Lord Beaverbrook's Daily Express gives two pages to pictures of the duke and his bride and half a page to news of the wedding. It also comments editorially, saying:

"Edward has the good wishes of the multitude in England and the empire who have no intention and perhaps no great prospect of learning Christian charity from bishops."

Similarly the tabloid Daily Mirror says editorially that it was not the fault of the public or the press that argument pursued the duke up to the moment of his marriage. It adds that "we are bound to say it was the fault of certain Anglican ecclesiastics who appear determined to make themselves disliked by a parade of unnecessary aloofnesses, indicating—we gather—disapproval about which nobody but themselves cares a penny."

Almost Ignored by Post.

The ultra-conservative Morning Post almost ignores the wedding, giving it not more than half a column under a smal headline; but the Laborite Daily Herald, although giving little space to the account of the ceremony, says editorially: "We wish him and the duchess of Windsor a long life of married happiness."

A telephone call from Buckingham palace carried congratulations of King George and Queen Elizabeth of Great Britain to Edward, according to the Tours correspondent of the Daily Mirror. The duke also had a telephone conversation with his mother, Queen Mother Mary, which lasted for some minutes, the same correspondent states.

In yesterday's press the duke and his wedding stole the news play in all British papers, front pages being devoted to long stories and telegraphed pictures from Château de Cande.

The intervention of the Rev. R. Anderson Jardine, vicar of a parish at Darlington, Yorkshire, who performed a religious ceremony for the duke and Mrs. Wallis Warfield [Simpson], has given a dramatic touch to the duke's marriage.

Accounts in the papers yesterday evening on the wedding scenes were preceded by appeals in editorials of yesterday morning's papers that the duke and his bride be "given a break" after a period of abuse. Many papers condemned the last minute efforts of church leaders to dissuade the Rev. Mr. Jardine from performing the religious ceremony and to condemn him after he did so.

There is an indication, both in the press and in conversation among Britons, however, that Wally, as the new duchess of Windsor, is in as much likelihood of being snubbed as ever, and they blame her for the whole abdication affair. Congratulations to the duke are begrudgingly extended to her, and some of the British point out that presents sent were addressed to the duke and not to the future duchess.

Divorces Archduke

[Acme Photo.]
IRENE LELBACH.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BUDAPEST, Hungary, June 3.—Monarchist backers of the Hapsburg Archduke Albrecht, pretender to the vacant throne of Hungary, pushed forward today with plans to clear his way to power following his divorce from a commoner. A revived royal court yesterday freed him from the wealthy and pretty Irene Lelbach, whom the archduke married in 1930. Monarchists had regarded a commoner wife as a handicap to the archduke in his efforts to attain the throne, and they were cheered considerably by news of the divorce.

HOOVER HIS GUIDE IN 1932 BUSINESS, INSULL TESTIFIES

A meeting with former President Herbert Hoover at Washington in 1932 convinced Samuel Insull, former utilities magnate, that business upturn was at hand and he increased operations of his Utility Investment Company, Inc. This was testified yesterday during taking of depositions before Jacob I. Grossman, federal master in chancery, in connection with a $40,000,000 damage suit brought against Insull Utility Investments, Inc., by several noteholders.

Insull finished his third day on the stand after cross-examination by Lewis Jacobson, an attorney for the plaintiffs. Several times the former utility head objected to Jacobson's line of questioning. The cross-examination will be resumed at 9:30 a. m. tomorrow.

Girl and Two Boys Win Art School Scholarships

Two boys and a girl, winners of full scholarships in the Art institute school in a competition among 25 high schools in the city and suburbs, met yesterday at the Art institute. The scholarships are worth $240 a year. Miss Dolores Teander of Senn High school won the Chicago Woman's club scholarship. The other winners were Charles White of Englewood High school, winner of the Chicago high schools' scholarship, and William Moulis of J. Sterling Morton High school, winner of the suburban scholarship.

YOUTH INDICTED FOR $600,000 ZION TABERNACLE FIRE

Thomas Griffith, 19 years old, of Zion, was indicted by the Lake county grand jury yesterday on a charge of setting the fire which destroyed the $600,000 Shiloh tabernacle of Wilbur Glenn Voliva in Zion on the night of April 3. Griffith, arrested by Chief of Police Alvert Ruesch of Zion shortly after the fire, is in the county jail in Waukegan. His bond was set at $10,000.

Jacob H. Eissler Jr., 62 years old, of Long Grove, was indicted for the bombing on May 7 of the Deerfield home of Charles Kapschull, road contractor. Phillip Robarge was indicted on a charge of manslaughter for the death of Mrs. Stanley Keith of Lake Forest in an automobile crash.

Woman Held for Stealing Father's U.S. Savings Bonds

Mrs. Frances Skovran, 23 years old, 1403 West 47th street, was ordered held for the federal grand jury yesterday under $3,000 bond by United States Commissioner Edwin K. Walker on a charge of stealing postal savings bonds totaling $1,100 from her father, George Plutoran, 55 years old, and forging his signature.

WE SEE THROUGH A GLASS DARKLY

By CALEB

A FRIEND of mine, who sometimes boasts of his shrewd or cheap buying, paused with me at a case in our optical section. Some twenty-five types and eight colors of sun glasses were displayed.

"Look," he said, "here are sun glasses which you are selling for from $1.00 to $15.00 a pair. These," he exclaimed, yanking a pair from his vest pocket, "cost me 50c! Sun glasses are all alike. You just pick the color you want."

I said, "Wait a minute. Let's find out if they're all alike."

I asked Mr. S. in the optical section to compare my friend's glasses with some we recommend to our customers.

Mr. S., taking my friend's glasses, moved them rapidly up and down between us and a sign on the wall. As the glasses moved, the sign wiggled and danced, showing that the lenses were imperfect and must to some extent distort their wearer's vision.

"Nevertheless," said my friend, "I can see all right through them."

Mr. S. smiled and led us into an optical examination room. A projection machine was turned on. In a frame of light on the opposite wall, rows of clean-cut, small letters appeared. Mr. S. held one of the lenses of my friend's glasses before the lens of the projector. A muddy smudge replaced the rectangle of light and the letters were completely gone! He then held one of our ground lens sun glasses before the aperture, and while the field of light changed to a soft green, every letter remained clean-cut and distinct.

"Do you need to see any more?" I asked my companion.

Sun glasses (unless a doctor prescribes something else) should eliminate harmful rays and partially reduce the intensity of all visible light.

Cheap sun glasses are made of necessarily imperfect blown glass. They do not exclude the most harmful rays. They simply cut down on all rays entering the eye, and due to their imperfection they distort all rays they do admit.

"A man who will wear cheap sun glasses," I said, "is trading glare for something which is far worse for his eyes; that is, distortion. One of the functions of a store like ours is to make right things available, regardless of cheap and destructive merchandise which gains wide distribution—but nevertheless deludes the public."

HASTY PASSAGE OF WAGE, HOUR ACT IS OPPOSED

Urge Careful Study of Drastic Measure.

BY CHESLY MANLY.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., June 3.—[Special.]—Increasing skepticism toward the administration's drastic minimum wage, maximum hour, and child labor measure, passage of which President Roosevelt is demanding at this session of congress, was emphasized today when Senator Pat McCarran [D., Nev.], a spokesman for organized labor, urged that action be taken "a little more slowly and a little more studiously."

Senator McCarran, a member of the joint congressional committee, which is holding hearings on the labor standards measure, took the floor of the senate to urge that more time be given to the proposition of fixing definitly the minimum wages and maximum hours of labor.

Law for Future.

"To my mind, while that philosophy is indeed appropriate, it should, nevertheless, be approached with great study and great care, in that revolutionary movement, we are fixing laws for the centuries yet to come," Senator McCarran declared.

The administration, it became known today, is counting upon opposition to President Roosevelt's Supreme court packing bill to put the wage and hour measure over at this session and for that reason will keep the court bill pending, although it concededly has no chance of passage in the senate.

The theory is that most Democrats who are fighting the President on the court packing project will support the wage and hour bill to keep from "getting too far out of line" and subjecting themselves to the charge of opposing all "social" legislation.

Final Vote to Be Avoided.

The White House insistently denied published stories that the administration had abandoned efforts to secure enactment of the court bill at this session, but it was said in informed circles that a final vote never would be sought. Leaders of the senate opposition said they were wholly indifferent, whether Mr. Roosevelt does or does not intend to press the bill, since it has been dead for a long time.

The joint committee's hearings on the wage and hour bill, written by Thomas Corcoran and Benjamin Cohen, brain trust lawyers, continued today with a hand-picked industrialist, Robert Johnson, president of the Johnson and Johnson company, urging passage of the measure. Mr. Johnson, who manufactures surgical dressing supplies, said his company had been highly successful with a 30 hour week experiment in one of its cotton textile mills, paying full time wages.

Joan Bennett, screen actress, as she appeared in Los Angeles court yesterday. She obtained a divorce from Gene Markey, film writer.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 3.—[Special.]—Another of Hollywood's so-called "ideal marriages" ended today when Joan Bennett obtained a divorce from Gene Markey, scenarist. The actress charged cruelty, asserting Markey berated her and showed a violent temper. He also remained away from home and refused to take her to social functions, she said. They had been married since 1932. Miss Bennett was granted custody of their 3 year old daughter, Melinda.

MEDICAL TEST MARRIAGE BILL TO BE AMENDED

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Springfield, Ill., June 3.—The process of preparing for final passage the Saltiel bill making medical examinations prerequisite to the issuance of marriage licenses was begun today in the Illinois house of representatives.

Although senate amendments are entirely acceptable, the house voted against concurrence. This was done to send the measure to a conference committee of both houses where it will be amended to provide for free laboratory examinations by city health departments as well as by the state department of public health. Passage of the bill is expected to result from adoption by both houses of the conference committee report.

The Daley-Schnackenberg-McCabe bill for the preadjudication of tax levies in Cook county as a foreclosure against late court attacks upon them was sent to Gov. Horner when the house concurred in senate amendments to that measure.

PRESIDENT NOW SEEKS INCREASE IN CIVIL SERVICE

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., June 3.—[Special.]—After four years in which time his administration has added 272,000 jobholders to the federal executive pay roll, more than half of them without regard to civil service, President Roosevelt has urged, in a letter to Vice President Garner and Speaker Bankhead, that congress place "all but policy-forming positions under merit system."

The President's letter, released today, was accompanied by another letter from the civil service commission saying it was "greatly disturbed by the increasing number of bills in this session of congress containing provisions which completely exempt from the merit system employment thereunder."

Almost all administration measures resulting in the creation of new agencies, which have accounted for $179,033 jobs in the total increase of 272,000 since March 4, 1933, have contained provisions similar to those now complained of by the President and the civil service commission. Never before in history has there been such a lush growth of the spoils system. The executive pay roll increased from 563,000 to 835,000 from March 4, 1933, to April 1, 1937.

Order Affirming Sentence of Polls Judge Is Awaited

A county jail mittimus from the Illinois Supreme court which on Wednesday affirmed a one year sentence for Peter Bendix, a Republican judge in the 57th precinct of the 11th ward, is expected to reach Sherif Toman for service early next week. Bendix, who is 30 years old and lives at 846 West 33d place, was sentenced by County Judge Edmund K. Jarecki, for allowing ballots to get out of his possession in the April primary a year ago.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

Laxatives are only makeshifts. A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. Stubbornly refuse anything else. 25c.

N. Y. CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ACTS TO PURGE COURTS

Aroused by Revelation of Widespread Graft.

BY WILLIAM FULTON.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, June 3.—[Special.]—The Chamber of Commerce of the State of New York took steps today to weed out widespread graft and corruption in the courts.

Confronted with evidence of the building of a political machine in the state courts and the lining of politicians' pockets at the expense of the litigating public, the chamber adopted a resolution pledging itself to a clean-up drive. The facts were supplied by a special committee which made a two year study of the situation.

Seek Change in Method.

Winthrop W. Aldrich, president of the chamber and chairman of the Chase National bank, was asked by the commerce group to appoint a steering committee to lead the movement. The goal is a complete change in the method of selecting judges. The constitutional convention next year will be asked to adopt a new plan.

Much of the data showing the political complexion of the courts amassed by the chamber's special committee dealt with the handling of mortgage foreclosures. It was found that in more than a third of the cases in which a receiver was appointed and acted, the payment to the mortgagee was less than 10 cents on the dollar.

"Sheer Waste" Alleged.

The brunt of the criticism fell on the Supreme court in New York City, which corresponds to the Circuit court in Illinois.

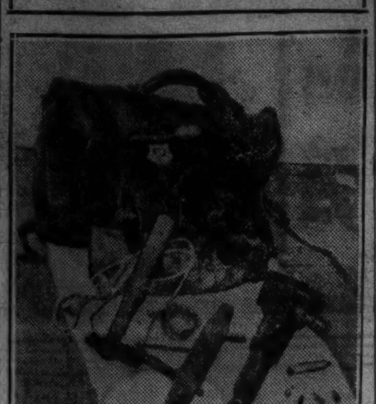
The allegations, already disclosed when the report was sent to members in advance of today's meeting, are that a great majority of the 15,858 persons who earned commissions in mortgage foreclosures were active workers for the major political organizations; that of $1,713,472.73 awarded in fees by courts in foreclosures, $1,422,792 represented "sheer waste;" that many of the fees were not earned and that others exceeded definite statutory limitations, and that appointments were made with the definite purpose of strengthening political machines.

Recommendations Made.

The committee advanced six specific recommendations for foreclosure reform, all designed to simplify the machinery and reduce costs. For the improvement of the judicial system it proposed changes in the method of selection in New York City alone, although it hinted conditions also might be found bad in upstate counties.

The systems of nonpartisan selection of judges in use in California, Ohio and New Mexico were cited as possible patterns to follow.

Weighted to Body



[Acme Photo.]

These articles were attached to the neck of Charles F. Keene, Washington, D. C., broker whose body was recovered from bay near Crisfield, Md. The three shells in the lower right hand corner correspond to one that apparently killed him.

Washington, D. C., June 3.—[Special.]—Washington and Maryland police today had been unable to find any clews in the slaying of Charles F. Keene, wealthy Washington real estate broker, whose weighted body was recovered Tuesday in the bay near Crisfield, Md.

A coroner's jury returned a verdict that the broker, who was 63 years old, had been murdered. Bloodstains and overturned furniture in his stateroom in the excursion steamer from which he disappeared the night of May 13 indicated there had been a struggle before his death.

Fishermen who recovered the body found it had been weighted with an assortment of metal, including a hammer and an auto jack. Three gun cartridges found in Keene's vest pocket correspond with the bullet in his head which apparently killed him.

AMELIA EARHART AT PARAMARIBO ON WORLD TOUR

PARAMARIBO, Dutch Guiana, June 3.—(AP)—Amelia Earhart made a 750 mile hop over South American jungles today to get to Dutch Guiana and then had to ride 25 miles on a trolley car.

She brought her silvery monoplane down at the Zandery airfield, 25 miles from Paramaribo, at 11:50 a. m., E. S. T. at the end of the third leg of her round the world jaunt from the United States.

Her next hop is to Natal, on Brazil's easternmost tip. She hopes to make the flight tomorrow. The distance is 1,600 miles. After that, she intends to make the over ocean jump to Dakar, Senegal. Dakar is about 1,900 miles from Natal.

Escaped Convict Is Shot by Alabama Postmistress

Mobile, Ala., June 3.—[Special.]—A 2 year old account with burglars was settled by Mrs. Anna Kemp, postmistress at Nokomis, Ala., near here, last night when she shot Rutledge Miner of Atlanta, escaped convict, trying to break into the postoffice. Mrs. Kemp used the same shotgun that her husband used two years ago when he routed postoffice burglars and then fell dead of heart disease.

THE GOVERNMENT VIOLATES ITS MAILS.

The inviolability of the mails has been implied in every American's conception of his government. Many public affairs might get on the shady side and scandal might raise its head and make an outcry, but two or three functions of government would be above suspicion and free from tarnish. One was the carrying of the mails. The criminal who was bold enough or foolish enough to touch an article consigned to the postoffice would, in American tradition, be pursued until he was captured.

Now the federal government, in order to aid striking C. I. O. steel workers in Youngstown and Warren, O., has broken down this tradition and is lawlessly prohibiting the use of the mails to citizens who are innocent of any offense and who were relying upon the parcel post for food.

It happens that these citizens are besieged in the plants which have been struck by the organizations supported by the government. The citizens are holding possession of property where they worked. They are in legal possession and they have done nothing either state or federal government or the municipalities could charge against them as an offense. The municipalities will not protect them, the state has done nothing to aid them, and the postoffice department, by a new and special service rule, declares that only letter mail will be delivered to the persons in the beleaguered plants.

The citizen who wants to send a parcel post package to these plants through the mails will have his package refused. The strikers have turned away the mail trucks and they have the blessings of the federal government in doing so. The United States has denied one of its services to a number of its citizens when they need it most and it has done so in order that they may be forced out of property they occupy legally by hunger and thus win a point for the strikers who are lawlessly attacking innocent people.

This is not a strike, it is a conspiracy involving officials of the United States government. To make the affair more spectacular if it can be so made, the companies have been trying to supply their workers with food dropped from airplanes, much as the warring forces in Spain endeavor to supply besieged contingents. The companies may have thought there was some news value in this attempt, but the strikers are endeavoring to stop the services and threaten to picket the airports if it is continued. Two planes have crashed and there were rumors that there were snipers at work as the pilots endeavored to fly over the plants.

Congress apparently has gone into another of its periodic moods of dejection and submission, but there ought to be some Ohio congressman with spunk enough to demand an investigation of the methods used by the government. If it can try to drive legal occupants of property out by denying one service of government to them, the precedent would say that an administration could use another service, say a regiment of the regular army, to drive them out. The situation at Youngstown and Warren, O., requires an investigation.

CHICKENS COME HOME.

In recent issues of THE TRIBUNE Joseph Ator, special correspondent, has given our readers a picture of present day conditions in Minneapolis. This includes the business aspect. While other sections of the country are showing signs of a business revival the course of employment in the basic Minneapolis industries has been downward, and from present indications will continue downward. Communistic agitators, who thrive in such an atmosphere, have obtained control of the government.

The Twin Cities were created by early railroad builders. Together with Duluth they became the eastern termini of a western railway empire, dominated by the Hill lines—the Great Northern, and the Northern Pacific railways. The freight rate fabric was so planned that the products of the northwest would be milled or otherwise processed at Minneapolis and thence forwarded in trainloads to the east. To furnish lading for cars that would otherwise move westward without loads industry was encouraged to locate in the Twin Cities. Freight rates were so constructed as to encourage the movement of raw materials to Minneapolis, there to be fabricated and distributed to the farmers in the western empire. Hill's oft repeated principle of good railroading was, "Put your trust in the Lord, but haul no empties."

The railroads, for state and city as well as for their own benefit, gave the Twin Cities a rate adjustment that would compensate them for the lack of waterway transportation possessed by eastern cities. Navigation on the upper Mississippi was used as an excuse for lower freight rates, but it never was nor never could be a potential competitive factor. To use another favorite phrase of the late James J. Hill, "The Lord gave us a river but neglected to pave the bottom."

Then came an era of ill feeling toward the railways that had its origin in financial abuses in the east. The western farmer was easily persuaded that eastern financiers were reaping huge dividends from a rate fabric that was blamed for the ravages of drouth and the loss of foreign markets. He was told that he paid all freight charges because they were added to the eastern price of everything he bought and deducted from the market value of everything he sold. A series of regulatory laws culminated in the transportation act designed by Representative Esch of Wisconsin and Senator Cummins of Iowa, under the mandate of which the interstate commerce commission was instructed so to revamp all rates as to give every section of the country the so-called advantages of its geographical location. Pathetically, they thought that in so doing they would force the east to assume a larger share of the transportation burden of the country and thus relieve the west.

The law has done no such thing. It has been steadily draining the west of its factories, mills, and population because distance, rather than the necessities of industry, has become the czar of transportation. As markets move with population the hauls from the grain fields increase. The mileage theory of rate construction has terraced the freight rates upward to an apex occupied by Minnesota, the Dakotas, and Montana. As industrial difficulties increase with the slope they move toward their markets at the seaboard, and thus midwesterners have become the hewers of wood and the drawers of water for eastern business activities.

No section of the country can prosper without reasonable transportation facilities, and the cheapness of freight rates is the measure of prosperity. Naturally navigable water is the greatest asset, but when that is not available the railway should be developed to its point of highest efficiency. That is just what the midwest and northwest have not done. Their congressmen have voted consistently in favor of anti-railway legislation, thinking that in doing so they were crippling eastern railway owners. What they have done is to drive industry to the seaboard.

REX VAGANS, PRESBYTER VAGANS.

Just when the British government imagined that the American marriage had been put in its proper place and could be treated with aloof journalism—and no official recognition—as a civil wedding in France of a nobody to a discarded member of the royal family, the Rev. Robert A. Jardine, provincial clergyman of the Church of England, broke through censorship and discipline to give Edward and his bride the forbidden services of the church.

It is newspaper experience that when a story of this sort starts rolling, the unexpected is always to be expected. Each bombshell exploding releases another. The one which shot the odd little chapel minded Anglican clergyman from Darlington to Monts to do what all possibly available clergymen had been forbidden to do may not have been the last of the bombs.

The bishop of Fulham, who has jurisdiction of Anglican affairs in France, says that his protest and rebuke sent to the presbyter vagans, as the church authorities called him, the hedge priest, not having been effective, there nevertheless remained the fact that the church recognized only the civil marriage. The most the poor man's parson could do was to give the marriage his personal blessing.

The comic spirit is writing part of this history of England. The rex vagans and his bride are given their religious ceremony by the presbyter vagans who "consulted his conscience" and could not bear to have his king denied the ritual of the church when he took a wife.

The self-censoring English newspapers have been shocked into another discovery that suppression is compression for explosives. The presbyter vagans will not be further disciplined, the bishop of Fulham says. The decision may be wise. The Rev. Mr. Jardine might be just the man to come over here and tell why and how he read the service.

PROPERTY DAMAGE INSURANCE.

Under the terms of the proposed Illinois financial responsibility law, a driver's license may be suspended if the holder fails to pay a judgment in a personal injury suit growing out of a motor accident for which he is held responsible. The suspension would be continued until the judgment was paid and an insurance policy posted to compensate the public for any future accident that might be charged against the negligence of this particular driver.

Every motorist will agree that the measure is a good one, but that it does not go far enough. It should include property damage as well as personal injury. No one should have the right to operate a vehicle unless he can afford the moderate cost of insurance against damage to the other fellow's automobile. He may consider that such a law infringes upon his personal liberty in that he has the right to take a chance if he so desires, but this argument fails when the property of another is involved. He has no such right, human or otherwise.

Under present conditions the car owner does not possess a machine very long before it becomes disfigured in some manner, frequently through no fault of his own. He then learns to his sorrow that the chances of collecting any part of the repair bill from an uninsured motorist are almost nil. He expects the other fellow to have coverage and therefore should furnish equal protection in case responsibility is reversed.

THE PRESIDENT SLIPS ONE OVER.

[The Catholic World.]

Years ago Punch published a number of comic drawings illustrating "Things One Would Rather Have Left Unsaid." If some American editor cares to inaugurate a similar series I commend to his attention a few sentences from a speech made a year ago by Senator Ashurst of Arizona. The excerpt runs:

"Among the unjust criticisms which have been uttered or printed about President Roosevelt was that he intended at some time—nobody knows when or where—to increase by some legerdemain—nobody knows when or where—the membership of the Supreme court of the United States so that his policies might be sustained. A more ridiculous, absurd, and unjust criticism of a President was never made. No person whose opinion is respected has favored attempting such a reckless theory and policy."

I revise my suggestion: That incomparably inept utterance should not appear as one of a series. It is a natural nonpareil.

Poor Ashurst! He was doing his best to defend his master, but his master let him down. What explanation or justification or interpretation the unfortunate senator attempted later I am not in a position to say, but if he tried to explain away his forthright castigation of those who harbored the nefarious suspicion that President Roosevelt might tamper with the Supreme court I imagine his second statement must have been even more pathetic than the first. He speaks of "legerdemain"; he needs it himself. Houdini was a wizard at wriggling out of a strait-jacket. But the skill of "the incomparable conjurer" [as I heard one boy call him] would seem amateurish in comparison with that of any man, even the most nimble politician, who could extricate himself after getting tied up as tight as Senator Ashurst. The honorable gentleman from the great American desert must have spent too much time amid the sand and cactus; he had better frequent the White House precincts and keep his ears cocked for the latest rumors.

A LINE O' TYPE OR TWO

Hew to the Line, let the quips fall where they may.

FISHING FOR MEN.

Sir: It has been my custom for several years to spend the first few days of the trout fishing season with the little old parson of Hometown. This year, on my first cast, my line snarled into the worst mess I ever saw. I am afraid I was cussing too hard, as the parson put his hand on my shoulder and said: "Son, why don't you sit down and relax? Close your eyes, and while you're at it, why not pray for guidance?" . . . Not wanting to hurt his feelings, I did just what he advised. Then, picking up the pole, I selected a loop in the line and pulled. It unraveled perfectly. . . . The only remark of the parson, who was watching me, was given in a low voice. "Well, I'll be damned," said he. Charles not Charlie.

RETURN ENGAGEMENT.

Hark to the shrilling of calliopes!
Youth's unslaked fire again within me burns
As down the changing, never-changing ways
As the great show winds slowly into view
Gold nets under the vaulting trees appear;
My garden clowns go clad in motley hue;
Jack-in-the-Pulpit's ballyhoo I hear.

Now all my winter's savings I have spent

SLOW TRAIN THROUGH MICHIGAN.

Early in the eighties the Chicago, Kalamazoo and Chicago was planned and built as far as Woodbury, 45 miles from Kalamazoo. Along the line were many small lakes affording good fishing and the one train a day—up and back—was freely patronized by anglers. . . . One morning several of us were making the trip, and it was a slow one. We'd go a piece, then stop, then go a piece again. Finally one of the boys asked Ben Waite, the conductor, what was causing the delay. "Oh, we caught up to that damn cow again," said he.

ETERNAL HATE.

I've forgiven the louse who stole my spouse
With his flattery sweet as honey;
My mother-in-law, as smooth as a saw,
And the crook who took my money.
I've forgiven the swab who got my job,
And the knave he used for a tool;
The man of the pun, and all but one—
That kid that I knew in school.

And flourish before our sight
His lollipops and the sweet gumdrops;
But he never said, "Have a bite."
With a broad, smug grin he reveled in
The pleasures beyond our price;
And he munched away, as if to say,
"Oh, gee! but ain't they nice!"

I've forgiven the louse who stole my spouse,
The traitor, the crook, and the tool;
The man of the pun, and all but one—

KEEP ARTERIES YOUNG AND PLIABLE.

As long as we continue to work too hard, get too little recreation and sleep, and look upon the welfare of the body with more or less indifference we shall be faced with the problems of arteriosclerosis—hardening of the arteries.

Sixteenth century writers in the field of medicine recognized this trouble, described it, and set forth the origin as deposits of noxious materials from the blood on the lining membrane of the arteries. However, it was not until the time of the great German pathologist, Virchow, that this blood vessel disease was clearly understood, and little more than two generations have elapsed since we associated high blood pressure with hardening of the arteries.

Regardless of the date when the disorder was identified, studies of Egyptian mummies disclose its presence. Apparently the condition is as old as civilization. At one time there seemed to be no effort made to combat it by diet or drugs and it was accepted as one of the signs of wear and tear to which the blood conveying tubes were subjected.

Many of us are aware of its wide occurrence today and we are coming more and more to the point of view that its source, including high blood pressure, lies in a perverted metabolism of food—its digestion and assimilation. One fact that lends color to this theory is that diabetes—if it has existed for five years or more—will be accompanied by definite evidences of hardening. In fact, the diabetic may expect to develop this affection somewhat earlier than the one who is digesting and using his sugar with ease.

Furthermore, there appears to be an hereditary factor. The amount of "vital rubber" in the vessels naturally would be an inherited characteristic just as is facial contour and color of hair and eyes. Many authorities have reported families of considerable size in which practically every member exhibited some form of arterial degeneration.

Locally the disease arises because something has damaged the inner coat of the blood highways themselves and no little interest has been aroused because of the suggestion that the excessive feeding of cholesterol—which occurs generously in egg yolk, butter, rich cream, liver, sweetbreads, etc. — will increase the trouble.

Those who produce an insufficient secretion of the thyroid are prone to the disease. At one time alcohol was held responsible. But this is one thing for which it cannot be blamed. Mohammedans, who do not use liquor in any form, have arteriosclerosis as frequently as the people of any other nation.

Another factor, and an important one, is that of worry or apprehension. Perhaps the nub of the situation is loss of sleep or rest—a failure to give the body time for recovery. Is this an actual cause or does it, too, merely contribute to the upset of metabolism? At any rate, patients do better, feel more comfortable, and are able to work more efficiently if not placed under undue nervous pressure.

There are many reasons for not loading the body excessively with cholesterol containing foods, and arterial hardening is one of them. The diet recommended, therefore, is one which supplies adequate nourishment and is balanced, containing ample protein without an excess of fatty substances which are high in cholesterol. Activity of the muscles, as well as the nervous system, is desirable, and this means some exercise.

The typical arteriosclerotic, as a rule, is a large eater, and consequently is usually overweight. Then, too, far more attention should be paid by these individuals to the behavior of the intestinal tube, particularly of the colon, as constant putrefaction within the large bowel is likely to set free chemical molecules of considerable complexity—many of which may be irritating to the delicate cells of the circulation tree.

In one way, then, we can look upon the complaint as poisoning of the blood carrying structures—by use, yes, but more probably by the products of incomplete digestion or improper assimilation, augmented perhaps with too many waste products, the result of fatigue.

MASSAGE.

H. P. B. writes: Is massage given by a trained operator of any benefit in certain ailments? If so, will you please name them.

REPLY.

Massage has a favorable effect in stimulating the venous and lymphatic circulation and direct manipulation of the muscles carries away some of their waste products. It relieves muscular atrophy by inducing better nutrition. It is used in poliomyelitis, nerve injuries, spastic paralysis, sprains, following the healing of fractures, in stiff joints, arthritis, and in chronic diseases in general.

TWISTED PELVIC.

D. C. writes:

1. My 16 year old daughter has a twisted pelvic bone. Will this condition cause trouble in case of confinement later on?

2. What would cause one of the ribs to bulge?

REPLY.

1. A twisted pelvis may affect the mechanism of labor, but it would not necessarily retard the birth of the child. Have your physician measure the pelvis. He can tell. An X-ray will give much information. The cause is usually rickets in childhood.

2. Probably rickets.

FIRST SYMPTOMS.

H. R. writes: What are the first symptoms of syphilis?

REPLY.

The primary stage begins with the appearance of the initial sore and ends with the onset of the skin eruption and constitutional symptoms, the usual duration being six to twelve weeks. About one month after inoculation a red papule appears at the site of infection. This enlarges and breaks down, forming an ulcer with a very hard base, resembling, to the touch, a button felt through a thin layer of clothing. The lymph glands in the neighborhood are enlarged, hard, and shotty, but do not suppurate unless there is a mixed infection. The primary lesion usually heals without treatment.

CABBAGE.

Mrs. G. writes: I have read that cabbage eaten frequently makes one stupid. Is there any truth in this?

REPLY.

You can't become a cabbage head via the diet route.

BY NORMAN INGREY.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

SANTIAGO, Chile.—Systematic destruction of the nation's vineyards to solve the "terrible alcoholic problem" was urged by President Arturo Alessandri in his annual address to congress.

His plans caused a sensation at the opening of the legislative session, a ceremony colored by the revival of military pomp and the attendance of the foreign diplomatic corps.

The Chilean vineyards, many of which were first planted by the early Spanish colonists, hitherto have been regarded as a national heritage. Surprise was expressed that the president should want to see them burned up and plowed under.

Alessandri made his proposal because, he said, "the consumption of alcohol by the Chilean working classes has increased fantastically." Experience and statistics proved, he said, that all extra pay recently conceded by employers was spent for drink and not for food and clothing.

The president proclaimed alcoholism as the biggest and most urgent of Chilean problems. The future of the race is at stake, he said, and he appealed for all-round sacrifices to solve the problem.

Farmers and grape growers, who form a large parliamentary block, were slightly relieved when Alessandri promised that destruction of vineyards would be accompanied by "corresponding indemnification." They were warned, however, that new vineyards or replanting of old ones would not be tolerated.

The president indicated that while plans were prepared for diverting $29,000,000 of wine growing capital into other industries "which do less harm to the workers," the government will assist in dumping wine production in overseas markets.

Another temporary remedy was envisaged in a bill proposing national closing of saloons from Friday evening to Monday noon, the aim being to insure that the worker's pay will arrive home intact. But Alessandri insisted that the main plan was to get the wine beyond the worker's reach by destroying many of the vineyards and shipping the greater part of the production overseas.

Dealing with international affairs, the president declared Chile's future position at Geneva depended on reform of the league of nations.

He praised the Pan-American peace conference results, but said he thought the treatment of disarmament had been "too timid."

MAKING HOMICIDE SAFER.

Glen Ellyn, Ill., May 29.—I am glad to note that Chicago is taking belated steps to make homicide safer for motorists. A number of cars have been wrecked of late by running into safety islands where pedestrians have taken refuge. This is not to be endured, and I see that Chicago is tearing down said safety islands.

Some time ago the city began cutting off the corners of curbs at street intersections because a number of cars had been damaged by striking the corners of curbs in a last effort to land an escaping pedestrian. Cutting the curb corners is not half enough. I propose that either all sidewalks be lowered or all street levels be raised until street and sidewalk levels are the same and the curb abolished. Then the motorist could chase the foot passenger clear into the doorway without danger of spoiling his car. True, the electric light poles offer a slight hazard, but there ought to be at least that much of a sporting chance.

The state, too, is falling into line. When we built four lane, forty foot roads we thought we were making things quite safe for the motorist. But the highway department now finds it necessary to build a curb down the center of the highway to separate the two double lanes so that motorists cannot dart over into oncoming trafic and run over other motorists.

Here in our little village of Glen Ellyn we are very kind to motorists. A few years ago the village fathers decided that the streets, laid out in the horse and buggy days, were too narrow for the heavy auto trafic around the business center. So at heavy expense [we didn't have the CCC then] they cut down thousands of dollars' worth of elms and maples that it had taken 40 to 75 years to grow, plowed up acres of bluegrass and flowers, widened the streets on both sides, and in place of trees and grass and flowers they laid cement. Before the cement was dry they were marking off, with yellow paint, parking space on both sides of the streets, and as soon as it would bear the weight both sides of all of these streets were lined with parked cars. They still are. There is less space for trafic than before, but the car owners have free parking space.

All-day parking is the rule with us. All-night, too, if you want it. People with loop jobs motor in from miles around, park their cars in the streets, and take a train for Chicago. In the evening they get off the train, take the bus off the street, and drive home. Even garage employés drive to work in the morning and park their cars all day in the streets. You can see demonstration cars, towing trucks, and big transport trucks parked day and night. One street had been made a one-way street [except when some motorist wants to go the other way] so that the other half can be used for parking. And it is so used, all the time.

Thus far I have kept my quota of arms and legs by agility and by crossing streets in the middle of the block where no car can sneak around the corner and get me unaware. But if the motorists get any better break I'll have to go into training again for the 50 yard dash.

CHARLES LEE BRYSON.

FIGURES WANTED.

Libertyville, Ill., May 29.—I frequently find myself in disagreement with the views expressed in your editorials and cartoons. However, I wish to commend you upon the suggestion set forth in Mr. Orr's cartoon on the front page today.

We certainly should have some accurate figures on the number of unemployed, and while suggesting that the government take a census on this matter, it seems to me that it would be quite fitting also to suggest that it take a census of a number of other matters of vital importance in appraising and analyzing our economic conditions, such as a wealth distribution census, accurate figures on our public debt, our total private indebtedness, etc. We are working in the dark to a very large extent in trying to solve our economic and other problems without knowing the true facts and conditions, and the whole truth in regard to so many of these essential facts is quite conspicuous by its absence. Perhaps some of the unemployed could be used in the taking of a census of these matters.

BRITAIN SUBMITS 'SAFETY' PLAN TO DUCE AND HITLER

Calls for Neutral Zones Around Spain.

BY DAVID DARRAH.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, June 3.—The British government today communicated to France, Germany, and Italy a new plan for patroling Spanish waters. It is hoped the plan will supply Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler and Premier Mussolini with the guarantees they ask for return to participation in the so-called international nonintervention scheme.

Both Germany and Italy withdrew from the nonintervention committee arms control plan Monday, bringing about a dangerous international situation in Europe.

Great Britain's proposal to prevent a repetition of incidents similar to the Spanish bombing of the German warship Deutschland, which led to the bombardment of Almeria by a German fleet, includes a mixed patrol of the entire Spanish coast by vessels of all four nations—Britain France, Germany, and Italy—instead of assigning sections of the coast to each. A second point is obtaining assurances from the Spanish [Madrid-Valencia] government and the rebels that certain areas of coastal waters will be declared safety zones and no attack made on foreign ships in them.

Provide Parley of Admirals.

Should these assurances be violated by either Spanish side, the naval stafs of the four patrol fleets would consult each other on appropriate action.

The British are urging the other powers—French support being assured—to agree in principle to the proposals, leaving the details to be worked out later. Both the British and French have refused the Hitler plan to draw up a scale of penalties to be imposed in case of all breaches.

Consultations showed that Berlin is anxious to reach an agreement that will enable her to return to the situation which existed before the Deutschland affair, although for reasons of prestige it seems that Hitler is rushing more ships to the Mediterranean and the British admiralty doesn't like this. Mussolini, on the other hand, is obdurate and Anglo-Italian relations appear to be still further degenerating.

[Two more members of the Deutschland's crew died in a Gibraltar hospital yesterday, making the total of deaths in the bombing 28.]

Italo-German Ties Extended.

ROME, June 3.—(AP)—Premier Benito Mussolini today piloted Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler's war minister through a realistic display of Italy's military power and then the two laid plans for Italo-German collaboration in the Spanish war and wars to come.

The German visitor was Field Marshal Werner von Blomberg. Here chiefly to confer on the Spanish crisis, he scouted the strength Italy can muster alongside that of Germany.

First he was taken to the huge experimental aviation station at Guidona. Next Il Duce took him aloft in a great tri-motored plane to watch the Italian air armada destroy a simulated naval base.

Despite all this activity, the German war minister had time for three conferences, first with Mussolini, next with the Italian foreign minister, Count Galeazzo Ciano, and finally Marshal Pietro Badoglio, Italian chief of staf.

HOLSTEIN HEFER BRINGS $2,200 AT DEERFIELD SALE

A top price of $2,200 was paid for a 3 year old black and white hefer, Bessie Ormsby Fobes Maid, from the Elmwood farms near Deerfield, owned by Robert V. Rasmussen, at the national Holstein sale held on Elmwood farms yesterday.

The hefer was bought by J. D. Allen of Allendale farm near Libertyville. She will be added to the pure bred herd of Holsteins headed by an Elmwood farms bull bought by Mr. Allen from Mr. Rasmussen last year for $3,400.

Bessie, a pure bred with a good production record, was among the 87 head sold for a total of $33,892 at the national sale. She produced in a year 17,730.80 pounds of milk containing 623.28 pounds of butterfat or 779.10 pounds of butter.

A Canadian bull was the highest priced sire at the sale. This yearling bull, Montvic Bonheur Royal, brought $1,900. He was consigned by Mount Victoria farms, Hudson Heights, Quebec, Canada. The bull was bought by Fred J. Southcott, manager of Pabst farm, Oconomowoc, Wis.

MARSHALL FIELD & COMPANY

OUR CHIEF PERIL: A BLIND FAITH IN MAJORITIES

Warn U. S. to Analyze Foes' Thought Trends.

(In this article Mr. Ator continues his discussion of the methods of dictatorship. Another article will appear in a later issue.)

BY JOSEPH ATOR.

The greatest threat which exists today against the democratic governments of the world is the unwavering faith of their citizens in the power of majorities.

This is neither paradox nor heresy against the gospel of freedom. Citizens of a free nation believe in majority rule because they are convinced it is good. That conviction, in the United States and Great Britain, is based on centuries of experience with both freedom and tyranny. Their error is not in this faith.

It is in imputing to the enemies of free government the same way of thinking which they possess themselves. The remedy lies, not in abandoning their own faith, but in recognizing that their enemies, the proponents of totalitarian or slave states, have a deep contempt for majority rule and base their actions on that contempt.

On Gangster Dictatorships.

Revolutions and the gangster dictatorships which arise from them are the work of minorities. These minorities prevail, first, because they know what they want, while the majority is confused, often as a result of the propaganda of the minority; second, because the majority sits back and expects public authority, the police or the government, to preserve order, only to discover too late that public authority either was powerless or was sympathetic with the revolutionary minority.

The manner in which Lenin and Trotsky, starting with a handful of followers, by artful propaganda simultaneously undermined the free government of Russia and inspired the violence which destroyed it has been sketched before in this series.

The Fascist and Nazi revolutions followed a different course. In Italy and Germany the real revolutions took place after Mussolini and Hitler, minority leaders, gained control of the government. As communist history offers the best study of revolutionary propaganda, the Fascist and Nazi stories give the best demonstration of the use of governmental power and patronage to build a dictatorship.

It cannot be repeated too often that it is differences in revolutionary method which are being discussed here, not differences in the final product. To the free American differences between communist, Nazi, and Fascist government fade before the central fact that each is a slave state, crushing political, economic,, social, and religious liberty by gangster methods.

The March on Rome.

Mussolini's much publicized march on Rome in 1922, from which the Fascist régime is officially dated, was largely a show. When he made his move the king and the army gave their tacit approval, and the parliamentary government, after a gesture of resistance, collapsed. Mussolini was installed as a constitutional prime minister.

The new premier's first move was to install Fascists in all the municipal and provincial governmental posts throughout the country. The new Fascist officials, many of them recent members of the squadristi, Mussolini's terrorist gangs, accomplished a double purpose. They filled the party campaign chest, and their own pockets, by widespread extortion, and they gave protection to the lawless acts of their recent associates, the squadristi.

Terror Reign Hits Freedom.

Freedom of speech and of the press, with other civil rights, had a legal existence in Italy for nearly two years after the march on Rome. Practically, however, they were nullified by the reign of terror carried on under the protection of the central government and its henchmen in the cities and provinces.

Italy was a gangster ruled country long before the decrees of 1924 and 1925 established the Fascist state in its legal form. And, to the very day that the dictatorship was established, the Fascists remained a minority party.

In Germany, Adolf Hitler had his fingers burned in the ridiculous end of his beer hall putsch of 1923, and thereafter was careful to pay formal respect, at least, to the law.

Force and Propaganda.

Nowhere is it possible, in the case of the Nazis, to put a finger down and say, "At this point they abandoned lawful means and appealed to force." Hitler's propaganda, his vague program of anti-Semitism, veiled socialism, extreme nationalism, and deification of discipline won millions of sincere converts in a nation stricken by the double catastrophe of world war defeat and the depression.

But side by side with propaganda marched force. The brown shirts followed the same brutal tactics in Germany which the Fascist squadristi had in Italy. As soon as the Nazis won control of a state or city their unofficial army suppressed the opposition parties with murder and terrorism.

Even so, they still were a minority party in the nation when President von Hindenburg, doddering toward the grave, gave Hitler control of the government early in 1933.

Excuse for Suspension.

It was not until the reichstag fire, which the Nazis have been suspected of starting themselves, gave them an opportunity to suspend the constitutional guarantees of civil liberties and give terrorism full sway under the protection of the government that they were able to register a majority at the polls—and then only a majority of 52 per cent.

Even in suspending the constitution Hitler was not an innovator. He had the precedent set by Heinrich Bruening. That provision, written into what the German republicans believed was to be the charter of their liberties, proved the engine of their destruction.

These summaries of the methods of European dictators only have academic interest to Americans, unless it is possible to trace from them parallel actions in the United States. If such parallels are found, then it is logical to inquire whether they point toward a possible attack on free government in this country, not necessarily an attack by communists, Fascists or Nazis as they are labeled today, but an attack designed to set up what they have in common, a slave government.

No minorities have seized our government, either national or state. The election returns last November make that clear. There remains the possibility that the national or state governments may be extending aid to minorities with revolutionary tendencies.

The relief problem deserves brief attention. There is little doubt that public support of the unemployed during the depression did much to prevent misery and thereby ward off that disorder which is the symptom of political sickness.

Relief Grows Into Patronage.

But there is also little doubt that the possibilities of relief as a vast source of political patronage and propaganda were soon recognized, and that its administration has been increasingly directed toward realizing those political profits at public expense.

The product has been a class of people who now regard jobs on the public pay roll as their vested interest, and who frequently have resorted to disorder and violence in support of their demands. Responsibility for this violence can be charged as much to administration relief policies as to the revolutionary agitators who inspired it.

Blockade Picketing Permitted.

Governors and mayors have permitted picketing, lawful only when it is peaceful, to take the form of blockades of struck plants, enforced by violence. The postoffice department has refused to deliver food to workmen who exercised their undoubted lawful right to stick to their jobs inside such plants.

Whether such encouragement of violence by public authority is in effect aid and comfort to a revolutionary minority depends on the view taken by John L. Lewis' Committee for Industrial Organization. So long as the C. I. O. ignores the machinery offered by the Wagner labor act for peaceful settlement of labor disputes and resorts to violence, it remains open to suspicion that its motives go beyond the simple organization of workmen for collective bargaining.

FARLEY TO FACE QUIZ ON STRIKE FOOD REFUSAL

Move for House Inquiry Today Requires Reply.

BY WILLARD EDWARDS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., June 3.—[Special.]—An explanation of the postoffice department's barring of food shipments through the mails to workers in the besieged steel mills of Ohio will be demanded in the house tomorrow by Representative Dudley A. White of Ohio.

Congressman White drafted tonight a resolution of inquiry, which he will introduce tomorrow. It calls upon Postmaster General Farley to transmit to the house at the earliest practical moment all facts and information on whether or not postal officials in Ohio refused to deliver parcels, regularly admissible to the mails, to persons in the picket bound plants. Farley would also be directed to state whether the department gave authority to the Ohio officials to refuse to make parcel post deliveries of food.

Purported Order from Capital.

According to press dispatches, postoffice executives in Ohio announced last Saturday that they had received orders from Washington that packages of an unusual nature would be refused. Packages containing food were immediately labeled as those of an unusual nature although food is customarily delivered by parcel post throughout the nation.

"The government is supposed to be impartial in strike difficulties," said Mr. White, who is a Republican. "There is a law against interference with the mails. In my opinion, the government loses its impartiality and forfeits the principle that 'The mail must go through' when it cancels delivery in a situation of this kind."

"Whatever the intent of the government may be, the practical result is that by this move, which violates all previous rules and precedents of the mail service, one side in the dispute is aided.

"This assertion does not attempt to measure the underlying causes of the strike or say which side is right or wrong. It merely contends that the United States government cannot occupy its proper relation to labor strife and serve its rightful obligations in the settlement or avoidance of labor difficulties unless it jealously guards the position it should always maintain as an impartial referee.

"In no strike should there be any element arising from either side where either the company or the strikers is permitted to set itself up as being bigger than government authority and the established law of the land."

Chance for Farley to Answer.

Under house rules, Congressman White's resolution will be referred to the house postoffice and roads committee. This committee will send the resolution to the postmaster general for an informal answer.

The resolution is privileged in that some action must be taken within seven days after its introduction. The house leadership may squelch the resolution eventually by laying the resolution on the table, but some answer must be forthcoming from the postoffice department within a week.

Inquiry at the postoffice department today elicited a statement that normal mail service had not been interrupted in the Ohio strike area.

Allege Unusual Request.

"After the strikes started and picket lines were thrown around these branch plants, numerous packages of food were received, addressed specifically to men within these branch plants.

"Inasmuch as the government normally had not been delivering mail to these branch plants, it was decided not to start delivery at this time. If the postoffice department had made such deliveries, it would have been accused of aiding those within the plant at the expense of the strikers."

Congressman John T. Bernard [Farm-Lab], Minn., has been appointed field director of the Steel Workers Organizing committee in charge of the organization's campaign to unionize iron miners in Minnesota and Michigan, Van A. Bernard will organize 12,000 miners on the Minnesota iron range and an estimated 80,00 miners in Michigan, Bittner said.

EX-DEAN BOUND OVER TO JURY ON WEAPON CHARGE

Greenfield, Mass., June 3.—[Special.]—Thomas E. Elder, former dean of the Mount Hermon School for Boys, was bound over to the grand jury today after Judge Phillip E. Ball in District court had found him "probably guilty" of assault with intent to kill S. Allan Norton, whom the educator had known twenty-five years.

The white haired defendant, accused of threatening Norton with a shotgun, took the decision calmly and left the courtroom smiling. The judge, whose power was limited to holding Elder for the grand jury or declaring him innocent, fixed bail at $10,000.

The campus was the scene of a mysterious and still unsolved slaying two years ago last September when Dr. Elliott Speer, head master of the school, was killed by a shotgun blast.

COURT DEFIANCE IS TOLD IN STRIKE CONTEMPT TRIAL

Sherif and Deputies Put Blame on Organizer.

The sitdown strike that tied up the Fansteel Metallurgical corporation plant in North Chicago for nine days last February and ended in a tear gas battle between the strikers and sherif's forces was reviewed yesterday in a stormy court session in Waukegan. Sixty-five men are charged with contempt of court for defying a court order to leave the plant. Among the day's developments were:

1. Meyer Adelman, a director of the Steel Workers' Organizing committee, was named by witnesses as the instigator and leader of the strike. It was brought out that Adelman, who is 39 years old and weighs 330 pounds, is a former chef. He never worked in a steel mill.

Judge Forby Conducts Quiz.

2. City Judge Theodore Forby of Zion, who is conducting the contempt hearing in the Lake County Circuit court, lambasted Adelman's right hand man, Oakley Mills, as schoolmaster of the union to which the Fansteel employés belong.

The judge questioned him on the stand about his donations of food to the strikers and once irritably asked: "Why didn't they go home to eat?"

3. Several sitters, in telling how Adelman and Mills exhorted them to hold the fort, said they threw missiles and acid down from the windows into the faces of the deputy sherifs.

Tells of Delivering Food.

Questioned by Sidney H. Block, one of the Fansteel attorneys, Mills said he went to the plant every day and every night during the strike to talk to the men and help deliver food and supplies. He said he used $50 or $60 of his own money to buy food.

Q. [By Judge Forby]—You're pretty charitable, is that right? A.—I did it out of the goodness of my heart.

Q.—Did you ever get the money back? A.—No, and I don't expect to.

Q.—You don't? You're the schoolmaster of this local union lodge, aren't you? You tell them what to do, don't you? A.—I don't think so. They usually tell me.

Earlier in the day Adelman testified he did not read the injunction ordering the strikers from the plant, though he was the leader of the strike. "My job was to organize the men and get recognition of the union from the company," he said.

Deputy Sherif Lawrence E. Doolittle, Chief Deputy Thomas E. Kennedy, and Deputies Frank Valenta and Edward Zersen described the inflammatory speeches of Adelman and Mills. On cross-examination of Valenta, Paul Glaser, the C. I. O. lawyer, suddenly asked: "Were you ever a bootlegger?"

"Lay off those insinuations, or I'll come down and show you a few things," the husky deputy growled, making a move to charge at Glaser. He settled back as the bailif rapped for order.

500 WORKERS STRIKE AGAINST ENFORCING WAGNER ACT TERMS

Nearly 500 men, members of the Radiator and Boiler Workers' association, an independent organization chartered in Allegheny county, struck at the Columbia Radiator company because of the reinstatement of 80 members of the International Brotherhood of Foundry employés, an American Federation of Labor affiliate.

Reinstatement of the 80 dismissed for union activities, had been ordered by the national labor relations board.

Mrs. Harriett Aloisio.

Because her husband, Leo Aloisio of Brooklyn, preferred his freedom, Mrs. Harriett Aloisio, 24 years old, 2446 Geneva terrace, was granted a divorce yesterday on grounds of desertion by Judge William V. Brothers. They were married July 3, 1934, and separated two months later in Buffalo. Asked why she did not get the divorce there, Mrs. Aloisio testified they had no grounds in New York.

Policeman Fired After Shooting During a Spree

The police civil service trial board yesterday discharged Policeman Thomas J. Gibbons, 30 years old, for shooting Daniel Melchionda, 27 years old, 1516 West Harrison street, a cab driver, during a round of taverns while in uniform on Jan. 15. Gibbons joined the department a year ago.

CELEBRATING the 125th ANNIVERSARY of The National City Bank of New York

THROUGH WARS, FIRES, PLAGUES AND PANICS

The Story of a Bank That Grew and This Month Celebrates its 125th Anniversary

Why are banks? What makes them endure? What services does a big bank perform for its community and the nation at large?

How has The National City Bank contributed to the development of New York, and of the United States, in its life of 125 years?

This month, as we mark our 125th Anniversary, we should like to answer these questions simply and factually.

Since this is an era of speed, of quick impressions, of pictures, we shall tell pictorially how our bank grew and how it works.

① THE CITY BANK'S FIRST DAY: Little could its founders foresee the strenuous days which lay ahead when on June 16, 1812, they incorporated The City Bank of New York: war . . . fire . . . plague . . . panic.

② SAMUEL OSGOOD had been George Washington's first Postmaster General. In 1812 he became The City Bank's first President. Two days after the bank was founded, the young republic declared war on Great Britain. The City Bank received subscriptions and subscribed on its own account $500,000 of the first War Loan.

③ FIRST BOARD MEETING AND TAMMANY HALL, where it was held. Tammany Wigwam was a favorite meeting place for business organizations in 1812. Here the Directors met to discuss the difficult problems occasioned by the war. They had started with $800,000 capital. In 1818 came the first severe depression, aftermath of the war. But the country weathered it; and, with sound financial leadership, grew more prosperous than ever.

⑤ MERCHANTS' EXCHANGE BURNS! In 1835 a disastrous $18,000,000 fire destroyed almost a third of the city, burned 693 buildings, among them the marble Merchants' Exchange in Wall Street. It was on this same site, 55 Wall Street, that a newer and finer structure was built, since 1908 the Head Office of The National City Bank of New York.

⑥ CROTON WATER SYSTEM BUILT! Celebrations in City Hall Park, Oct. 14, 1842! Following the Great Fire, The City Bank was a leader in providing funds to build the Croton Aqueduct and the Reservoir 'way up where 42d Street now crosses Fifth Avenue. New York cast off its village status and began to be a metropolis. Previously all water had been taken from wells and ponds.

THE HEAD OFFICE AND BRANCHES TODAY

From the Head Office at 55 Wall Street, The National City Bank now covers Greater New York with 72 branches and reaches around the world with 71 branches and affiliates in 23 foreign countries.

Today its resources have grown from $800,000 to almost two billions; it has more than 1,000,000 customers, more than 85,000 stockholders. Every day at least 1200 new people borrow money from National City's Personal Credit Department (800 borrowing sums of less than $300). National City has become the bank of many of the country's largest businesses; but, equally important, it is the bank of hundreds of thousands of small businesses, and families and individuals of modest means.

HOLD FUNERALS FOR 3 RIOT DEAD; 7TH VICTIM DIES

Crowd Orderly; Bittner Assails Police.

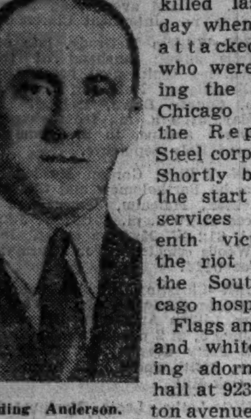
Striking steel workers attended a group funeral service yesterday for three of the men killed last Sunday when a mob attacked police who were guarding the South Chicago mill of the Republic Steel corporation. Shortly before the start of the services a seventh victim of the riot died in the South Chicago hospital.



Hilding Anderson.

Flags and black and white bunting adorned the hall at 9233 Houston avenue, where the services were held. The hall was filled and a large crowd outside heard the program on loudspeakers. There were no policemen at the scene.

Bittner Delivers Oration.

Van A. Bittner, regional director of the steel workers' organizing committee, was the principal speaker. "These men died that our union may continue to live," he said. "All of us must fight and give our lives for those things that are right, those things we believe in. Men and women and children have sacrificed their lives and faced starvation for years for unionism, but somehow they have gone on.

"The act of this mob of Chicago police does not discourage me with America. These policemen exemplify America in the same manner as the gangsters of Chicago typify America.

"What were these men, who lie here dead, doing to deserve death? They were simply marching along. They wanted to go over to that mill to show what the spirit of unionism really means. In the pathway stood men acting in the interest of Republic Steel corporation."

Minister Extols Dead.

Another speaker was the Rev. William B. Waltmire, pastor of the Humboldt Park Community Methodist church.

"These men may have been killed by officers of the law, who will be upheld," he said, "but I say to you another government that belongs to the people is not far distant. These men lying here had a dream of brotherhood—they sought to bring a new world, a good world in which men can live and be happy."

The Rev. Mr. Waltmire, 41 years old, has been pastor of the Humboldt church for five years. In 1935 he was a Socialist candidate for alderman of the 34th ward. For many years he has been the leader of a radical group within his church.

WPA Worker Among Dead.

The three men for whom the funeral services were held were Joseph Rothmund, 47 years old, a WPA worker, of 2758 Belmont avenue; Alfred Causey, 43, of Hammond, and Samuel Popovich, 45, of Indiana Harbor.

Private funeral services were held on Wednesday for another victim and the bodies of two others were in undertaking rooms, where family funerals were to be held later.

The seventh victim, who died yesterday, was Hilding Anderson, 27 years old, 7944 Manistee avenue, an employé of the Carnegie-Illinois Steel company since he came here from Sweden in 1928. Relatives said he went to the scene of the riot as a spectator.

The Carnegie-Illinois company, largest operating subsidiary of the United States Steel corporation, has signed a contract with the S. W. O. C and is not affected by the present strike against three independent operators—the Republic, Inland, and Youngstown Sheet and Tube companies.

More than 70,000 men in seven states have been idle for eight days as a result of the strike, which is an effort to force the three companies to sign a contract.

Employés of the Inland and Youngstown companies in Chicago received their pay checks yesterday for the two weeks ending May 26.

Rioters on Relief Rolls.

Three of the sixty-five men arrested after Sunday's riot at the Republic plant are on the relief rolls, it was disclosed yesterday. They are Peter Simich, 13204 Burley avenue; George Starchovich, 10400 Avenue M, and Leo Francisco, 10012 Commercial avenue.

Leo M. Lyons, Chicago relief administrator, said an investigation would be made to see if they are still entitled to relief.

New Firing on Food Planes.

Youngstown, O., June 3.—[Special.]—Food planes shuttled back and forth between Cleveland and Warren, O., 50 miles away, today, relieving a threatened food shortage for workers remaining in the Warren and Niles plants of the Republic Steel corporation. Strike pickets fired on the planes when they passed over picket outposts. At least one plane has been hit, Republic spokesmen said. Riflemen also fired on Republic employés of the Niles plant as they gathered up the food bags near the plant fence.

In Warren a strike picket, Steve John, 55, was wounded with buckshot as he and several others fought six men who were trying to return to work in the plant. Union leaders blamed company police for the shooting.

The C. I. O. called a strike today in the Canton, O., plant of the Timken Roller Bearing company, employing 6,000 men, although the company signed a contract with the S. W. O. C. on April 16.

SERIOUS ILLNESS OF JEAN HARLOW BARED AS CRISIS IS PASSED

Beverly Hills, Cal., June 3.—[Special.]—Jean Harlow, blonde screen beauty, has been seriously ill since last Saturday but has passed the crisis, her mother disclosed today.

Jean Harlow.

Mrs. Jean Bello said her daughter had been in a critical condition from inflammation of the gall bladder. Miss Harlow's physician, Dr. E. C. Fishbaugh, said the star "just had a cold."

"I feel like the whole world has been lifted from my shoulders," Mrs. Bello exclaimed, near tears, as she told of "this baby of mine" being improved. "Dr. Fishbaugh says she is out of danger," her mother added.

Two nurses on night and day shift have been in attendance.

Bomb Damages Truck Used in Connection with Strike

A dynamite bomb, exploded inside a large truck parked in front of 621 Loomis street, awakened the entire neighborhood early today. The damage was slight. Maxwell street police found one unexploded dynamite stick in the truck. The truck is owned by Tony D'Andrea, 28 years old, of the Loomis street address. He charged the bombing to labor troubles. He told police that he uses this truck and another one to transport colored workers to and from the factory of the Nelly-Ann Dress company, 2253 South Halsted street, which has been affected by a strike for several months.

5,000 LOSE WAGES AS 4 'SITS' IN DAY TIE UP GOODYEAR

Akron, O., June 3.—[Special.]—Four sitdown strikes crippled production in more than half of plant No. 1 of the Goodyear Tire & Rubber company, but after conference with company executives, the men returned to work late today.

Production schedules were curtailed for 22 hours during which nearly 5,000 workers lost part or all of a day's time. The sitdowns were caused by comparatively minor disputes which neither side would discuss. Apparently the union employés returned to work on a promise of negotiations.

Meanwhile, the Postal Telegraph company's Akron office was closed by a strike of members of the Commercial Telegraphers' union. Approximately forty employés, including telegraphers, clerks, delivery boys and and telephone operators, are demanding higher wages and shorter hours.

STABS 40 HOT NEEDLES IN EYE; RESTORES SIGHT

Chicago Doctor Describes New Method.

New York, June 3.—[Special.]—Dr. Oscar B. Nugent, chief surgeon of the Chicago Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat hospital, described today how he thrust forty needles into a man's sightless eye, seared each wound with a high-frequency, short-wave electric current, and made the eye see again.

The operation, said the doctor in an interview after attending the assembly of the United States branch of the International College of Surgeons, is typical of the new technique in which eye surgeons make new wounds to cure old ones.

This stricken man—a typical case—suffered what is called a retinal separation. The retina, which is the inside coating of the eyeball, had become detached. It had pulled away from other layers of tissue. The task was to bring the layers of tissue together and keep them there.

Tells Steps in Operation.

In this case, as in similar ones specialists are treating, Dr. Nugent said the first step was to cut the tissue covering the white part of the eye.

"Then in order to operate on the back part of the eyeball, where the retina should be fast like the paper on the wall, it was necessary to cut one of the controling muscles.

"Then the eyeball could be turned inside out in about a quarter of a circle. After that, over the whole area of detachment the small electrodes were put."

As each needle was thrust in the electric current was turned on, and it made its cauterizing wound. Each was left in its place until all forty were in the eyeball, each detached from the holder that had been used to place it.

Each then, at the climax of the operation, stuck in the eyeball like a pin in a cushion, with threads extending from the ends so that all were shown in proper location.

All Back Into Place.

Finally all were withdrawn, a fluid separating the retina from other tissues released, and the retina was forced by the eyeball itself back against the other tissues. The eyeball was turned around, back into place; and nature, in its process of repair of tissue, made all tissues grow together.

"The wounds in this case and in all such cases were made so that the scarred tissue would readily adhere to the other tissues," Dr. Nugent said. "The rough edges made by each needle were like rivets. They riveted the retina to the other tissue."

He meant, he said, they rivet the parts if the operation works. Sometimes it does not. But his portion of successful operations of this kind now is 50 per cent.

The message did not mention the fire, leading shipping men to believe the Oliva's crew, reported to have abandoned and returned to the ship twice, had controled the flames.

COMPLETE JAP CABINET; HIROTA IS FOREIGN CHIEF

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

TOKIO, June 3.—Former Premier Koki Hirota today accepted the foreign ministry in the cabinet which Prince Fumimaro Konoe has formed to succeed that of Gen. Senjuro Hayashi, premier, who resigned under the opposition of parliament. This appointment, with that of Shinji Yoshino to the post of commerce minister, completed the cabinet, which is expected to be installed tomorrow. The selection of Hirota is lauded in all quarters which recall the statement that "while I am in office there will be no war" which he made when he was foreign minister and repeated when he was premier.

The Hirota appointment is welcomed at this time especially because of the increasing Chinese-Japanese tension due to the outbreak of anti-Japanese agitations, particularly at Tientsin. It is expected that Hirota will adopt a stronger attitude than Naotake Sato, his predecessor.

PRESIDENT ASKS 7 POWER UNITS SIMILAR TO TVA

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., June 3.—[Special.]—Family quarrels flared in the senate and house today after the reading of President Roosevelt's message urging creation of seven regional authorities, patterned after the Tennessee Valley authority, to evolve long range national planning looking toward development of hydro-electric power and to guard against calamitous dust storms, drouths, and floods.

In the house a feud arose over jurisdictional rivalry of the flood control and rivers and harbors committees. In the senate sharp words followed the raising of a question over the same question involving the agriculture and commerce committee's right to consider a bill incorporating the presidential plan, introduced by Senator George W. Norris, radical, Nebraska.

Utility Opposition Voiced.

Indirectly the message aroused the wrath of utility executives. Philip H. Gadsden, chairman of the committee of public utility executive voiced the feelings of utility managers and stockholders in a statement which charged the Norris embodiment of the special message would "create a vast superpower system . . . controled by politicians and . . . would destroy billions of dollars of private investments . . . by duplication of already functioning, adequate and sufficient privately-owned systems."

Before the President's message reached the house Representative William M. Whittington [D., Miss.], chairman of the house flood control committee, announced that he would go to the floor of the house with a demand that the message go to his committee. Representative Joseph J. Mansfield [D., Tex.], chairman of the rivers and harbors committee, called a special meeting of his committee to consider strategy.

River Committee Wins.

Speaker Bankhead worked in vain to smooth ruffled tempers in the house frayed by the battle lines formed over the relief bill. His efforts to bring Mansfield and Whittington to agreement failed. In debate Whittington and his followers insisted that the "big money" of the bill was for flood control and Mansfield and his supporters argued that jurisdiction properly belonged to the rivers and harbors committee. The battle ended when a standing vote of 166 to 61 brought defeat to the Whittington group.

In the senate the dispute rose when Senator Norris asked that his bill go to the agriculture committee. Senator Alben W. Barkley [D., Ky.], who has a similar bill in the commerce committee, asked that both be considered together.

Robinson Enters Debate.

Senator Robinson entered into the debate with some heat. He pointed out that the senate always had the power to change the jurisdiction of a committee on a specific measure.

"There have been cases in the last session when two committees reported out a bill without giving it adequate consideration or having a quorum present," Robinson said. "And then they left to me, as nominal majority leader, the job of defending the legislation. I'm pretty tired of that sort of thing."

The bill went to the agriculture committee on the argument of TVA Father Norris that agriculture has the most to gain by the legislation which he said will conserve farm lands.

In his special message Mr. Roosevelt asked speedy congressional action on his proposal to expand the TVA form of development to the country because:

"Nature has given recurrent and poignant warnings through dust storms, floods, and drouths that we must act while there is yet time if we would preserve for ourselves and our posterity the natural resources of a virile national life."

He coupled his recommendation with a new plea for enactment of his reorganization program, sent to congress months ago, and another open declaration of war against private power interests.

Seven Proposed Regions.

He gave as his seven proposed regions:

The Atlantic seaboard.

The Great Lakes-Ohio valley.

The Tennessee and Cumberland river basins.

The basins of the Colorado and other rivers flowing into the Pacific south of the California-Oregon state line.

The Columbia river basin.

Mr. Roosevelt said he would leave the Mississippi river undisturbed in the handling of the problems of the great central channel.

The President said that the projects should be carried on through close coöperation of the various organizations of the government so "that friction, overlapping and unnecessary administrative expenses" can be eliminated.

The Norris bill followed the TVA principle with the exception of a provision to prevent the issuance of injunctions against the seven proposed districts in federal courts except upon the posting of a bond which would compensate all involved groups for litigation losses. It would put the authorities under the supervision of the President and force them to deliver him an annual report. It contemplates coöperation of all federal units within the region and of state and local governments.

Two Bills Presented.

Mansfield gave his committee a bill, differing somewhat from the Norris bill, which was said to have White House approval. The chief difference in the bills is that the Mansfield bill would give the federal power commission broad jurisdiction over power rates while the Norris bill would have each region, like the TVA, govern its own rates.

He declared the bill to be a fourth of a series of federal legislative acts designed first to weaken the credit, then to impair the efficiency, and lastly to destroy the private electric industry. He listed the others as:

Creation of TVA in May, 1933, ostensibly for the purpose of improving navigation and flood control on the Tennessee river, but, as events have proved, actually to create a publicly owned hydro-electric power system.

The "employment relief" policy of making gifts of 30 per cent—later 45 per cent—and loans at 4 per cent—later 3 per cent—to municipalities for building competing publicly owned electric plants.

The holding company act, theoretically for the regulation of utility holding companies but with the actual effect—because of its "death sentence"—of so weakening the top company in efficiency and financial strength as to render its operating units more vulnerable to publicly owned competition.

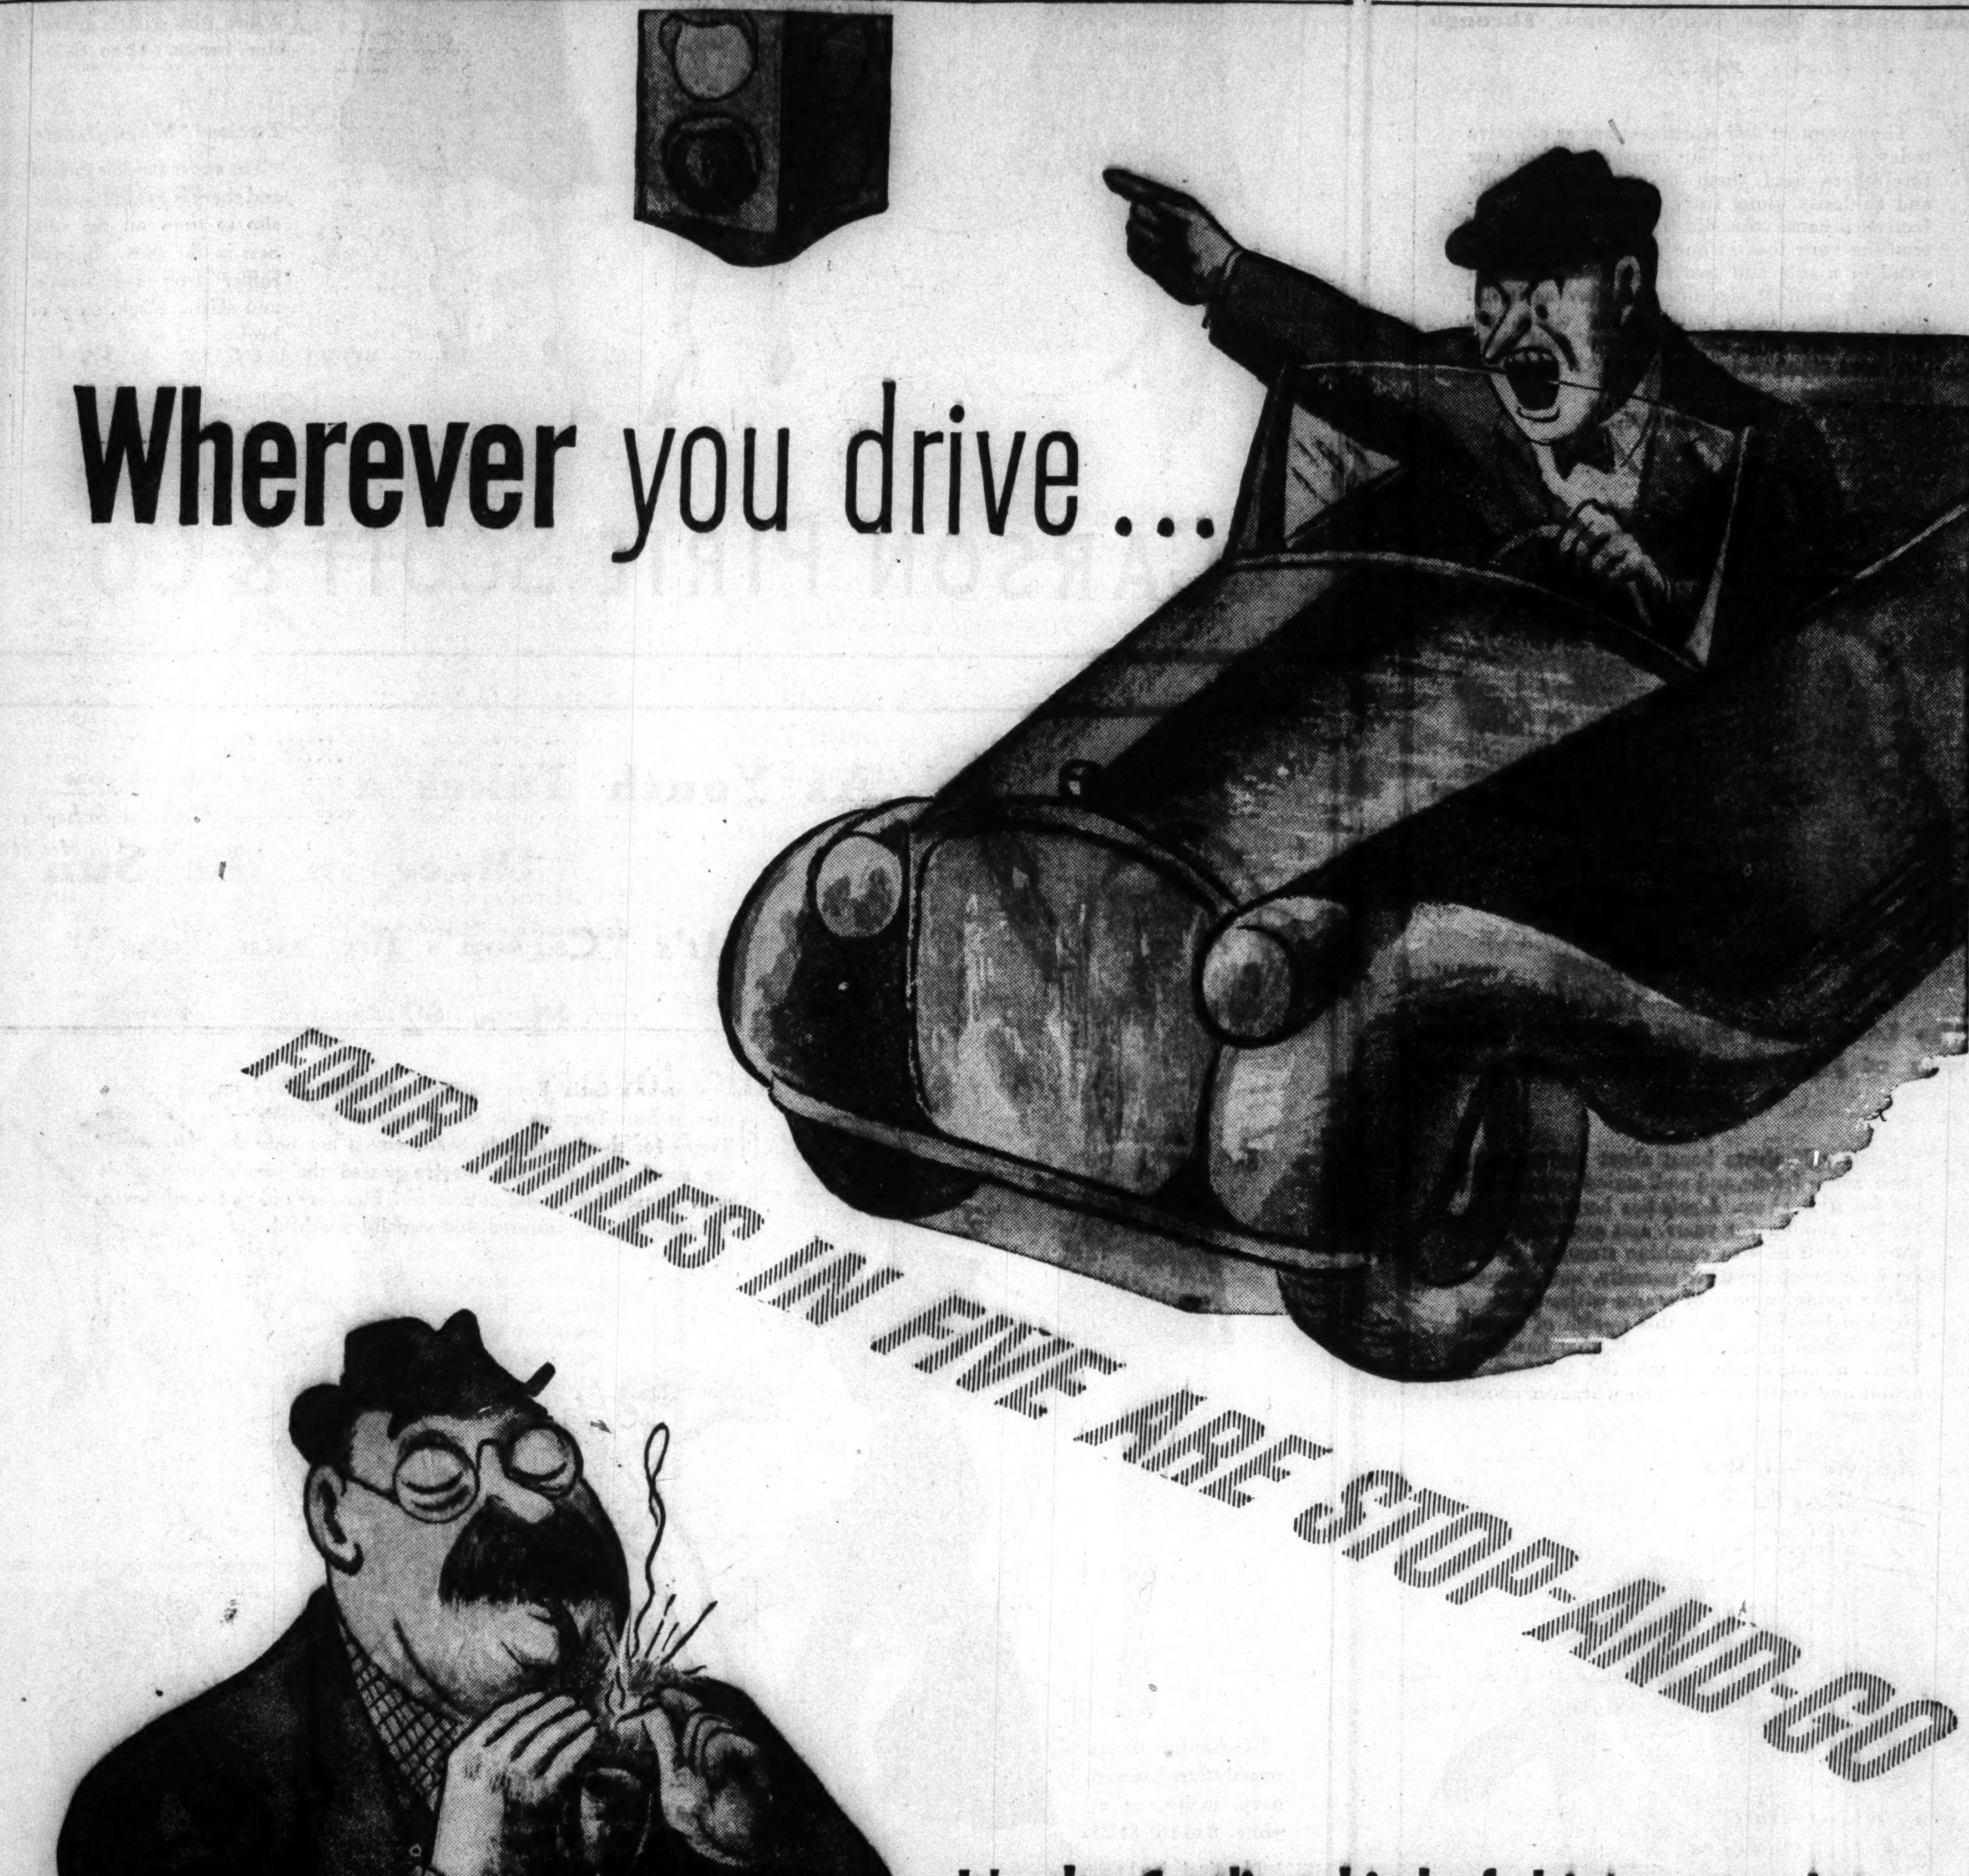
The Beer That Made Milwaukee Famous



Wherever you drive ...
FOUR MILES IN FIVE ARE STOP-AND-GO
Wm Steig

It's the Costliest kind of driving you do!

How far can you drive without making a stop? One block? Two blocks? How far?

And every time you start up, you can use enough gasoline to take you a third of a mile! That means you can waste enough every day to drive your car ten miles.

To reduce the waste of stop-and-go driving, Shell engineers developed a way to "balance" gasoline.

This unique balancing process rearranges the entire chemical structure of gasoline . . . makes Super-Shell "digestible" for your motor, just as cooking will make some foods digestible for you.

The next time you need gasoline, try Super-Shell. It's on sale at the Shell dealer in your neighborhood.

I. C. C. HITS CITY'S FOSTER-KIMBALL TRANSFER PLAN

Denied Early Hearing on Broader System.

BY WILLIAM BROMAGE.

A clash between city and Illinois commerce commission representatives marked the opening hearing before the commission yesterday on the proposal to extend interline transfer privileges between the surface and elevated lines to include the new Foster and Kimball avenue bus lines. The new routes, to be operated by the surface lines, are scheduled to begin operating about July 1.

Assistant Corporation Counsel James J. Danaher objected to a move by Eugene L. Cohen, commission attorney, to begin taking of testimony by commission experts on a plan to extend the limited transfer privileges of the present system to the new routes.

What City Demands.

Danaher asserted the commission should act on the city's petition, which provides for broader transfer privileges and for interchange of transfers between the two new lines and connecting routes of the Chicago Motor Coach company.

"What Mr. Cohen suggests," Danaher declared, "is mere subterfuge against universal transfer privileges." Assistant Commissioner Herman E. Moore, who is hearing the transfer proceedings, including the city's petition for universal transfers outside the loop, ruled that because the commission must make a ruling by June 10 if interline transfers are to be permitted on the new lines by July 1, Cohen could proceed with the case. Merrill B. Knox, commission transit expert, testified as to the probable number of riders who would transfer.

Hearing on Petition Due June 15.

Hearing on the city's petition for interline transfers on the new routes is not scheduled for hearing until June 15, a date too late to permit an enabling order by the commission which could be effective July 1. The commission order must be made 20 days before the effective date. The city's petition was filed May 18, or in ample time to permit earlier hearing, according to Danaher.

The reorganization committee for the Chicago Surface Lines [Abbott committee] yesterday filed with Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson a report advising that an outline for a new transit ordinance has been submitted to Mayor Kelly. Hearing on the report is scheduled for June 10. Judge Wilkerson tentatively has approved a reorganization plan for the surface lines contingent on the system obtaining a new city ordinance.

O. K. on Bus Line Extension.

The city council's local transportation committee yesterday voted to submit an ordinance to the council providing for an extension of the surface lines' bus route in South Pulaski road from 47th street to 31st street. The buses now operate between 47th and 63d streets.

Maj. R. F. Kelker, city transit engineer ,advised the committee that the survey being made to city and surface lines engineers to work out a physical program of extensions and modifications of existing surface lines as a basis for a new ordinance is about three-quarters completed and should be finished within six weeks.

Iceman Shot in Side in Fight with Robber

Robert Ruffner, 36 years old, 1431 Fry street, an iceman, was shot in the side yesterday as he grappled with a young holdup man in the rear of 2918 Logan boulevard, where Ruffner had stopped to make a delivery. The robber escaped. Ruffner was taken to the Belmont hospital by Sergt. John Nolan of the Shakespeare avenue police.

MRS. MARY ROOT WINS DIVORCE FROM BROKER; GETS CHILD'S CUSTODY

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Wilcox Root, of Omaha, was granted an uncontested divorce on grounds of cruelty yesterday by Judge Joseph B. David from Ralph Eaton Root, member of a board of trade firm. Mrs. Root received custody of Barbara, 5 months old, $75 a month for her support, and $3,500, the amount she said her father, William L. Wilcox of Omaha, advanced her husband to start in business.

Mrs. Root, who is 22 years old, testified her husband has been under the influence of liquor for six months. Root was arrested May 25 in Omaha when he went there to try to effect a reconciliation.

EX-LOVERS GET 29 TO 30 YEARS FOR AX SLAYING

Girl and Youth Stunned by Judge's Sentence.

Jersey City, N. J., June 3.—[Special.]—Gladys MacKnight, 18 years old, and Donald Wightman, 19, her former choirboy sweetheart, were sentenced to serve from 29 to 30 years at hard labor today for the hatchet murder of Gladys's mother, Helen, last July.

Their eyes avoiding each other, the two former lovers were silent as sentence was pronounced by Judge Thomas F. Meaney. The punishment is the most severe possible under a second degree murder conviction in the state.

Youth Smiles Feebly.

Donald smiled feebly at his parents, sitting in the rear of the courtroom after he heard the words. Gladys, an icicle in a blue sheer dress, stared straight ahead.

They apparently were too stunned to speak. It would have been possible for Judge Meaney to sentence them to one year in prison. Attorneys said there will be no appeal.

Though the sentence is for 29 to 30 years, it is possible for both to petition for parole when one-third of the sentence has been served. They may, therefore, ask for parole in 1946.

Accepts Jury's Verdict.

For Gladys the sentence means she must work at sewing or clerical jobs in prison at least until she is 27. Donald must make shoes, clothing, or automobile plates in the state prison at Trenton until he is at least 28.

In pronouncing sentence, Judge Meaney said: "I have no quarrel with the verdict the jury brought in. I feel that the jury arrived at its verdict after careful consideration of the facts."

Mrs. MacKnight was hacked to death with a short handled ax in the kitchen of her home late on the afternoon of July 31. Her daughter and Wightman were arrested for the crime that night, after they had fled in the MacKnight automobile.

SLEEP WALKING DEFENSE FUTILE; GETS YEAR TO LIFE

CRIMINAL COURT.

Oscar Witt, burglary, sentenced to 1 year to life in the penitentiary by Judge Michael L. McKinley.

John Muscia, burglary, sentenced to 1 year to life in the penitentiary; Henry Nelson, robbery, sentenced to life in the penitentiary under the habitual criminal act by Judge Robert C. O'Connell.

Fred Welchman, burglary, sentenced to 10 years in the penitentiary under the habitual criminal act; Joseph Creta, larceny, sentenced to 1 to 10 years in the penitentiary on two charges to run consecutively by Judge Peter H. Schwaba.

James Hickey, 56 years old, an ex-convict, presented a sleep walking defense to a burglary charge yesterday before Judge Benjamin P. Epstein. Hickey was caught on March 29 as he tried to escape from the home of Stanley Siedlecki, 2048 Charleston street. Some of the loot was in his pockets. Hickey said he had been drinking and when he drinks he always walks in his sleep. Judge Epstein sentenced him to one year to life in prison.

SYNOPSIS.

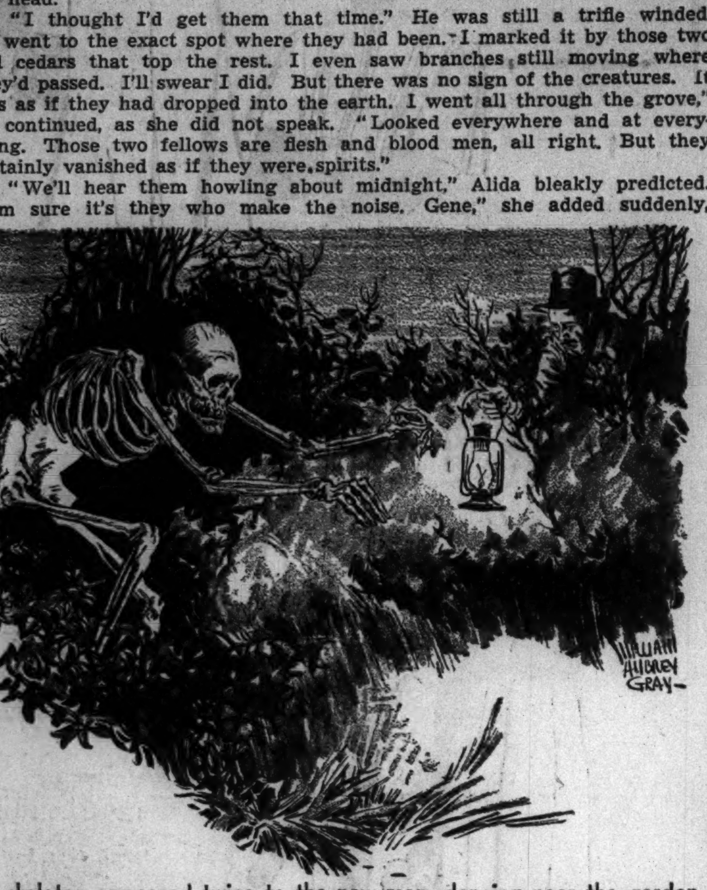
Brave Alida French opens up Avalon, the ancestral home she has inherited on the Massachusetts coast, for paying guests—though the house, according to local gossip, is haunted. Four men have vanished from it. Her guests are Vance, a young man with a fatal heart ailment; Dr. Eugene Benedict, struggling young physician, and his wife, Lucy, a nurse. Bing Haven, her family lawyer's nephew, assists Alida. Alida hires Comfort Folger, who used to work at Avalon, also her nephew Nat and Abram Parsons, whom Comfort refuses to marry because of his drinking. Vance and the Benedicts, driving to Avalon, collide with the car of the rich, neurotic Mrs. Kirkpatrick and her daughter, Spring. They take them with them to Avalon. Bing Haven and Spring fall in love. A dancing skeleton and two strange men in antique clothes are seen on the grounds of Avalon. Comfort shows Alida a secret cellar for storing liquor. Dr. Benedict tells Alida he has learned that Mrs. Kirkpatrick is the mistress of a wealthy man in the west. Spring, unknown to her, is a child of the liaison. When Bing asks her permission to marry Spring, Mrs. Kirkpatrick tells him the truth. He still wants to marry Spring. The wedding is held at Avalon, then Mrs. Kirkpatrick leaves for the west.

INSTALMENT XXXV.

GHOSTLY PROWLERS.

Alida went into her study and walked to the window. She looked out over the garden she had ravaged for Spring's wedding. Her glance traveled beyond it to the cedar grove and stopped. Just inside the first row of trees she saw two dim figures. They were standing quite still, their ghostly faces turned up toward the Benedicts' lighted windows. Almost as she discovered them she heard Benedict's feet flying down the rear staircase and out into the garden. The figures vanished. She saw him rush across the garden and into the grove. . . . Fifteen minutes later he came back, walking slowly toward the house. She met him at the side door and he shook his head.

"I thought I'd get them that time." He was still a trifle winded. "I went to the exact spot where they had been. I marked it by those two tall cedars that top the rest. I even saw branches still moving where they'd passed. I'll swear I did. But there was no sign of the creatures. It was as if they had dropped into the earth. I went all through the grove," he continued, as she did not speak. "Looked everywhere and at everything. Those two fellows are flesh and blood men, all right. But they certainly vanished as if they were spirits."



The skeleton appeared twice to the new man, dancing near the garden.

"We'll hear them howling about midnight," Alida bleakly predicted. "I'm sure it's they who make the noise. Gene," she added suddenly, "there's a hospital for shell-shocked veterans within a mile of Avalon. Could it be——"

"Impossible. The patients escape occasionally, but they're usually recaptured in a few hours. The same two couldn't get out periodically, to call on us."

"Of course not. But one thinks of everything——"

"One certainly does. Don't think of anything more tonight, though," he added kindly.

"They're human," he repeated.

"I'm sure they are. But they're malignant, too. You said so yourself. And what—O, what in God's name—are they trying to do to us?"

"That's what we're going to find out. But not tonight. Go to bed."

She went to sleep almost at once and slept heavily. Toward morning she was awakened by the outcries she had expected. They were not loud. They were choked and strangled sounds, very unpleasant to the ear. They seemed to come from the grounds on her side of the house. She did not even get up to look out of her window. Instead she turned, drew the bed covering over her ears, and buried her head deeper in her pillow. She was no longer frightened by these manifestations. Instead, she was increasingly angry every time she heard them. Tonight she had an odd feeling that matters were approaching a crisis.

The restless night at Avalon which followed Spring's wedding day, proved merely a forerunner of a week of annoyances. All four of Avalon's "specters" appeared not once but several times, while the white owl hooted eerily and for hours on end in his pet cedar. It was as if the brief respite the family had experienced was being made up for by special persecution. The situation was almost unbearable.

Alida held to what she hoped was an even way. She kept her domestic routine moving smoothly. She established her new schedule, cutting down the luxuries she had provided for the Kirkpatricks and which her other guests had naturally shared. She had no wish to make a profit on Vance and the Benedicts. Indeed, there were times when she thought she ought to harbor them free of charge, or even pay them for the inconveniences they were enduring and the moral support they gave her.

Early in the week she visited Caleb Haven in his office, to put the situation before him and ask his advice. His first comment rather stunned her.

"If you're so sure they're flesh and blood," he said slowly, "how do you account for their ability to vanish into thin air? And what's their purpose? Do you think, as Comfort does, that they lured the Frenches and the Boston man away and then destroyed them?"

Alida looked at him in consternation.

"You don't mean——" she began.

"I don't mean anything. But I've been thinking about this matter for fourteen years, and I don't see any light yet. What I can never understand is that four men did vanish off the face of the earth."

Alida ignored that opening.

"I came to ask whether you think it would be a good plan to hire a detective to watch the place every night. He might be able to discover something."

"We tried that right after your uncle Amos went. We had a man there a month, and paid him five dollars a night. He didn't discover anything. We'll try it again, if you like."

They tried it again and got nowhere. The skeleton appeared twice to the new man, dancing near the vegetable garden. The detective's expression, when he mentioned the episodes, was made up of disgust, embarrassment, and incredulity. "But I swear I seen him," he muttered.

Alida put in much time going over the contents of the big attic more carefully than she had been able to do during the housecleaning. She discovered a few lovely pieces of old Colonial furniture, tucked away in corners under the accumulations of the years. These pieces she decided to have repaired and polished. When this task was finished she looked about for others. She must divert her mind, and boating and fishing with Captain Bijah did not do it. It was, as it happened, the first day of June, when another inspiration came to her.

"Comfort," she suggested that morning, "let's put in this afternoon in the secret wine cellar, making an inventory. If the supply down there is worth what Uncle Amos told you and Mrs. Quimby it was, I might as well sell a lot of it. Anyway, I'll make a careful list of what's there and show it to Mr. Haven. Perhaps he can find some one to buy it. It's a fine day for the job. The Benedicts and Mr. Vance are planning to go sailing."

"And this is Thursday! I forgot!"

Alida spoke with contrition. Every Thursday was supposed to mean an afternoon off for Comfort. "Go upstreet, by all means." Alida hurried on. "I can get along."

"You aimin' to stay in the house alone an' do it?" Comfort looked severely disapproving.

"Comfort, the one thing I won't stand is the suggestion from anybody that I can't be alone in my own house." Alida spoke crisply. "As to the inventory, I don't often have a day to myself. In fact, I got rid of the family so I could make it today. Abram's off, too, isn't he? You and I can take down the small stepladder, and a small chair and table, and one of the lamps you and Uncle Amos used."

They carried the lamp, chair, table, and ladder down into the "wine suller" just before Comfort left the house. The pocket of Alida's enveloping linen smock held a notebook and a fountain pen.

"Nat'll be weedin' in the vegetable garden, down near the west field," Comfort explained. "But I don't want even Nat should know 'bout that suller. Abram might git it outta him."

"I don't think I'll need Nat," Alida said. "But if I want an errand done, I can go to the vegetable garden and find him. He needn't know where I've been, or what I've been doing."

BARGAIN FOOD PRICES STRETCH BUYER'S DOLLAR

BY FRANK RIDGWAY.

A definite dip in the retail price of foods began showing up in shopping centers all over the metropolitan area of Chicago this week. Practically every food merchant in the city and nearby suburbs will have bargain sales on today and tomorrow. Greengrocers, butchers, and managers of the staple departments will have a variety of items on the marked down counters this week-end.

The Tribune's weekly survey of stores and shops yesterday revealed that some merchants are featuring one group of items, while others are offering still another list of fruits, vegetables, staples, and fresh and cured meats. The cash and carry shopper can save money by making a tour of the retail centers.

New Crops Arriving.

New crops are rolling in from producing centers in greater quantities. More and more products are being harvested and brought to markets from the nearby trucking areas. Cattle and hog prices are coming down. Retail prices are swinging in line with lower trends on the wholesale markets.

The three old standby staples, flour, sugar, and coffee, will be found on many bargain counters today and tomorrow. From 4 to 9 cents a 24½ pound bag has been taken off the price of the higher grades of flour in most stores. Cane sugar is off 1 cent and beet sugar 2 cents on a 10 pound sack in a few stores. The lower grades of cofee are again on sale.

Banana sales will be continued in some of the stores that started them last week. Other green grocers cut their prices on bananas this week.

New Potatoes Down.

New potatoes are coming down. Most stores have reduced their prices a few cents a peck. Spinach is 1 to 2 cents a pound less than it was a week ago.

Asparagus is plentiful and reasonable in price. Local gardeners are bringing in truckloads of it.

Home grown rhubarb of fine quality still is cheap. Green onions are cheaper in a few places. Strawberries are improving in quality and are 3 to 4 cents a quart less this week than last in most stores.

In many shopping centers eggs are off 1 to 2 cents a dozen, while in other places merchants have raised them 1 cent a dozen. Green beans, fresh peas, and dry onions also are on the up and down list.

Offer Shelf Bargains.

Several merchants are featuring at lower prices canned tuny fish, sardines, tomato and other soups, tomatoes, peas, cereals, cookies, preserves, canned crab apple, apple sauce, corned beef hash, and dried beef.

Cantaloupes and fresh sweet cherries are now quite generally available in retail stores.

Prices were raised on comparatively few food items. Shoppers will find slightly higher prices asked for carrots, celery and grape fruit.

Fresh Lamb a Bargain.

Fresh lamb cuts head the butchers' list of reduced fresh meats. Lamb chops are 3 to 4 cents a pound lower than last week in many shops. Most butchers lowered leg of lamb 2 cents a pound.

Pork loin prices also are beginning to come down. Cured hams are on sale at reduced prices in several places. Frying chickens are off 2 cents a pound in some shops.

John Campbell, federal live stock and meat reporter at the Union stockyards, says that live cattle of the good and choice kinds are 25 cents a hundred lower this week compared with last. Beef, however, is 50 cents a hundred higher. Hogs are 10 to 15 cents a hundredweight off. Fresh pork cuts also are $1.50 to $2 a hundred less. Spring and old crop lambs are 75 cents to $1 a hundred pounds higher. Dressed lamb is about the same as a week ago.

Wholesale Prices Fall.

A. D. Farlinger, marketing specialist in fruits and vegetables, reports lower wholesale prices on onions, tomatoes, cabbage, Florida oranges, grape fruit, sweet cherries, and cantaloupe. Head lettuce and new potatoes are slightly higher. Cantaloupe receipts still are light but will be normal within a week or ten days.

He says that the first shipment this season of California plums was received here Wednesday.

TAKES LOTS OF CRUST TO FASHION AN OLD FASHIONED FRUIT PIE

Two-crusted fresh fruit pies are old fashioned favorites, sure to be as much in demand each season as the more voguish chiffon and one-crusted pies. Strawberry and cherry pies are at the top of the list.

STRAWBERRY PIE.

[Two crusted.]
1 quart strawberries
3 tablespoons flour
1 cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
1½ tablespoons butter

Wash berries, hull, and cut in pieces, but do not mash or brush. Sift flour, sugar, and salt together and sprinkle onto strawberries. Mix well. Turn into pie pan lined with crust. Put on top crust which has been slashed. Fasten edges securely. Bake in 450 degree F. oven for about 30 minutes, then reduce temperature to 325 degrees F. and bake for an additional 10 minutes.

OLD FASHIONED CHERRY PIE.

2 cups pitted red cherries
1½ cups sugar
4 tablespoons flour
1½ tablespoons butter

Drain cherries well, cover with sugar, and let stand 10 to 15 minutes. Line a nine inch pie plate with pastry. Put two tablespoons flour into the surface of the lower crust. Fill the crust with the sweetened cherries and dredge with remaining two tablespoons flour. Dot surface with butter and place top crust in usual manner, pinching edges together well and slashing top crust. Bake at 450 degrees F. for about 30 minutes, then reduce the heat to 325 degrees F. for another 10 to 15 minutes.

HOW TO PREPARE PIMENTO, CHEESE STUFFED CELERY

When you've opened a can of pimentos to add a colorful touch to the à la king dish there's always the problem of using the leftovers. There's the difficulty, too, of keeping the leftovers from spoiling.

To keep the pimentos fresh is a simple matter, however. Remove them from the can at once and store in a small refrigerator dish or cup. Cover with a mild vinegar and when ready to use wash the pimentos to remove the vinegar taste and dry well.

Add Puree to Potatoes.

The leftovers may be used in a number of ways. Mashed pimento potatoes offer a variation from the ordinary version. To make these force pimento through a sieve and add the resulting puree to the potatoes which have been whipped in the usual way with the addition of butter and milk. The potatoes take on an attractive pinkness and piquancy of flavor.

Add chopped pimento to meat loaf mixtures and bread dressings for poultry or meat. Stuff celery with a pimento Roquefort cheese mixture, using these proportions of both:

PIMENTO AND CHEESE STUFFED CELERY.

1 bunch celery
2 pimentos, chopped fine
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
3 ounces Roquefort cheese
3 tablespoons mayonnaise
¼ teaspoon salt

Wash and scrape celery. Mix all the ingredients to a smooth paste. Fill celery cavities and chill well before serving.

Make Sandwich Spread.

Leftover pimento may be used in these additional ways:

1. Sandwiches. Add sieved pimento to cream cheese to make a sandwich spread.
2. Salad dressings. Add sieved pimento to your favorite mayonnaise or French dressing.
3. Salads. Add chopped pimento to mixed vegetable salads. Also use as a garnish on fruit and vegetable salads.
4. Sauce. Add sieved pimento to white sauce and use as a topping for vegetables.
5. Pimento cups. Fill with mayonnaise and use on summer salad platters.

Navajo Indians Take Walk in Loop on Way to Capital

A delegation of Navajo Indians from New Mexico and Arizona stopped several hours yesterday in Chicago en route to Washington to make a protest before the senate Indian affair committee about land and live stock conditions in their territory. Dressed in cowboy costumes, the Indians spent their time walking about the loop. They are headed by Tall Man.

4 Lb. Abandoned Girl Baby Doing Well in Incubator

A four pound baby girl abandoned in the vestibule of an apartment building at 3037 Lawrence avenue Wednesday night was doing well yesterday in an incubator in the St. Vincent's orphange. The baby is about 10 days old. Wrapped in blankets and wearing several dresses, it was found by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Joyce, who live in the building.

TRIBUNE RECIPES

BAKED RHUBARB.

Wash the stalks thoroughly and cut them into small pieces. In a greased baking dish place a layor of rhubarb, sprinkle it generously with sugar, and alternate these layers until the dish is filled. Sprinkle sugar over the top, add small pieces of butter and grated lemon rind or cinnamon. Bake the rhubarb slowly, at about 250 to 300 degrees F. until the fruit is tender. This long slow baking gives the fruit a rich, red color.

CORN STICKS.

1 cup yellow cornmeal
1 cup flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
2 tablespoons sugar
½ teaspoon salt
1 egg
1 cup milk
4 tablesoons butter

Sift flour once before measuring, and once with other dry ingredients. Beat egg until light and foamy, and add milk, water, and melted butter. Stir liquids quickly into dry ingredients. Pour batter into well greased corn stick pans. Bake in a hot oven, 425 degrees F., for about 15 minutes.

CREAM CHEESE PASTRY.

2⅔ cakes cream cheese
⅛ teaspoon salt
½ cup shortening
2 cups pastry flour

Sift the flour and salt together. Cut into it the shortening and cream cheese. Chill one hour before rolling.

RIPE OLIVE CROQUETTES.

⅓ cup ripe olives
2 tablespoons chopped nut meats.
½ slice onion
½ cup soft bread crums.
¼ teaspoon salt
1 egg, beaten

Remove the olive pits before measuring. Chop the olives, nuts, and onion, together until rather fine. Combine with the bread crums, salt, and egg and shape into croquettes. Roll in fine bread crums, beaten egg, and again in crums. Fry in hot fat [390 degrees F] to a golden brown. Serve hot with tomato sauce.

FRUIT PUNCH IS ICE BREAKER AT LARGE PARTIES

Delicious Beverage Is Aid to Nonchalance.

[Copyright: 1937: By The Chicago Tribune.]

Among the best aids to nonchalance is the cup of fruit punch. Perhaps that's why such a beverage is served so often at large parties, wedding receptions, and teas, where a few folks always are just a little bit ill at ease.

The fruit punch serves a double purpose at a party in addition to its primary functions of quenching the thirst and pleasing the palate. First, it gives its recipient something to do with his hands, and, second, it gives him something to talk about after the weather has had a thorough going over. The color, coldness, and fruity flavor of any of these party punches should deserve conversational attention.

Fruit Tea Punch.

[Serves Fifty.]

4 cups sugar
3 cups water
1 dozen lemons
1 dozen oranges
2 quarts crushed strawberries
2 quarts freshly made strong tea
½ teaspoon salt
1 quart ginger ale or charged water

Make a sirup of sugar and water and cook it until it is rather heavy. Cool. Scrub the lemons and oranges and squeeze out the juice. Barely cover the skins with water and let them stand for an hour or so. Drain off the water and add it to the sirup. Combine fruit juice, strawberries, tea, and salt with sirup. Add ginger ale and chopped ice just before serving the punch.

Easy-to-Make Punch.

[Thirty Large Glasses.]

3 No. 2 cans grapefruit juice
4 No. 2 cans pineapple juice
1 pint grape juice
4 quarts ginger ale

Combine juices and ginger ale and pour over ice in a punch bowl, or put cracked ice in the bottom of each glass, half filled with combined fruit juices and finish with ginger ale.

Pineapple Punch with Tea.

RUSSIANS SIGHT BIRD NEAR POLE; MAY MEAN LAND

MOSCOW, June 4 [Friday].—(AP)—The soviet north pole expedition announced today it had found bird life close to the pole and that this had led its scientists to discuss the possibility that undiscovered land exists in the vast polar sea.

Members of Dr. Otto J. Schmidt's party who are maintaining a twenty-four hour watch at their outpost about sixty miles from the pole reported sighting a Guillemot, a black and white sea bird, which abounds on North Atlantic coasts. It was flying over the camp.

Discovery of the bird aroused speculation among the scientists, who had not expected to find either birds or animals so near the pole. Earlier they had seen a snowbird, but they believed at the time that it might have been carried to the camp in one of the expedition's planes.

A Moscow zoo scientist said the presence of birds usually indicates proximity to land.

DAINTY, YET SUBSTANTIAL

A luncheon plate such as the one shown above, with deliciously browned lamb chops, browned pineapple, asparagus tips, hot rolls, and a fresh fruit salad, would surely win for the hostess the approval of any group of lady guests. This fare is dainty enough to suit the feminine fancy and yet substantial enough to give a satisfied feeling of well being. The lamb chops are cut from the loin with the ends rolled around and fastened.

HERE IS MOTHER'S WAY OF MAKING POTATO ROLLS

One of those elusive recipes which "mother used to make" and which is not always found in her old cook book is that for potato rolls. The following recipe given by the New York State College of Home Economics is an old recipe brought up to date.

POTATO ROLLS.

1 cake compressed yeast
¼ cup lukewarm water
1 cup mashed potatoes
1 cup hot potato water
2 eggs
¼ cup sugar
½ cup melted shortening
1 teaspoon salt
Bread flour

Dissolve the yeast cake in the lukewarm water. Pour the hot potato water on the potatoes and beat the mixture well. When lukewarm add the yeast mixture. Add flour to make a batter and let it rise until it is light. Then add the slightly beaten eggs, sugar, melted shortening, and flour to make a soft dough. Let this rise until it doubles in bulk. Shape it into rolls and put in pans. Let the rolls rise until they double in bulk. Bake the rolls in a hot oven from 400 to 500 degrees F. for from 15 to 20 minutes.

$2 WEEKLY PAY RAISE ACCEPTED BY MILK DRIVERS

Settlement of the wage controversy between Chicago milk drivers and the Associated Milk Dealers was announced yesterday by Robert Fitchie, president of local 753 of the Milk Drives' union. The new contract calls for a $2 weekly wage increase, retroactive to May 1, and another $3 a week boost effective May 1, 1938. The drivers, who had sought a flat $5 raise, now get $43 a week and commissions. Their commissions will be increased 25 per cent effective Sept. 2. Fitchie said the vote for acceptance of the compromise agreement was 2,134 to 1,176.

WEDDING MENU IS AN IMPORTANT THING TO BRIDE

BY MONICA ADLARD.

When the last notes of the wedding march have faded away, and the newlyweds have been showered with congratulations [and a goodly supply of rice, no doubt], thoughts turn to the wedding refreshments. This is an occasion which demands careful planning, for one of the bride's happiest recollections of the wedding will be the gayness of the after-the-ceremony gathering.

The type of refreshments served after the wedding depends on several things: the hour, the number of guests, the size of the home, and the amount of help. It is unwise to plan an affair which is too elaborate to be handled easily and smoothly.

Breakfast Popularity Grows.

Morning weddings are becoming very fashionable, with the wedding "breakfast" being served following the ceremony at any time before noon. The later the breakfast, the heartier it is, with the 12 o'clock menu resembling a luncheon.

From 12 o'clock to 2 o'clock, a wedding luncheon is served. From 2 until 6 o'clock, refreshments are similar in type to those served at a tea or an afternoon party. From 6 o'clock until 8, a wedding dinner is in order, and after 8 o'clock, the refreshments again are light.

Buffet service very often is used in a small home, especially if there are many guests. There are so many possibilities for arranging the buffet table attractively, that more and more people are choosing this style of service.

For the wedding breakfast, at which the guests are to be seated, a fresh fruit supreme, topped with a ball of fruit sherbet, is most fitting for the first course. This may be followed by fried chicken served on a ham slice, asparagus on toast, and new potatoes in cream, sprinkled with chopped chives. For an early wedding breakfast, a salad is not necessary but a relish platter may be passed. The menu is completed with bride's cake, nuts, bonbons, and coffee.

An alternative menu for the wedding breakfast follows: minted pineapple juice, chicken a la king in heart shaped patty shells, potato croquettes rolled in shredded almonds, new peas, relishes, ice cream molds, and bride's cake.

Simple Afternoon Menu.

For the early afternoon reception refreshments may be very simple, consisting of assorted sandwiches [pinwheel, open face, finger sandwiches, and so on], fruited punch and wedding cake. Or fancy ice cream molds, bride's cake, nuts and candies may be served.

When the reception follows a 4 o'clock wedding, it seems only fair to offer the guests something a little more substantial than a piece of cake and beverage.

For the slightly heavier, "high tea" type of menu, these foods may be served: fresh shrimp salad, assorted finger sandwiches, olives, gherkins, salted nuts, petits fours and coffee.

Chicken or lobster salad may be substituted for the above. Chicken salad is particularly delectable when blended with chopped, toasted nuts.

TWO WAYS OFFERED TO COOK RHUBARB WITH OTHER FRUITS

Rhubarb is well liked for its own individually tart flavor, but it's a tossup between this flavor and that of rhubarb in combination with other delicious fruits. Try these and decide for yourself.

RHUBARB PINEAPPLE CONSERVE.

Juice of 1 orange
2 cups pineapple juice
2 quarts diced rhubarb, unpeeled
6¼ cups sugar
1 cup brazil nuts, sliced
Grated rind of 1 orange

Combine fruit juices, rhubarb, sugar, and grated rind of orange. Mix well and bring to a boil in a preserving kettle. Boil rapidly until thick. Stir occasionally to prevent scorching. Add nuts and cook five minutes longer. Pour into clean hot jars. Seal at once.

RHUBARB AND STRAWBERRY PIE.

1 cup sugar
4 tablespoons flour
Pinch salt
2 cups rhubarb, diced
1 pint strawberries
2 tablespoons butter
Pastry

Mix the sugar, flour, and salt, and sprinkle a little of it in a pastry lined pie tin. Add the fruit which has been combined with the rest of the sugar mixture and dot with butter. Put strips of pastry, lattice fashion, over the top of the pie. Bake in a hot oven, 400 degrees F. for about 35 minutes or until lattice strips are browned.

SALADS WHICH GIVE FAME TO THE AVOCADO

There's no mistaking the increasing popularity of the avocado. Its rise to fame is due, no doubt, to salads such as these:

AVOCADO SALAD BOWL.

2 avocados, diced
2 hard cooked eggs, chopped
6 stuffed olives, sliced
3 tomatoes, cut in wedges
1 small onion, chopped
Chili powder
Salt and pepper

Lightly toss together the avocados, eggs, olives, peeled tomatoes, and onion with French dressing to moisten well. Season to taste with chili powder, salt, and pepper. Place in a lettuce lined salad bowl and garnish with sprigs of watercress.

STUFFED AVOCADO SALAD.

½ cup Roquefort cheese
4 tablespoons mayonnaise
¼ teaspoon salt
Few drops tabasco sauce
2 avocados
1 cup shredded lettuce

Rinse raisins, drain, and dry well. Mash cheese with fork, add mayonnaise, salt, tabasco sauce, and work to a paste. Scoop out centers of avocados leaving half shells unbroken. Combine raisins, avocado flesh cut into small pieces, shredded lettuce and mix lightly with paste. Refill shells and garnish with pimiento strips. Serves 4.

Gaynor Shows Acting Ability in Handwriting

Signature Reveals Dynamic, Charming Personality.

BY MURIEL STAFFORD.

[Copyright: 1937: By Muriel Stafford.]

Many persons have exclaimed at the wonderful comeback Janet Gaynor has made in her latest picture, "A Star Is Born." A study of her handwriting will make you understand why graphologists aren't surprised. Only illness could ever have caused the lull that happened in Janet Gaynor's professional career. She's a born actress. Don't let her demureness mislead you on that point!

Janet Gaynor

The large rhythmical flow of the letters is the most revealing quality of all, especially when combined with the very u-shaped "n" demonstrated twice in her signature. These writers are magnetic and charming. They always have hosts of friends. Among the actors and actresses who write with pronounced size, rhythm, and u-shaped n's are Grace Moore, Irene Dunne, William Powell, Anita Louise, and many others.

Two other decided qualities helped Janet Gaynor in her better-than-ever success. Her capitals are large without being too large. They show self-assurance and a certain amount of pride.

The second important quality is the perseverance shown in the way she makes her word endings and her t-bars darker and wider toward the end. Anybody who does this never gives up easily. In fact, they never give up at all while they continue the habit! Circumstances may be against them, but they have an inward hold on things no matter what happens.

When I met Janet Gaynor I was analyzing the handwriting of a well-known actor in Hollywood. It was some time ago and she was not working. She just happened in. I was especially impressed with the cordiality with which the actor greeted her, urged her to have her handwriting read, and showed every evidence of liking her warmly and sincerely.

Of course, her handwriting explained her popularity at once. Besides all of the qualities I have mentioned there is the "altruistic"—and also aggressive!—"y," made with a rightward loop.

Your Handwriting Analyzed

Any Tribune reader can obtain a personal graphology chart showing his or her assets, handicaps, talents, and emotions by following these rules:

1. Send sample of handwriting to Muriel Stafford, Chicago Tribune, post-office box 1720.
2. Inclose 10 cents (carefully wrapped) for each sample of handwriting you wish analyzed.
3. Inclose a self-addressed, STAMPED envelope, folded once.

Marriage Job Must Receive Serious Effort

BY DORIS BLAKE.

[Copyright: 1937: By The Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Syndicate, Inc.]

One of the things that a girl who contemplates marriage often fails to realize is that there is a serious side to this business of love as well as a sentimental, romantic one, if she is to make of her marriage the success she wants it to be. It's not all love, kisses and romance. Should a girl give up her position in the business world to marry, thinking she is stepping into a life of ease, to do whatever she wants to do, whenever she wants to do it, she is going to be sadly disillusioned.

She soon finds out, if she is going to enjoy her new life, she'll have to manage it as she would any business, for truly it, too, is a business that needs expert management. Girls who are farsighted enough to recognize that they are entering into a partnership, with their share of responsibility to assume, are the ones who will make a success of their married life.

The love element is most essential but it alone is not sufficient to keep marriage moving along smoothly and happily. So, girls, approach marriage with eyes wide open, accepting it as a job, a thrilling and loving one, to be sure, but a job, just as you embarked upon a business career. In your office you planned your work, and worked diligently. You managed to adjust difficulties, smooth out rough spots, and overcome any unpleasantness. You knew the work was to be done and it was your duty to do it. If you didn't do it in a competent manner some one else would. You didn't go to your employer complaining that certain tasks were not to your liking and you preferred not to do them. You did the work, enjoying some of it, and not so pleased with other tasks. Yet, you knew it had to be done and that, on the whole, the work was pleasant. You did it.

Now, let a girl use that same reasoning power in the running of her home. There are pleasant tasks, some not so pleasant, in the course of a day's work, but the balance is on the pleasant side. Let her assume and execute her duties in an efficient manner. She'll win recognition and appreciation on this job as on any other and, in addition, she will find happiness and contentment in the knowledge that she is assuming her share of the partnership.

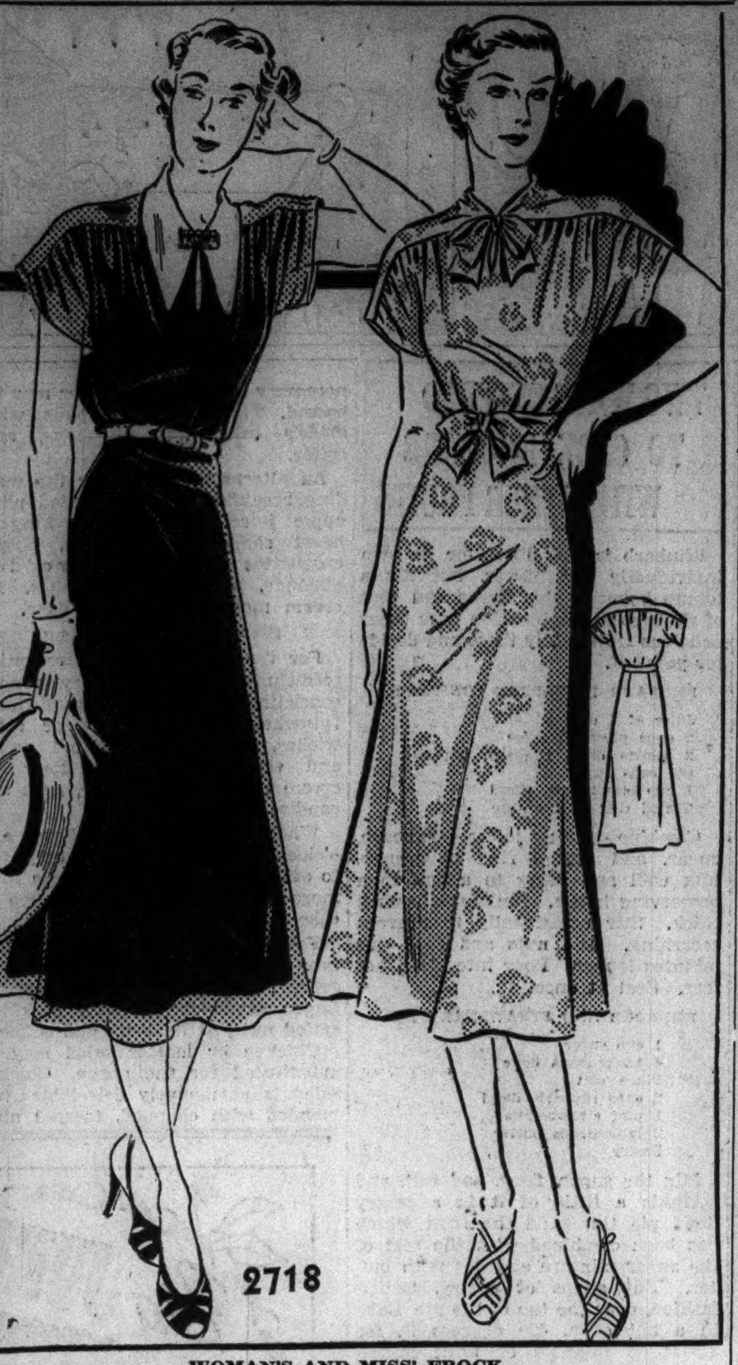
Shirring Is High Fashion



WOMAN'S AND MISS' FROCK.

Shirring has hit a new high in chic this season, principally because this is the year of all years for gracefulness and femininity even in tailored attire. Nothing could be more practical than this frock, and yet it is soft and dainty. The aforementioned shirring is found under the shoulder yoke and adds attractive fullness to the soft bodice. The waistline is slim and the skirt, while beautifully fitted through the hips, is generously flared below the knees. You may have either a pointed collar or a bow at the neckline. The waistline may be encircled with a narrow tailored belt or have a bow sash to match the neckline.

The sketch at the left illustrates how the dress will appear when made of dark sheer with a contrasting collar. A jeweled brooch might enhance the neckline. Black with white, navy with either white or pink, and brown with beige or white are attractive combinations. Figured fabrics, sheer and tubable silks and cottons, are pretty for this model, too.

You can't fail to be cool, comfortable and assured when you wear this frock. It is designed for business and all types of informal wear.

Style No. 2718 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18 and 20 years, and 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches bust measurement. Size 36 requires 3¼ yards of 39 inch material.

Child May Go Through Phase of Stuttering

Ideas Coming Quicker than Words Often Cause.

BY GLADYS HUNTINGTON BEVANS

Older children whose stuttering persists over a long period of time, need expert advice.

But the little child who starts stuttering needs help of another kind. The following letter is fairly typical of many received and of a phase through which little children often go.

"My dear Mrs. Bevans: I am desperately in need of your advice. I am very worried about my little girl, 2½. For the last week she has begun to stutter dreadfully. She always talked so plainly and fluently before. Now, every time she begins a sentence, she starts like this: 'I..I..I..I..I..I.. g-g-got got,' etc. I believe she realizes she is getting a good deal of extra attention by doing this, and I think the best thing to do would be to ignore the stuttering until she forgets about it. However, the other members of the family seem to think she should be corrected every time she begins to stutter and should be made to talk slower or else keep still. They even imitate her to try to get her to stop. Now I think all this is bad for her but what can I do about it?

"Please advise me as soon as possible because I want to treat the problem sensibly."

The answer in this case is simple: "My dear Mrs. T., I do not think you need to worry so about your little girl. At about this age many little children go through a 'spell' of stammering and stuttering. Sometimes it is because their thoughts come faster than they are able to speak them.

"In any case, the treatment is to pay no attention to it. If you make a fuss over it and act tense and anxious you will make your child nervous. At this age when children are acquiring the two skills of walking and speaking they frequently stutter.

"Your relatives are not handling this situation properly, and they should be checked at once. If your little baby is let alone and managed in a calm and intelligent way she will undoubtedly outgrow this habit.

"Is she by any chance left-handed and are you [or any other member of the family] trying to coax her to use her right hand? This is harmful and is frequently the cause of stuttering and stammering and other nervous habits."

We have a leaflet on this subject if you wish to write in for it, enclosing a large, 3-cent, stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request. It is called "The Left-Handed Child in a Right-Handed World."

Mrs. Bevans' column also appears in the Sunday Tribune.

Culbertson's "Gold Book of Bidding and Play"

Herewith is presented another portion of Mr. Culbertson's latest work on contract, the "Gold Book of Bidding and Play," which is being reproduced in this column in daily instalments.

REBIDS AFTER A TAKE-OUT DOUBLE.

[Copyright: 1937: By Ely Culbertson.]

When a player who has first doubled for a take-out later makes a double raise of the responder's suit, the responder should realize just how strong a bid his partner is making. He must realize that he himself has up to now made no bid whatsoever, his forced response not ranking as a bid. Therefore if he actually holds any honor trick or distributional values he should, after having been raised to one short of game, go to four on his own volition.

The same situation should be kept in mind when the doubler, after receiving only a minimum response, bids two no trump, whether it is a jump bid or not. He can count on nothing from his partner and must be prepared to play the hand for eight tricks all alone or to rescue himself if doubled.

The doubler should keep a constant check on his rebids by first figuring his partner for the minimum shown by a forced response and then applying the Rule of Two and Three to any bid he makes.

TODAY'S HAND.

Double	Pass	Pass	Pass

"North says that he could not afford to pass to the one spade bid, particularly in a match point game. He says that when South responded with two no trump and West doubled he could not tell which of his minor suits to run to, and furthermore that, since South was the last one to act, it was up to South to run from the double if there was to be any running. He further deposes that South had no right to bid two no trump without a sure stopper in either of the opponents' suits, regardless of the fact that his hand as a whole contained slightly better than two honor tricks.

"South maintains that North's take-out double was just plain filthy. He points out that if East had passed instead of 'psyching' in hearts he [South] would have had to respond conventionally with one no trump, showing about one and one-half honor tricks and not necessarily a stopper in opponent's suit. The fact that East had put in a weakness bid over the take-out double should not, according to South, be permitted to interfere with the normal flow of information between the North-South partners. He submits that four spades to a 10-9 was protection, if not an actual stopper, and that certainly he had no reason to think that North, if he could not stop the spade suit, also was wide open in hearts. Finally, South gets up on his hind legs and screams that, since North must have known that he had made an odoriferous take-out double, at least he could have indicated the fact by running like a frightened faun to his lower ranking minor suit, thereby proving that, if he couldn't do any head work, he could at least do foot work!

"The defense rests. Your case, Mr. Prosecuting Attorney!

"Expectantly, J. F. P., St. Louis.

"P. S.—I suppose it is redundant to say that opponents rattled off five hearts and four spades before the declarer could get his breath."

The judgment of this court is that North should be hanged long enough at least to frighten him. South's contentions are upheld in every particular.

TODAY'S QUESTION.

Question: What is the correct opening bid on the following:

♠ 8 ♥ 9 5 4 ♦ A K Q J 8 7 4 2 ♣ A?

Answer: If you are using the two way three bid, this hand is ideal for an opening three diamond bid. If not, you should open with one diamond.

JO-JOTTE POINTER.

During the play of the cards it pays to remember what each player previously melded. If your opponent has melded, you know at least three cards in his hand. If he has melded ♠ J 10 9 and you have ♥ A 8 7, wait for him to lead the suit. Then duck the jack and nine and save your ace to capture his ten. When you have melded, remember that your opponent knows those cards are in your hand. When it will make no difference in the play use a card which he has seen rather than a card he has not seen.

THE name of the lowly flower that scatters gold over the hillsides and along the roadways, as is fairly universally known, came from the French dent de lion, meaning lion's tooth, so called from the jagged toothlike leaves. The word first appeared in print in its present form in 1578, according to the Oxford dictionary. Lyte in "Dodoens" said that "the dandelion flowereth in April and August. . . ." But nearly a century later, in 1655, Hartlid in "Silkworm" spoke of dantedelion."

Two of Chorus of Ziegfeld Film Now Actresses

Given Speaking Roles After Months of Study.

BY GEORGE SHAFFER.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Los Angeles, Cal., June 3.—[Special.]—Alumnæ of the dancing chorus of "The Great Ziegfeld" are beginning to gain recognition as actresses at M-G-M.

Of the twenty-four girls selected from a nation-wide search for the Ziegfeld dancers about a dozen were retained in M-G-M's stock company. Of this group Clarice Sherry, a blue-eyed blonde from Hawkeye, Ia., and Virginia Grey, a Hollywood girl, are now getting their first breaks in small parts.

Miss Sherry, who before her film career modeled for advertisments for oranges, has a small speaking part in an auction scene in "The Emperor's Candlesticks," which stars William Powell and Luise Rainer.

Miss Sherry's tall stature and light tresses made her one of the outstanding members of the Ziegfeld chorus, but experts said she would never get above chorus work because she was "too beautiful." Apparently she has confounded the experts.

Virginia Grey has been cast in a number of small rôles following her M-G-M stock experience. She did postgraduate work as a stand-in for Madge Evans and Florence Rice. Then she was put on contract and played a part in "Old Hutch." Miss Grey is one of the few Hollywood bred girls to catch on in the movies. She is of second generation motion picture stock, her father, now dead, being Ray Grey, director of old silent comedies.

M-G-M apparently is grooming Frances Rice, daughter of Sports Writer Grantland Rice, for stardom. After considerable experience with "B" picture leads, Miss Rice is receiving her first big part in a major picture in "Double Wedding." She plays second feminine lead to red haired Myrna Loy. William Powell has the male lead.

"Double Wedding" is not one of the Powell-Loy detective series, but is hoped to maintain the tradition these two have set for fast moving light comedy.

John Beal returns to the M-G-M lot in this vehicle after an absence of three years. Others in the cast include Sidney Toller and Jessie Ralph.

Miss Loy is cast as an efficient owner of a smart New York dress shop. She also attempts to dominate the love life of her sister, Florence Rice, and shy boy friend, John Beal. Powell plays the part of a vagabond artist who helps the two lovers escape the sister's domination. Needless to say, Powell baits Miss Loy, who first hates him and then falls in love with him.

Playing the part of secretary to Miss Loy in the picture is Priscilla Lawson, M-G-M's 22 year old "find" from the ranks of New York's models. She was a model for John Powers, fashion illustrator, when she won attention of Universal studio. She was brought to Hollywood, but became discouraged and was packing up to return to New York when M-G-M called her. She was given a feature player contract. A brunette, Miss Lawson possesses the unusual combination of black hair and hazel eyes. She was born and received her schooling in Indianapolis.

Most stand-ins cherish the elusive hope that their work eventually will gain them the recognition necessary to start them on the road to stardom. But not Shirley Hughes, blonde stand-in for Myrna Loy. Miss Hughes has no ambitions to be an actress. Stand-in for Miss Loy for two years, she likes her work and finds a real satisfaction in being of service to the actress, who is an old friend.

A spectacular creation from the Chicago cotton week displays—a summer dance and party dress. The material is fine smooth piqué, brilliantly printed in tropic colors with huge flowers and leaves against a white wash background. A swirling circular skirt that reaches the ankles accents the narrow waistline and the square cut bodice top. Straps of the piqué cross at the back. Three huge flowers made of the piqué are attached to the right side shoulder strap.

Three Fabrics Prove Popular in Tennis Togs

BY RHEA SEEGER.

Three exciting fabrics are used for this summer's outstanding tennis outfits—sleek smart sharkskin, heavy but supple silk crêpe and a good dark, natural toned linen crash.

Sharkskin makes the most spectacular models. It tailors well and goes with contrasting colors better than any material yet invented. See it with dull black, fire truck red, or cypress green contrasts of buttons, ascot or belt.

Long suave coats of white sharkskin are new for wear over swankily tailored slacks and halter tops also of white sharkskin. These coats lead a busy life as beach coats, coats for country club dance dresses and for spectator sportswear.

The dull white silk crêpe models have skirts that are pleated all the way around. Tennis dresses have been revived with a vengeance and they're slick affairs after all the the shorts and divided outfits. One new arrival boasts a polo belt arrangement that makes even a small neat waistline even smaller; the top has short feminine cape sleeves and the blouse top is cleverly designed to assure freedom.

Another dull silk crêpe has the pleated skirt and a top made with navy blue zippers down the center of each sleeve and down the center closing of the blouse.

In the natural dark toned crash displays you should see the knockout pleated shorts cut with a short sleeved top and the smart buttons down the front of the skirt.

Teamed with deep green accessories these become outfits of great popularity especially with copper tops. Zippers are used for tennis togs with the same lavishness that they have been fitted on practically every dress you wear.

Good Morning!

This is a regular powerhouse of a fight picture!

It has everything from punch to pathos—excepting humor. It really doesn't sport much of that.

"Kid Galahad," adapted from Francis Wallace's rousing magazine serial, should prove a magnet for both fight addicts and picture patrons who "don't go in" for that sort of thing. And exhibitors and its producers are hoping it will prove "box office"—something the average punch drama never is.

The big thing about the piece is the fact that all of the characters seem honest to goodness people who behave as such folks naturally would.

Bette Davis has a most sympathetic rôle as the girl of Nick Donati, fight promoter—a rôle that she plays beautifully and in which she appears as a far sweeter and more lovable personality than you would have believed she could be, judging from her ordinary run of characterization.

Edward G. Robinson is a whiz as the promoter whose vile temper and unbridled jealousy lead him into scads of trouble. And a newcomer, Wayne Morrie, handles the title rôle in fine, clean-cut fashion. CAN he sock! Jane Bryan as Donati's sister, who loves the "Kid," is a charming youngster. Humphrey Bogart as a racketeering rival of Donati's does a sinisterly convincing bit of work.

SO—forget your possible aversion to fight films and give "Kid Galahad" a once over. You won't be sorry.

Ann Pennington Knows Art of Keeping Youth

Care of Her Dancing Legs First Consideration.

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

[Copyright: 1937: By The Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Syndicate, Inc.]

There is an art in remaining young, and if any woman knows the secret it is Ann Pennington, darling of Ziegfeld's and George White's greatest shows, and considered one of the outstanding and personable dancing stars of the theater.

Dining with her at the dance spot, where she now is entertaining, one is fascinated by the brightness of her large black eyes, the fluffy aureole of thick hair, which is framed softly around her face, and the small, pearl-like teeth.

Ann's age is not a touchy point with her, but she won't tell her years because she feels that age is not the important thing to the entertainer. She considers every woman young who still is limber, and knows how to use her eyes and smile.

When she appeared on the floor of the club in her specialty number, I caught a glimpse of the Pennington legs, glorified for many years, and considered by Ziegfeld the most beautiful rounded legs and dimpled knees in the country. Today her legs still are perfect, flowing with line and rhythm, and there is nary a sign of the marks of years. Since it is customary that a woman first shows her age by the thickening of the ankles and the appearance of branchlike bluish veins at the calf, this was even more surprising. I think that more women advancing in years moan over the change in the beauty of the legs than any other maturing sign.

Miss Pennington takes better care of her legs and feet than any other part of the body, not only because she dances, but because she feels that healthy lower limbs keep the whole body in line and keep wrinkles away from the brow. She wears a size 4 A shoe, and a high, but well built up heel, which always is kept trim. When she takes her strolls she wears a soft, light brogue with an inner lift, which does not strain her arches.

When her feet are tired after the evening's dancing, she slips them into a basin of lukewarm water and epsom salts, and permits them to soak for about 20 minutes. Then she follows up with an astringent rub and dusting of powder. She never wears house slippers for any length of time without stockings. She wears either cotton anklets or heavy silk hose.

Twice a month her feet are carefully pedicured, with the nails cut straight across and callouses erased with a pumice stone. She does not recommend cutting the cuticle, because it usually leaves hard and uncomfortable pads of flesh.

As for the thighs and calves, Miss Pennington confesses that she does not enjoy organized and regular exercise, but prefers ballet lessons.

"Even if you are not interested in taking up ballet seriously," she points out, "try a few lessons to reduce the thighs, waist, and ankles, and to give you a limber, free feeling."

THROUGH THE LOOKING GLASS

Nothing in the world makes a fastidious woman feel so shabby and badly groomed as to have her nails screaming the need of a good manicure and care. And nothing marks a woman as careless and anything but fastidious quite so effectively as to have it known and said about her that her nails are always in awful shape. It's just not intelligent to neglect nails.

We can't all have those long, strong nails some have—but we can make the most of what the Lord gave us. You'd be surprised at how much corrective work can be done easily.

Brittle nails and rough, split cuticle are the bane of most women's nail existence. The right kind of oiling is the answer—and here's a suggestion for you if you are harassed with hang nails, creases and cracks in the cuticle and nails that take on the corrugated aspect of a washboard: An old, well known preparation that's just about the best corrective cream we've ever found. This is now out in a new jar, a smart affair of black and white composition, a jar within a jar which "air conditions" the contents and keeps the cream in its perfect state.

This pink cream is marvelously efficient. Some time ago we persuaded an invalid to use it, a woman who thought the brittle dryness of her nails was due to poor health. Sometimes it is but very often external attention does the trick. It did with this inexpensive cream.

The cream should be massaged into the nails before retiring and, if possible, after each hand washing. You need use only a little at a time. Use it as a corrective or as a conditioning cream. You'll find results all you could ask. ELEANOR NANGLE.

UGLY FAT LOST
7 POUNDS A MONTH
-without suffering a hungry moment

Amazing way takes off excess weight without strict dieting..or taking drugs

TODAY, an amazing, new reducing method is sweeping the country. A method which offers at last, a way to take off ugly fat without suffering a hungry moment—and without taking strenuous exercises or drugs. A method which increases physical and mental energy as excess weight disappears.

Under the direction of the eminent Dr. Damrau of New York, a number of people who were gaining at the rate of 1¾ pounds a month, followed this remarkable method. And the average loss registered was 7 pounds per person in a single month. Consider that carefully.

This Is All You Do

This sensational reducing method simply calls for this: Mix ¾ of a glass of Welch's Grape Juice, with ¼ of a glass of water, and drink before each meal—and at bedtime. Then eat sensibly, and this is what happens.

First, Welch's Grape Juice satisfies your craving for rich, sweet foods. You have less desire to over-eat fattening foods—yet you do feel comfortably satisfied.

Second, the grape sugar in Welch's is quickly burned up—producing vital energy. And, most important, helps nature to consume excess fat.

Third, the juice has an alkalizing effect on the system which any doctor will tell you is highly beneficial.

This is why weight is not only lost naturally and safely—often at the rate of 7 pounds a month, or more—but why you feel so much better and stronger as your ugly fat disappears.

Only One Thing to Watch

In following this proved, SAFE way to lose ugly fat—eat sensibly—and be sure to use Welch's pure, aged, unadulterated full-strength grape juice. Made from the finest grapes grown. No water added; no artificial coloring. Good Housekeeping approved. Insist upon the genuine Welch's Grape Juice for the results you want.

WATCH YOUR HUSBAND'S WEIGHT

Insurance Companies warn about the dangers of overweight. For they have definitely proved that overweight places too much of a load on the heart, is often associated with such diseases as diabetes and kidney trouble—and shortens the normal span of life. Don't allow your husband to become overweight. Suggest this amazingly easy, pleasant, safe Welch way to reduce.

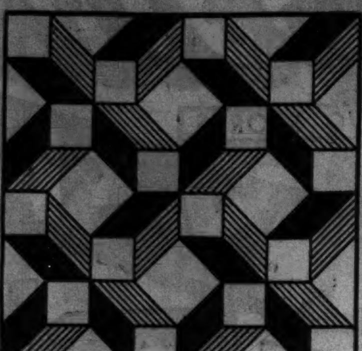
"Idle Moments" Quilt Utilizes the Scrap Bag



Idle Moments.

Patterns of this design are 5 cents, stamps or coin. Address Nancy Cabot, Chicago Tribune, or call at one of the Tribune Public Service offices, 1 South Dearborn street or Tribune Tower.

BY NANCY CABOT.

An entirely original idea is expressed in the title of this clever little pieced block so reminiscent of "Dots and Darts" and yet entirely different. "Idle Moments" is the result of a well filled scrap bag and a clever sense of design. Red, red and white printed material, and white are combined so simply and effectively as to produce one of the most interesting of pieced blocks. In order to keep the pattern intact and yet set the quilt together with pieced blocks, a three inch band is set between the pieced blocks. Forty-two pieced blocks set together in this fashion make a coverlet 90 by 104 inches which may be used as a quilt or a spread.

WEDDING

Miss Virginia Mackey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Mackey of 1311 Hood avenue, will be married tomorrow to John J. Colleran. The wedding will take place at St. Gertrude's church.

Dr. William Howard, Chicago Pastor Since 1926, to Head College

Dr. William Clyde Howard, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, 1936 South Michigan avenue, was elected president of Cedarville college at Xenia, O., yesterday. He succeeds the late Dr. Frederick N. McMillin, of Cincinnati.

Dr. Howard has been pastor of the Second Presbyterian church here since 1926. The church is 95 years old. Dr. Howard was called from the First Presbyterian church of Oklahoma City, Okla., fifth largest of the more than 10,000 Presbyterian churches in the United States.

He is a graduate of the University of Cincinnati, Pacific university and Lane Theological seminary.

Named Church Head.

Asbury Park, N. J., June 3.—[Special.]—The Rev. Dr. Wynand Wichers, president of Hope college, Holland, Mich., was elected president of the Synod of the Reformed Church in America, which opened its 131st annual meeting here today.

DORIS BLAKE ANSWERS

Her Independence Admirable.

"Dear Miss Blake: I often offer to pay a certain girl's carfare but she refuses. Does this show she does not like me? BERT."

Don't be disturbed. She feels it's her place to pay her own carfare, and really it is.

W. C. T. U. Told of Hopes Prohibition May Return

Washington, D. C., June 3.—(AP)—An American woman's statement that she hopes prohibition may return to the United States brought cheers tonight from delegates to the world convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance union.

Mrs. Ida B. Wise Smith of Evanston, Ill., official hostess, said: "We lament that we welcome you to a country where liquor has been relegalized. Before God, my comrades, the W. C. T. U. did its best to prevent it."

Presbyterians Reject Total Abstinence; Dr. Buswell to Quit

Philadelphia, Pa., June 3.—[Special.]—The Presbyterian Church of America late today rejected a total abstinence proposal submitted by the presbytery of Chicago. Associates of Westminster Theological seminary opposed the measure on the ground that it attempted to set up a code of life out of line with the example and teaching of Christ. The final vote was 65 to 24.

The outcome of the issue presaged the departure from the church, formed last June, of a number of those who have stood out against the Westminster faction.

Dr. J. Oliver Buswell, president of Wheaton college, Wheaton, Ill., a leader of the total abstinence group, said afterward that he could not stay "in a wet church."

Mrs. Kathryn Rinella Heads Womens' Bar Association

PAUL WHITEMAN IS BUILDING NEW BAND OF 53 MEN

Group Will Master 110 Instruments.

BY LARRY WOLTERS.

Paul Whiteman, the dean of modern music, revealed yesterday that he is engaged in building a new "All American band" of fifty-three men who will play 110 instruments. The band is to make its bow in early fall. Whiteman and his crew paused here en route to Dubuque to play a one night engagement and will return this morning for a week at the Palace theater. Plans also are being made to bring them back to the Drake hotel and to W-G-N—Mutual early in November.

Whiteman now is recruiting the men to be added to his new superband, which will have within it a dance band, a swing band, a brass band, and a symphonic orchestra. By the time his new orchestra is completed and that one NBC is getting together for Arturo Toscanini, a lot of symphony, radio studio, and dance orchestras will be busy looking around for new men to fill their depleted ranks. One of the men Whiteman is determined to have is Eddie Dunstedder of CBS in St. Louis, one of the best known of the nation's organists. Another he already has signed is Al Golidaro, New Orleans saxophonist.

Whiteman's present band of 25 pieces is bigger than that of any other dance band. The only popular orchestras using more men are such studio aggregations as Andre Kostelanetz's, Frank Black's, Al Goodman's, and other groups working on the Hit Parade and a few big sponsored shows, running to 40 or so men.

Whiteman's idea in organizing this super band is to bring listeners something "excitingly new in sound." He has long held the view that radio has too often appropriated the music of the masters, of the concert stage, and dance halls without giving very much in the way of the new and different in return. Through his new band he hopes to make a start in this direction. The whole project will cost a lot of money—and of course Whiteman expects to have the aid of some commercial sponsor in it. Several are reported interested—among them a big motors combine.

Arch Oboler, author of Lights Out, wires from New York that he has written a short play which Jules Garfield and Helen Locke of "Having a Wonderful Time" are to present on Magic Key hour Sunday. Sketch is titled "Trouble Night."

Anson Weeks is to get a big workout next Sunday morning despite the fact that he must play late Saturday night at the Edgewater Beach hotel. At 10:45 a. m. he pinch plays for Henry Busse's band, which is on tour, on NBC, and at 12:30 a. m. for Ted Weems on his Mutual sponsored program. Weeks has gone to Memphis to play a short engagement there.

Vivian Della Chiesa, NBC soprano, has been engaged to sing several new rôles with the Chicago City Opera company next fall. Among these will be Marguerite in "Faust." . . . Gladys Butler and Clark Dennis now are singing the leads in the CBS Modern Cinderella musical serial.

TWO DIE IN TRAIN WRECK.

Reno, Nev., June 3.—(AP)—Two persons, tentatively identified as Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Oliver Hyatt of Sacramento, Cal., were killed and 15 cars were derailed in the wreck of an eastbound Southern Pacific freight train 60 miles east of here, near Hazen, Nev., today. The two victims had apparently been riding on the tank car or on one of the cars near it.

DEAN THREATENS TO SUE FRICK FOR $250,000

DENIES 'CROOK' CHARGES; AIN'T SIGNIN' NOTHIN'

Explodes at N. L. Conference.

New York, June 3.—[Special.]—Flatly refusing to sign a second letter of apology written for him by Ford C. Frick, president of the National league, and just as resolutely declining to write one himself, Dizzy Dean, under suspension for allegedly having directed derogatory remarks toward the league's chief executive, struck back tonight.

"I'll sue Ford Frick and the National league for $250,000 if I'm deprived of making a living, which is pitching for the Cardinals," declared baseball's No. 1 stormy petrel as he fumed in his hotel room.

"I'll first appeal to Commissioner Landis," said Dean, "and if that doesn't get me anywhere, I'll sue Frick and the National league for plenty—at least a quarter of a million—for depriving me of my job."

Dean's latest explosion came at the close of a nerve wracking day during which all attempts to induce the Cardinals' volatile pitcher to assume an attitude of contrition failed utterly.

Won't Sign Anything.

"I ain't signin' nothin'!"

Upon that inelegant but important statement by Dean which boomed out through the closed door and transom of Frick's office in Radio City the two hour conference between the Cardinal pitcher and the National league president began and ended.

"As a result," quoting the final paragraph of Frick's official statement, issued after the battle had abated, "it is the ruling of the National league office that Player Dean remain under indefinite suspension."

"He will not be reinstated until he signs a statement refuting the remarks he has made," continued Frick, "especially the statement quoted in the Belleville, Ill., Advocate that 'Frick and Umpire Barr are the two biggest crooks in baseball.'"

Crux of Situation.

That declaration by Dean, alleged to have been made during a speech at a father and son banquet in Belleville on May 25, is the crux of the whole situation.

"Dean made a blanket denial to me this morning," Frick said, "of every one of the various statements attributed to him and quoted in the papers. But he refused to sign any paper backing up his verbal denial. He must do that before he can be reinstated. If he doesn't, the suspension is just exactly what it says—indefinite."

Dean Three Minutes Late.

Dizzy showed up 3 minutes late. As he brushed through the mob of reporters in the outer offices he paused long enough to grin and say: "Well, we're all here. We'll have a party afterward."

Within the next 15 minutes his voice was heard, as he paced back and forth in front of Frick's desk, bellowing the statement that he would not sign an apology.

When Frick's door opened shortly after 1 o'clock and the writers crowded in, Dizzy was seated deep in a big lether chair near a north window, Frick at his desk, and Frisch beside the league president.

Dizzy mustered a grin, but his expression was that of a slightly bewildered and even a trifle frightened youth who has been raiding the pantry and isn't quite sure whether a bit of jam isn't still sticking to his face.

The National league president promptly handed out copies of his official statement and leaned back nervously awaiting the questions that soon were to beat into his ears. The statement:

"In a conference this morning between Manager Frisch, Clarence Lloyd, secretary of the St. Louis club; Player Dean, and the president of the National league, all statements purported to have been made by Mr. Dean and quoted in the press, honesty of the National league office and the National league umpires, were discussed thoroughly.

"Remains Under Suspension."

"Mr. Dean made a blanket denial of ever having made any of the statements and said that he had not at any time made such statements to the press.

"He refused, however, to sign a public statement refuting the alleged remarks, or any public statement declaring that he was misquoted. As a result, it is the ruling of the National league office that Player Dean remain under indefinite suspension."

Answering various questions, Frick said that he had talked with President Sam Breadon of the St. Louis club on the phone during the discussion, that the letter he wanted Dean to sign had been read to Breadon, and that Dizzy's boss had urged that Dean sign it.

The document prepared for Dean's signature was not the same one sent to Ebbets field Wednesday, but one composed after Dean had made his

ROUT FERRELL WITH FIVE RUN ATTACK IN 4TH

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

The gay White Sox used the great Ves Ferrell yesterday as a short cut o their fifth straight triumph. The reat one, after starting impressively, ras erased from the scene during a tormy fourth inning in which the Chicagoans nudged five runs across ne plate. With that as a tonic for ll hands, including Vernon Kennedy, ne Dykes warriors continued to parade around the bases until an 11 to defeat had been hung on Boston's old flaked Red Sox in the delayed pener of the series.

Kennedy attained his fifth victory f the season despite his customary vildness. The ex-collegian gave six asses and five hits, one a homer, in ne first four innings. Out of this ness the enemy first cooked up a 2 0 edge for Ferrell and afterward nade it 4 to 1. But once he was iven the lead Kennedy took care nat it didn't escape him. In the ast five innings he walked three, but urrendered only one hit. He fanned even.

Bonura Hits No. 7.

The Chicago Sox couldn't make an npression on Ferrell until Tony Piet xploded a homer in the third. Zeke Bonura did the same, his seventh, vith one out in the fourth and this vas the signal for the roundup gainst the Boston ace. He walked couple and hits by Luke Sewell nd Kennedy made him surrender. Before Jack Wilson could adjust the ituation Rip Radcliff ripped off a it that rounded out the five run otal. Later on both Jack Ostermueler and Johnny Marcum had to help ut in a daffy eighth inning which aw four more White Sox employés kip across the plate.

Kennedy's troubles in the first nning were so extensive that three nen drew bases on balls and two ncorked hits. Mills, leading off, valked and luckily was doubled n Dallesandro's sharp bounder to layes. Cronin and Foxx then drew asses. McNair stopped what might ave been a pass by singling to left, ronin scoring. Higgins slammed a ngle to right, Foxx scoring and McNair going to third. Sewell staved ff further distress by flagging Higgins at second in an attempted steal.

McNair Loses Pop Fly.

The Chicago attack on Ferrell vasn't even detected until the third hen Piet swung lustily in the roper spot and sent his second omer of the season into the left eld seats. Next was Sewell, who oisted a pop over second base. McNair lost it in the sun and forgot all bout picking up the ball, so Sewell tretched the fluke hit into a double. errell usually gets upset about such appenings, but this time refused to low up. Kennedy sacrificed, after hich Radcliff sent a short fly to Mills and Kreevich a long fly to the ame fellow.

Kennedy fell into difficulties as oon as the fourth inning opened. McNair nicked him for a triple to ight center and scored an instant ater when Higgins sent a homer nto the left field pavilion. After etting rid of Gaffke on an infield ap, Kennedy turned wild again. He assed Desautels and Ferrell. Mills oked a double play ball at Appling, vho fumbled momentarily and had to

BRADDOCK, GOULD SUSPENDED BY N. Y. COMMISSION

Fined $1,000 for Failure to Meet Schmeling.

Who Won?

THOUSANDS of words have been printed in The Tribune and every other newspaper in the country in recent weeks about Champion Jim Braddock's refusal to fight Max Schmeling at New York last night. Additional thousands of words have been printed about Braddock's preparations for his fight with Joe Louis in Chicago on June 22. Yet, last night The Tribune sports department received scores of telephone calls asking who won the Braddock-Schmeling fight.

New York, June 3.—[Special.]—Max Schmeling's fantom fight was held today at the New York state athletic commission and after a bruising session that had its repercussions long after he left the board's headquarters, the German former heavyweight champion admitted himself a beaten man.

The commission, convened ostensibly to examine Schmeling and James J. Braddock, the title holder, for the fight scheduled to be held in the Madison Square Garden bowl tonight, had only half that duty to perform. Braddock failed to show up. He is in training at Grand Beach Mich., to fight Joe Louis in Chicago on June 22 and had only academic interest in what was going on in New York today.

Max Much Concerned.

Schmeling, however, was concerned. He had done everything asked of him since he signed last December for tonight's fight that never came off, and there remained only the weighing in for him to fulfill all clauses in the contract that he had with the Madison Square Garden corporation.

So the German stepped on the scales of the commission and was told he weighed 196 pounds. That, together with the findings of Dr. William Walker during his physical examination, seemed a point of great satisfaction to the fighter.

The weighing-in ceremony concluded, Schmeling looked eagerly for the next step. Schmeling confidently anticipated hearing a verdict that if it did not raise him to the status of champion, would, at least, divest Braddock of the title.

It's Not So Rosy.

His feelings underwent a sudden transformation, however, when Maj. Gen. John J. Phelan, chairman of the commission, read the board's decision.

"This body," proclaimed the chairman, "after due and lengthy consideration of the matter, finds James J. Braddock and his manager, Joe Gould, in violation of the commission's orders and hereby imposes a civil fine of $1,000 each on Braddock and his manager. In addition, this board suspends Braddock from fighting in this state, or in any state affiliated with the New York commission, and also suspends Gould, both for an indefinite period. Also, and fighter meeting Braddock will be suspended automatically.

"The forfeit money of $5,000 put up by the Madison Square Garden for Braddock shall be divided in equal parts by the Garden and by Max Schmeling, who is ready, willing, and able to fight tonight."

On hearing these words Schmeling was visibly stunned. He repaired immediately to his headquarters in the Commodore hotel, where he was found later bitterly deploring the turn of events.

"The ruling is a joke," he kept saying over and over. "It practically legalizes the fight in Chicago and leaves me out in the cold. What does it mean to suspend Braddock? He's going to fight Louis anyway,

Kenosha Finds a New Idol; It's Mushky, Not Mr. Louis

BY WILFRID SMITH.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Kenosha, Wis., June 3.—Mushky Jackson will be 41 years of age June 22, and by a coincidence, which Mushky says is "phenomal," Joe Louis, for whom Mushky is herding sparmates here at Kenosha, will fight Jim Braddock that night for the championship of the world.

"What a boithday dat'll be," Mushky broadcast last night in the bar of the Dayton hotel as he generously exposed his unconscious wit based primarily on inability to pronounce any word of more than one syllable. And when Mushky speaks of June 22 and his birthday it is not because he anxiously awaits the outcome of Louis' bid for a title. June 22 to Mushky is the day his five weeks' servitude in a foreign city ends and he can hasten back to the sidewalks of his native New York.

No Longer the Young David.

Kenosha sought the Louis fight camp. Its chamber of commerce, quite anxious for publicity which would date line a thousand newspapers and make Kenosha, city of automobiles and mattresses, as well known as Pompton Lakes and Lakewood, N. J., led the civic rah, rah, rah, when Louis pitched his tent on Lake Michigan's shores.

But Kenosha cheer leaders did not realize that the Louis era in sports long since has passed its peak. Joe Louis, the young David who dared Goliath Carnera, who caused King Levinsky to turn pale, and who punched a craven Max Baer into submission, no longer is the hero of a hundred typewriters. Max Schmeling ended this period of idolism and the thousands realized that Joe Louis not only could be hit but that he had been knocked out.

Adjectives Lose Effectiveness.

Grand Beach, Mich., June 3.—James J. Braddock, the world's heavyweight champion, is the despair of build-up reporters. It seems congenitally impossible for him to put himself in the limelight.

It would be so easy to paint his picture if he were a rough and tumble saloon fighter like John L. Sullivan. But he is not. He has been a teetotaler all his life, but that doesn't mean that he is a goody-goody who objects to those around him having their nip or even getting pie-eyed.

Perhaps he is an eccentric like Bob Fitzsimmons. That would make reams of copy. Bob used to rush from the ring to a seat at the ringside occupied by his wife and shower her with innumerable kisses while the crowd looked on and howled with delight.

Jim Loves His Wife, Too; Phones Her Nightly.

Champion Jim loves his wife, too, but all the public will ever know about it is that he calls her by phone every night and that he got a big kick the other day out of buying a present for his daughter, Rose Marie, on her fourth birthday.

The student classification might fit him. Many pages were written about Gene Tunney's love for the classics. Champ Jim loves to read—it's the nearest thing he has to a hobby. Never a day goes by but that he spends some hours poring over, and

Sarazen, Dutra Lead in Best Ball Tourney

Toledo, O., June 3.—(AP)—Sixteen of the country's outstanding professionals scored 45 birdies in the opening 18 hole matches of the third annual Inverness round robin best ball tourney today.

Jimmy Hines, the metropolitan champion, and Sam Snead, the West Virginian who never took a lesson, led the onslaught, each turning in a half dozen subpar holes. Denny Shute, P. G. A. chmpion, although hampered by a lame back, made five, as did Henry Picard, Hershey, Pa.

Gene Sarazen, former open champion, was the lone entrant in the field who failed to get under even figures on any hole, but his partner, Olin Dutra, 1934 open champion, had four.

Under the Inverness system of scoring the team which is "up" at the end of 18 holes gets a plus rating of the number of holes it is ahead, while the losers get a minus rating of the same figure.

That made the standing:

Dutra-Sarazen, plus 3; Mangrum-Hines, plus 2; Picard-Revolta, plus 1; Shute-Little, plus 1; Runyan-Laffoon, minus 1; Guldahl-Snead, minus 1; Smith-Cooper, minus 2; Armour-Thomson, minus 3.

JOHN HENRY LEWIS STOPS BOB OLIN IN EIGHTH ROUND

St. Louis, Mo., June 3.—(AP)—John Henry Lewis successfully defended his light heavyweight title here tonight by gaining a technical knockout over Bob Olm of New York midway in the eighth round of their scheduled 15 round fight.

The knockout followed a series of a half dozen hard rights to Olin's jaw. Olin went down for the count of seven, struggled to his feet, dazed by the bombardment of lether to his head. Lewis rushed in for the kill and crashed another hard right to Olin's jaw and Referee Walter Heisner stopped the fight.

HOOSIERS RULE AS FAVORITES IN TRACK TODAY

Ten Records May Fall at Milwaukee Meet.

Milwaukee, Wis., June 3.—[Special.]—With Indiana back in full force in an attempt to retain its title and the K. K. Rockne Memorial trophy, which it won here last year, the twelfth annual Central Intercollegiate track meet will be held in the Marquette university stadium tomorrow afternoon and night.

The Hoosiers, due to power in the distance runs and balance in other departments, are favored to retain their championship, although they will be pressed by Pittsburgh, the I. C. 4-A winner; Notre Dame, Wisconsin, and Michigan State.

Thirty-four schools from 12 states have entered this year's meet, which was founded in 1926 by the late Knute Rockne, Notre Dame; Ralph Young, Michigan State, who will be the referee tomorrow, and Conrad Jennings, Marquette. Big Ten teams in the field, in addition to Indiana and Wisconsin, will be Illinois, Chicago, Purdue, Minnesota, and Iowa.

The Other Entries.

Other entries include Butler, Earlham, Wayne, Michigan Normal, Western State, Grand Rapids Junior college, Miami, Dubuque, Omaha, Wayne [Neb.] Teachers, Cape Girardeau [Mo.] Teachers, Drake, Grinnell, Iowa Teachers, Yankton [N. D.], Illinois Normal, De Kalb Teachers, Macomb Teachers, Lawrence, Ripon, Carroll, and Milwaukee Teachers.

New records are possible in ten events, since entries in the meet have bettered that many Central marks. The field is headed by three Olympic stars—Don Lash and Tommy Deckard, Indiana distance runners, and Fritz Pollard Jr., North Dakota hurdler.

Lash, Cuff Defend Titles.

Lash in the mile and two mile and Ward Cuff, Marquette, in the javelin, will be the only defending champions. Among other individual stars on hand will be Bobby Grieve [Illinois], Wilbur Greer [Michigan State], and Bob Collier [Indiana], dashes; George Halcrow [Chicago], Abie Rosenkrantz [Michigan Normal], and Mel Trutt [Indiana], middle distances; Charles Fenske [Wisconsin] and Bill Feiler [Drake], distance runs; Allan Tolmich [Wayne] and Dick Brunton [Illinois], hurdles, and Bud Faymonville [Notre Dame], Bob Hubbard and Dominic Krezowski [Minnesota], Ed Burke [Marquette], and Al Haller [Wisconsin], in the field events.

Rut Walter, Northwestern, will be the starter, and Ted Canty, the announcer.

The Rev. Hugh O'Donnell, C. S. C., chairman of the Notre Dame university athletic board—You have the sincere sympathy of the faculty board in control of Notre Dame athletics on the death of Harvey Woodruff. A capable writer and fine Christian gentleman.

Alan Gould, sports editor Associated Press—Harvey Woodruff's death is a real loss to sports writing generally and especially to those who knew his personal charm, enthusiasm, and ability. His fairness, industry, and capacity for work were an inspiration. Paul Mickelson joins me in expressing condolences to THE TRIBUNE.

It's Too Bad, but Braddock Isn't a Type!

That makes him eligible for the "Gentleman Jim" class which doesn't fit him any better than the rest. He would not be at ease in a drawing room. Neither would he be guilty of keeping his hat on in the presence of a lady. The original Gentleman Jim Corbett was an actor, a wit and a much sought after dinner guest. Braddock is none of these.

The rôle of "The Great Lover" played by his predecessor Max Baer is also definitly out. Jim is a one woman man and doesn't care who knows it.

All right then, let nature take its course. Let his fists alone do the limelighting.

If, beginning some time early next week he were to slam his sparring partners right and left, smack a few of them out of the ring or better still knock them cold, tongues would start wagging all over the country. That, after all, is the more straightforward course and the most telling on the box office receipts.

But Champion Jim came up with the startling announcement today that most of his hard work is done. That, he says, is because he has unconsciously reached top condition earlier than he had anticipated. He is not going to risk being overtrained for a few hurrahs and huzzahs in his training camp.

He'd Rather Be a Bum at Camp than in Fight.

To put it in his own words "I'd much prefer to be called a bum and a loafer here in camp than to have the crowd at Comiskey park do it on the night of June 22."

Jim is one fellow who should know when he has reached peak condition. He's been at it a dozen years even though he hasn't fought since he took the title away from Max Baer two years ago.

And so after he boxes six rounds tomorrow, eight on Saturday, and ten on Sunday, Jim's efforts along these particular training lines will ease up.

But It's Late to Start That Kind of Thing.

There's always the possibility that he may become restless as many finely trained athletes do—smash some photographer's camera, punch a reporter on the nose, go down to the railroad tracks and throw rocks at the Michigan Central engines as they whizz by or fire his secretary, Tex Sullivan, and replace him with a Hollywood blonde. But Jim never has done that kind of thing and his attitude today is "why start anything at the age of 31?"

After all, the best description yet heard of Champion Jim is that he is exactly the man you would choose to accompany you down a dark alley if you knew there were some tough guys loitering in the middle of it.

JUNIOR TENNIS PLAYERS OPEN PLAY TOMORROW

Junior tennis players of Chicago and suburbs will be given an opportunity to compete for gold and silver medals and places in the national junior tournament at Culver, Ind., when the first annual tennis center tournaments of the Chicago Tennis association open at four sites at 10 a. m. tomorrow.

All semi-finalists in the junior and boys divisions will be eligible for the Culver meet, which opens on Aug. 2.

The junior division is for boys not 18 years old before Jan. 1, 1937; the boys division for those who are not 15 and the girls division for those who are not 18 before the same date.

No entry fee is required but each entrant must furnish one ball. All players should report at their respective centers at the starting time with age identification cards.

Notre Dame, Ind., June 3.—[Special.]—Last minute entry of St. George High school, Evanston, Ill., and St. Mary's High school, Michigan City, Ind., today raised the total in the fourth annual Notre Dame National Catholic interscholastic track and field meet to 21 schools and 308 individuals.

Both figures represent new records. Preliminaries will be run tomorrow with finals scheduled for Saturday afternoon.

West Catholic High of Philadelphia is again favored to win the meet, although several strong Chicago entries will challenge the supremacy the Philadelphia school has held during the first three years.

Records are expected to fall in at least six of the 14 events.

The Notre Dame baseball team will open its two day series with Iowa here tomorrow. The Irish conclude their season in Saturday's commencement game, also with Iowa.

Kenosha Has a New Idol; It's Mushky

ingly recorded Louis' glories for two years, have lost effectiveness through repeated exposure. Not only have many of Kenosha's 50,000 population failed to attend Louis' workouts, but the schoolboy autograph seekers, plague of the notorious, have indicated clearly their adolescent disdain.

But Mushky Jackson, by his unconcealed contempt for the hinterland, by his heavily accented easternisms, and by a humorous disregard for syntax, has brought down the house. Joe Louis and his sober faced associates are welcome in Kenosha, at least as long as Mushky is court jester.

Kenosha has learned to anticipate Mushky's announcement from the ring that "Joe Louis, who will fight Braddock for 'the champeenship of the world at Comisky park, will train in dis arena Toisday and Sat'day." Kenosha knows that Mushky thinks the town has too many "esquariums" for safe automobile driving. You might run over the horses.

It Ain't No Lake—It's Bigger.

And when Mushky announces: "in case of t'reatnin' weather the bouts will be held in Moost hall," the town rushes to tell the story.

"Racing" and "Weehauken" have become Kenosha's names for its adjacent rival lake shore cities. Half the habitués of the Dayton hotel are urging Mushky to eat strawberries to find out if, as Mushky predicts, he will get a rash like "poison ivories."

"Dis ain't no town," Mushky has told Jones. "And you couldn't stay here if you wasn't immunion." And Kenosha laughs and recalls how Mushky plans to install a "derelict" in the practice ring to help Louis' punching partners to their feet after knockdowns.

Mushky Jackson, known in the records of the United States army as Morris Radisky, perhaps began his career as a humorist in that army. Back in 1917 Mushky entered the service of his Uncle Sam as boxing instructor on the campus of New York university. Eventually he came out at Newport News certified as a cook.

Can't Cook, But Dough Is Swell.

"I can't cook," Mushky has admitted again and again. "But they was plenty guys who could, for cooks don't get killed often. And thirty-eight slugs a mont' is swell dough."

Mushky is working for Julian Black and John Roxborough. He admits only that Mike Jacobs is his boss. Mushky was on vacation today.

"Bail me out," he told Jones as he left Kenosha. "I'm going to Chicago and maybe spend the day at Braddock's camp. Dat can't be no worse dan dis place. And I got to do somet'ing to stop the 'monopoly.'"

Yankee Wins Defense Test from Rainbow

Newport, R. I., June 3.—(AP)—The racing sloop Yankee came from astern today on the last leg of a 28 mile triangular course to beat Rainbow, 1934 winner of the America's cup, by over five minutes. There was a gentle southeast breeze.

Making its third bid for selection as cup defender, Yankee lagged for the greater part of today's race, only to come with a rush down wind, with her owner, Gerard B. Lambert, piloting the big craft through the fog and rain.

Rainbow, owned and skippered by Chandler Hovey, whose attractive daughter, Elizabeth, was at the helm for part of the race, lost much of an early lead when one of its big headsails split. It sailed a losing race thereafter.

Yesterday in the opening contest of the trial series to select a yacht to meet T. O. M. Sopwith's British challenger, Yankee was defeated by Harold S. Vanderbilt's new defense aspirant, Ranger. Tomorrow Ranger and Rainbow will meet for the first time as opponents.

The course sailed today gave the yachts a beat to windward of 8.5 miles to Torpedo Range buoy off Saknonnet, a broad reach of 9.2 miles to a racing buoy 10 miles south of Brenton's Reef lightship, and a 10 mile run home before the win to the finish line.

Waltons Want Pollution of the DuPage Halted

BY BOB BECKER.

A study of the Du Page river with special attention to the amount and sources of pollution in that part of the stream that flows through Du Page county is being made by the Sanitary Water Board of Illinois. The Du Page chapter of the Izaak Walton league is the organization behind this study and the movement to make the Du Page river a cleaner and safer stream for residents of the county.

According to C. Pinkous, president of the Walton chapter, pollution of the Du Page river has increased in recent years to such an extent that it is more of an open sewer than a prairie stream suitable for wading and bathing for children and for fishing.

Study Samples from River.

C. Schwob, an engineer of the sanitary water board, has been at work for several weeks taking samples of water from the Du Page river and testing them for various types of pollution and the amount of each in the stream. On the basis of this study of water samples a report on the stream will be made in the near future.

To call attention to the condition of the Du Page river and hear a preliminary discussion on the wastes now being poured into the stream the Du Page chapter of the Izaak Walton league will hold an open mass meeting Tuesday night, June 8, in the Glenbard High school in Glen Ellyn, Ill. The meeting will start at 8:30 p. m. Among the speakers will be Mr. Schwob and Dr. John B. Morrow of Glen Ellyn. Dr. Morrow will tell league members and others in attendance of the danger to residents near the Du Page by the pollution in the stream.

League Demands Clean Streams.

The Du Page chapter's campaign for a cleaner and safer stream is one of several now being waged by the Izaak Walton League of America throughout the United States. With many small and large rivers rendered unfit for recreational use because of pollution the conservation organization is bringing public sentiment and the law into operation to secure action in making rivers an asset instead of a liability to public health.

GIANTS THINK IT RAINED, SO CUBS PLAY TWO TODAY

Lee, French Go to Mound; Hubbell May Pitch.

BY EDWARD BURNS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, June 3.—This dispatch is mostly about double-headers, three that the Cubs didn't anticipate and two they've already played and won.

The first of these double-headers, or bargain bills, as they some times quaintly are called, will be played with the Giants tomorrow. It sprinkled at noon enough to warant the postponement of today's scheduled encounter. The Giants, who played to 60,000 Monday in a double-header, to 5,000 Tuesday and 4,000 yesterday, didn't seem very hesitant about fixing up a double-header for tomorrow.

French and Lee Named.

Larry French, who was to have pitched this afternoon, will pitch the first game tomorrow, Bill Lee the second. The usual secrecy prevails anent lovable Bill Terry's selections, but the Cubs would not be surprised if they ran up against Carl Hubbell and Clydell Castleman. Of the three defeats the Cubs have suffered at the hands of the Giants this season, one was administered by the Great Hub and the other two were credited to Castleman.

The double-header was arranged for tomorrow after two others, both purely synthetic, had been thought up earlier in the day. Next Monday's scheduled game in Boston has been moved up for a double-header with the Bees on Sunday and the contest scheduled for Philadelphia on Friday, June 11, has been moved back for a double-header with the Phillies on June 13, last day of the current eastern trip.

The Cubs Like 'Em.

These double doses of baseball hold no horrors for the Cubs. Since last Saturday noon they have played two double-headers, winning all four games, two from the Reds last Saturday and two Monday, from Lon Warneke and Dizzy Dean of the Cardinals.

Bees Hand Pirates First Shutout, 6-0

Boston, June 3.—(AP)—Rookie Lou Fette, the Boston Bees' 30 year old right hander, stretched his winning streak to four straight today as he handed the Pittsburgh Pirates their first shutout of the year, 6 to 0.

Between Fette, who checked the league leaders with seven hits, and Wally Berger, who hit two home runs, driving in four runs, the Pirates never had a chance after the Bees posted a four run lead in the first inning.

COCHRANE HAS GOOD DAY, BUT IS NOT SAFE YET

New York, June 3.—[Special.]—Mickey Cochrane, manager of the Detroit Tigers, was reported making steady improvement today by Dr. Emmet Walsh. However, Dr. Walsh, who made only one visit today, said Mickey was not definitly out of danger.

"As far as can be seen, all is well and Mickey is making rapid progress," Dr. Walsh said. "But he isn't definitly out of the danger zone. We are on guard against complications."

Mrs. Cochrane, who has been in New York since Cochrane was struck on the head by a pitched ball on May 25, sat in Mickey's room all day.

Crowd Boos Decision as Gibbons and Rankin Draw

St. Paul, Minn., June 3.—(AP)—Jack Gibbons, St. Paul, and Oscar Rankin, Chicago, fought 10 fast rounds to a draw tonight. The decision was booed by the crowd, which apparently thought Rankin had a decided edge. The fight was packed with action, the gong ending the first round saving Gibbons, who was knocked staggering into a neutral corner by a left hook to the jaw.

Hoffmans and Adducis Win in Softball League

The Hoffmans of the south side snapped the Connellys' winning streak last night, 6 to 5, in a Windy City Softball league game at the new St. Philip stadium. Otto Kolor and Len Dory did the heavy hitting for the winners. In the other league game the Adducis made it three in a row by whipping the Winkler Motors, 7 to 3.

Indians Win, 6-2, to Slash Yankees' Lead

Cleveland, O., June 3.—(AP)—The Indians pulled up to within three games of the American league lead today by whipping the pace setting New York Yankees, 6 to 2, behind Mel Harder's effective pitching.

Although touched for 11 hits, three of them by Lou Gehrig, Harder held the Yanks scoreless through the first six innings to score his third victory against two defeats.

In addition to losing the ball game, which evened the current series, the Yanks lost the services of their slugging right fielder, George Selkirk. He pulled up with a charley horse in the second inning and will be out of the lineup for a week. Myril Hoag took over his assignment.

Whitehead, Grove to Meet in Sox, Boston Final

John Whitehead, who with a little ninth inning assistance from Bill Dietrich, whipped the Red Sox at Boston on May 23, will face them again today in the final of the series. The Boston pitching will be in the care of Bob Grove, the somewhat ancient southpaw.

Roger Cramer, the Red Sox' regular fielder, is on vacation. He jammed a hand in Monday's game and, although an X-ray negative failed to reveal a fracture, he will have to rest for several days.

Connie Mack's vanishing Athletics will be here tomorrow for a series of four games, two of which will be played as a double-header on Sunday. Another bargain bill has been arranged for Sunday, June 13, Washington being the attraction.

The entire American league office staf turned out for the battle. This was part of the program arranged in celebration of the birthday of Miss Dorothy Hummel, assistant to President Will Harridge.

White Sox Jolt Boston, 11 to 4; Rout Ferrell

Ferrell personally tossed out Walker to open the home fourth and the fun started immediately. Bonura selected a 3 and 1 cripple and sent it into the seats in left for his seventh homer. As proof that the blow hurt his pride, Ferrell walked Appling and Hayes. Gaffke captured Piet's long fly. Sewell singled to center to score Appling. Kennedy did the unexpected by lining a two bagger over third, Hayes counting and Sewell stopping at third. Ferrell welcomed this as a good spot in which to sneak off the job. Wilson relieved him and Radcliff let go with a two bagger to left, Sewell and Kennedy scoring. Kreevich then walked and Walker fanned.

Kennedy Escapes Jam.

For a few minutes in the seventh inning Kennedy appeared to be all set for letting his two run lead vanish. Wildness got him into trouble again. Dallesandro led off with a pass and Cronin popped to Hayes. Foxx also walked. McNair sent a hopper straight back toward the mound, but it slipped through Kennedy's hands and caromed off his knee for a single, filling the bases. Then Higgins hit a leisurely liner into Hayes' hands and McNair was doubled off first base.

Cronin made the Chicago boys a present of one run in the home seventh. Wilson adopted Kennedy's tactics and passed Walker and Bonura. Appling forced Bonura, Walker going to third. Hayes bounced to Cronin and the boy manager planned on making a throw to second, but the ball fell out of his hand. Nobody was retired and Walker scored. Then Piet and Sewell flied to Mills in center.

Four More Runs.

The home eighth began pleasantly when McNair looked like a bloomer girl star trying to grab Kennedy's grounder. Radcliff walked, and Kreevich filled the bases by beating out a high bounding bunt. Ostermueller was brought in to handle the situation. He handled it by walking Walker, Kennedy scoring. Ostermueller then took a walk for himself on orders from the boss. Marcum took over the job and passed Bonura, Radcliff scoring. Kreevich dashed home on Appling's fly to Gaffke. Hayes doubled over first, Walker scoring. Piet walked and Sewell did everybody a favor by bouncing into a double play.

HASSETT IS IDLE, BUT REACHES 3D IN N. L. BATTING

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Lyn Lary of the Indians and Beau Bell of the Browns climbed into a second place tie in the American league batting race yesterday, while Brooklyn's Buddy Hassett went into third place in the National league. Bell and Hassett were idle and Lary got only one hit in four chances, but the three profited by the batting collapse of Pittsburgh's Paul Waner and Joe Cronin of the Red Sox, both of whom went hitless in four times up and fell out of the hitting "big six."

blanket denial of everything. The letter follows:

"My dear Mr. Frick:

"I feel that I owe you and the National league an explanation for certain remarks of mine which were made in the presence of newspaper men and which have been quoted in the press.

"First, as concerns the balk incident in St. Louis, it is a fact that I knew and had been informed of the balk rule a week before that incident occurred. It is true also that I knew that the balk rule was being enforced generally throughout the league and was not directed at me. It is true also that I was warned about this rule while warming up for the game in which that incident occurred. Insofar as the particular balk which was called on me is concerned, it was, of course, a matter of umpire's judgment. In my opinion I did not commit a balk.

Asked to Clear Umpire.

"The other evening in Belleville, Ill., I was quoted as making certain statements reflecting upon the integrity of certain umpires and the National league office. I did not make those statements. In all my experience in big league baseball I have never once known of a single case of umpires who were dishonest or crooked. I, of course, retain the right always to question their judgment but I do not for one moment doubt their honesty or integrity.

"I trust you will accept this explanation in the spirit in which it is tendered and that the whole thing can today be dismissed as a closed incident.

"Assuring you of my loyalty to baseball, and the National league, I am

"Sincerely."

C. J. Keller, managing editor of the Belleville Advocate, reached on the telephone today, said:

"He made the remarks during his speech and 150 people heard him make them. We printed the story and that's all there is to it. I don't think so many people would misunderstand Dean."

LANDIS SAYS NOTHING.

Commissioner K. M. Landis yesterday refused to be drawn into the controversy between Ford Frick, president of the National league, and Dizzy Dean, over the suspension of the Cardinal pitcher.

"I have nothing to say," Landis commented.

FELLER'S STAY IN MILWAUKEE IS STILL A MYSTERY

Milwaukee, Wis., June 3.—(AP)—Whether treatment for his ailing arm was the purpose of a mystery visit here by Bob Feller, young Cleveland pitcher, remained a mystery today. The youthful strikeout sensation still denied he was here for treatment by Dr. L. D. Smith, a bone specialist.

Dr. Smith merely said: "See Mr. Feller."

The 18 year old hurler meanwhile borrowed a uniform from the Milwaukee Brewer baseball club today and warmed up before the Brewers' game with Toledo. He chased fly balls, but did not work out on the mound.

ROBERTSON RIDES 3 MORE WINNERS AT HOMEWOOD

Stretches His Victory String to Five.

The veteran Alfred Robertson, who had run into unexpectedly stern competition from the younger jockies at Washington Park, finally succeeded yesterday in pushing his way through the Paul Ryans, Sammy Roberts, and Irving Andersons to a place where all could see and a goodly number could collect.

When yesterday's program at the Homewood track was completed, Robertson had an unfinished run of five straight winners spread over a two day period. He added Jean Cloud, in the first; Tiger, in the third, and Wise Duke, in the fifth, to a winner list which included Hardware and Hi-Well in the seventh and eighth Wednesday.

Victory by Two Lengths.

Robertson brought the Milky Way farm's Tiger, badly beaten as the favorite in the Prairie State stakes last Saturday, back at the same odds, 3 to 5, to win the Wildwood purse by two lengths yesterday. Tiger sprinted the 5½ furlongs in :59 2-5, just one-fifth of a second off the track record. Roy T. finished second and Radio Charm third. Tiger paid $3.40, $2.40, and $2.20.

Robertson made sure the son of Bull Dog-Starless Moment didn't repeat the mistake which cost him the Prairie State. Leading in that stake, Tiger ran out to finish next to last. Yesterday Robertson kept his mount close to the rail on the turn and sent him into the stretch still in possession of his two length lead. He was not challenged in the run home.

In Front All the Way.

Robertson, under contract to the Milky Way farms, had Jean Cloud, second choice at 3 to 1, in front all the way to win the opening event by a length over Cross Keys. Pedant was third. The winner paid $7.80.

Then, after making it four straight with Tiger, Robertson completed his day's work by driving Wise Duke to a three length triumph over Slim Rosie in the fifth.

The American record for consecutive winners is held by Jocky Albert Adams, who rode nine in a row at the Marlboro track in Maryland in 1930. Adams won the last two races on the afternoon of Sept. 10, took six the next day and one the following afternoon before being beaten.

The world's record, twelve in a row, is held by Gordon Richards, who has been England's leading jocky nine times in the last eleven years. He set the mark in 1933.

Jocky Willie [Smoky] Saunders, who rode Omaha to victory in the 1935 Kentucky Derby, is expected at Washington Park this week and will be in action at the track for the balance of the meeting. Saunders will do much of the riding for the Hal Price Headley stable.

Jocky Hernani Mora, the Panama lad, brought Hour Zev from nowhere and just missed getting home first in the second race yesterday, but in so doing brought down upon himself a ten day suspension for rough riding. He joins Jack Westrope, Henry Hauer, Paul Keester, and George Dobson on the ground.

Texas Senate Votes to Kill Race Betting

The action quickly drew from Raymond R. Russell, president of Alamo Downs track at San Antonio, the cry: "I feel I've been hi-jacked. There goes half a million dollars."

The senate passed, 17 to 14, a bill repealing the law which four years ago legalized pari-mutuel wagers. Then it clinched the matter by refusing to reconsider. Previously at this special legislative session, called specifically by Gov. James V. Allred to outlaw gambling on races, the house had approved the repeal measure, 115 to 21. Now it must pass the repealer again, probably tomorrow, because the senate voted its own bill.

"We thought the repeal bill was beaten. I'd much rather they'd throw a gun on me and take my money instead of letting me build an expensive racing plant and then take away all means of making a dividend on it."

Because the bill obtained less than a two-thirds senate majority it could not become effective until 90 days after the end of the session.

Anti-repeal leaders argued it was wrong to kill betting at the tracks and allow bookies and dog tracks to continue operations, and denounced Gov. Allred as having a tremendous "love of power."

Time, :24, :47 4-5, 1:01. Two dollar mutuels paid: Jean Cloud, $7.80 straight, $3.40 place, $2.80 show; Cross Keys, $4.00 place, $3.20 show; Pedant, $10.20 show. Winner trained by J. Lowenstein. Went to post at 2:17. At post 1¼ minutes.

JEAN CLOUD, quick to begin and sent into command under mild pressure, was steadied on the stretch turn and, after slightly increasing her advantage when approaching the final eighth, had to be shaken up to hold CROSS KEYS safe. Latter, probably much the best, raced into a contending position on the outside in the first three-sixteenths, ran out badly on the stretch turn and persisted in bearing over when closing with a rush in the last three-sixteenths. PEDANT, a sharp factor from the start, was racing gamely when slightly impeded by CROSS KEYS in the last eighth.

SECOND RACE—Three-quarter mile. Purse $1,000. Net value to winner, $700; second, $150; third, $100; fourth, $50.

Time, :23 1-5, :47 3-5, 1:13 1-5. Two dollar mutuels paid: Parva Stella, $10.00 straight, $5.00 place, $3.60 show; Hour Zev, $48.00 place, $32.40 show; Sky Cloud, $9.20 show. Winner trained by W. Lord. Went to post at 2:46. At post 3½ minutes.

PARVA STELLA, receiving a hustling ride and withstanding JASCHA'S early challenge, swerved out slightly on the stretch turn and, holding on stubbornly when straightened up for the final three-sixteenths, stalled off SKY CLOUD and withstood HOUR ZEV'S rush. Latter, forced to race wide throughout, dropped back as if through soon after reaching the stretch, but came again and finished fastest of all though bearing over. SKY CLOUD, kept up in close quarters on the inside, stood a long drive gamely.

TIGER took command with a rush, swerved out slightly in the middle of the turn but was quickly returned to the inside and, opening up a commanding lead when approaching the final eighth, won in hand. ROY T., under light restraint for about three-eighths, closed in determined fashion. RADIO CHARM, away in a tangle and rushed in the early stages, was taken under restraint as he attempted to swerve in the stretch, and might have been more of a factor had he not prevented his rider from doing him justice in the late stages.

MOON HARVEST opened up a commanding lead in the first quarter, was steadied on the turn and, continuing well without need of strong pressure in the stretch, held sway to win with something left. AIRLAP, a prominent factor from the start and brought out slightly in the last three-eighths, held on courageously in the drive. MY ELSIE, away in a tangle, moved up gradually when securing room on the inside, but weakened near the end.

Time, :22 3-5, :46 3-5, 1:11 2-5. Two dollar mutuels paid: Wise Duke, $4.40 straight, $3.20 place, $2.80 show; Slim Rosie, $5.60 place, $4.20 show; Marcabala, $4.40 show. Winner trained by S. W. Ward. Went to post at 4:17. Off at once.

WISE DUKE, under stout restraint when following the early leaders, was rushed to the front on inside entering the stretch and, drawing into safe command, won well in hand. SLIM ROSIE had fine speed from the start, swerved out on the stretch turn and held on well while continuing to race wide thereafter. MARCABALA had speed from the start, was forced wide by SLIM ROSIE in the final five-sixteenths and also fought it out with good courage to the end.

LADY BRIAR, taken back repeatedly as she failed to get through on the inside the first three-quarters, came strongly when securing room on the inside in the stretch and was up in the final stride. THINK FAST, probably best but receiving a badly judged ride, was rushed into an unnecessarily long lead on the stretch turn, swerved out in the final quarter and, weakly handled near the end, failed to last. CHILKAT, never a great distance back and raced wide, moved up boldly on the stretch turn and held on gamely.

SEVENTH RACE—One mile. Four year olds and up. Claiming. Purse $1,000. Net value to winner, $700; second, $150; third, $100; fourth, $50.

Time, :23 4-5, :47 2-5, 1:13 2-5, 1:39 1-5. Two dollar mutuels paid: Amijo, $7.60 straight, $4.60 place, $3.40 show; Mr. Joe, $9.80 place, $5.60 show; Our David, $4.80 show. Winner trained by C. Howard. Went to post at 5:16½. At post ⅓ minute. Start good. Won easily, place driving.

AMIJO, on the inside early but taken out after reaching the final half mile, began to pick up his field rapidly when approaching the stretch, overtook OUR DAVID with a rush when straight in the final quarter and drew out in the last eighth. MR. JOE, never far back and forced to lose ground, came with renewed effort in the final eighth and was going strongest of all at the end. OUR DAVID, on the inside throughout and rated under steady restraint for five-eighths, weakened after drawing into a long lead.

With an even start, the wheel at the right spins longer than the one of same weight at the left. Reason: weight is placed away from center. Wilson's patented weight-away-from-center construction gives the new Hol-Hi K-28 fly-wheel action, obtainable in no other golf ball.
Result: better control of over-spin and back-spin—in the scoring zone*; longer, truer rolling putts—greater direction-holding over-spin on pitch and run shots. More effective ground-biting back-spin on green-carrying approaches. More "carry" on Tee, Brassie and Spoon shots. Be sure to spin the Fly-Wheel Demonstrator at your professional's, or the Wilson dealer's. It shows the difference!

FEDERAL POWER PLAN ASSAILED AS DESTRUCTIVE

Utility Men Fight Political Rule.

P. H. Gadsden.

The Norris bill was attacked by P. H. Gadsden, chairman of the committee of utility executives, in a prepared statement. He was here for the convention, where speakers also questioned the government's power plan. These speakers included Charles W. Kellogg, president of the institute, which represents the power and light industry in this country; W. C. Mullendore, executive vice president of the Southern California Edison company, and Dr. Gus W. Dyer, professor of economics at Vanderbilt university.

Termed Step in Destruction.

The Norris bill, said Gadsden, is the fourth of a series of steps to destroy the private electric industry and wipe out billions of dollars of private investments. The other three steps, he said, were: Creation of the TVA in May, 1933; the "employment relief" policy of making gifts to municipalities for electric plants, and the holding company act, with its "death sentence."

"Stripped of its constitutional window dressing—such as navigation and flood control—Senator Norris' bill would result in 'TVA multiplied by eight,'" said Gadsden. "The four year record of TVA itself is the only yardstick by which we can judge the effect of this program. In view of that record the inevitable conclusion is that this is a scheme to create a vast superpower system, blanketing the nation, owned by the government, and controled by politicians."

"At Mercy of Politicians."

It would result, Gadsden said, in duplication of existing power facilities and place 250,000 employés of the utility industry at the mercy of politicians for their jobs.

"It is axiomatic that the mistakes and sins of capitalism are self-liquidating under the natural operation of economic laws," he asserted. "It is equally axiomatic that the sins and mistakes of burocracy and politicians are self-perpetuating."

Kellogg declared that government propaganda has magnified the power issue out of all proportion to its relative economic importance, and then proceeded to point out fallacies in the government's reasons for publicly owned power systems: namely, to reduce cost and bolster power supply.

Comparison of Costs.

"The electric bill is about 2 per cent of the average family budget, while taxes are about 14 times as large an item," he said. "If power cost nothing, rates for the average household could be only slightly affected." He pointed out that service costs are much larger than the cost of raw power.

"The federal government's power policy has resulted in the production of far more power than is needed for public consumption in the areas adjacent to its dams," said Kellogg. "It has been attempted to justify this by a cry of 'power shortage.' At the very time this 'power shortage' propaganda was promulgated the industry had an excess over even normal reserve requirements of about 4,000,000 kilowatts."

Spending Much More.

Kellogg estimated construction expenditures by the power and light industry in 1937 at $475,000,000, compared with $290,000,000 in 1936. The major part will be for distribution facilities, with generating facilities representing less than a quarter of the total.

Dyer, who spoke at the annual dinner last night and comes from the TVA area, said that since private and municipal ownership of electric utilities began in 1882 there were 3,938 municipal plants established, of which 2,068, or more than half, of the municipal government plants were later sold or abandoned. Of the 1,849 government plants that continued in business, 949, or more than half, buy all of their supply of electric power from privately owned plants.

Cook County's Auto Sales Rise as Strikes End

With handicaps resulting from strikes largely removed, sales of automobiles at retail in Cook county bounded during May and the total of 14,518 was the largest for May and the third largest for any month in history.

Sales in May, 1929, totaled 14,263, while sales in May, 1932, at the depth of the depression, totaled only 4,301. In May, 1936, sales totaled 13,867 and in April of this year they totaled 13,512.

Ford led the field with a total of 2,942 cars sold. It also held first place in April. In May, 1936, it was in second place with sales of 2,566.

Chevrolet Is Second.

Chevrolet, whose sales have been affected to some extent by strikes at various plants, was in second place with a total of 1,947. In April it also was in second place on a total of 2,289. In May, 1936, it held first place with a total of 2,702.

Plymouth jumped from sixth place in April to third place in May with a total of 1,791 as the effect of strikes at its plants largely vanished. Dodge, which was in seventh place in April, climbed to fourth place in May with a total of 1,329.

Pontiac dropped from third place in April to fifth place in May with a total of 1,297 sales. Oldsmobile dropped back a place, standing sixth, although sales totaled 1,051 cars compared with 991 in April.

Comparative Figures.

SET NATIONAL RECORDS.

Detroit, Mich., June 3.—[Special.]—Retail sales by members of the Automobile Manufacturers' association in the first four months of 1937 totaled 1,502,963 units, largest for the first four months of any year in the history of the industry, Alfred Reeves, general manager of the association, announced at the annual meeting here today.

The previous high mark for the period was 1,480,031 units in 1931. Sales for the first four months of 1936 were 1,322,952 units. The association includes all major producers except Ford.

Factory sales of 100,508 trucks in the United States and Canada in April also was a new record, Reeves said. April retail sales of motor vehicles in the United States were 459,780 units, against 482,135 in March and 457,314 in April, 1936.

GEORGE WHITNEY OF MORGAN FIRM IS OPERATED ON

New York, June 3.—(AP)—George Whitney, since 1920 a partner of J. P. Morgan & Co., underwent an operation for appendicitis today at Columbia Presbyterian Medical center and tonight was doing well, according to associates.

In recent years Whitney, who is 51 years old, has shouldered more and more of the burdens of Morgan & Co. while J. P. Morgan, who is 70, has been hampered by illness.

A heart ailment prevented Mr. Morgan from attending the coronation after he went to England to see it. He recovered sufficiently to start home but went to bed immediately upon embarking on the Queen Mary, which is to dock here on Monday. Tonight he still was bedfast.

BANK CLEARINGS DIP 4.8 PER CENT FROM YEAR AGO

New York, June 3.—[Special.]—Bank clearings in 22 leading cities totaled $5,276,296,000 in the week ended June 2, a decline of 4.8 per cent from $5,541,939,000 in the same week last year, Dun & Bradstreet reported today. The figures covered a five day week in both years, shortened by the Memorial day holiday. In the preceding week clearings in the same cities were 12 per cent above those of a year ago.

The New York City total was $3,304,945,000, a decline of 10.8 per cent from $3,704,025,000 in the same 1936 week. The total at other cities was $1,971,351,000, a gain of 7.3 per cent.

Clearings at Chicago amounted to $301,300,000, an increase of 4.3 per cent over $288,900,000 last year.

Railroads Used as Footballs, Joyce Asserts

Washington, D. C., June 3.—(AP)—President Patrick H. Joyce of the Chicago, Great Western railroad told senate investigators today that the nation's railways "are being used as a football by holding companies and everybody else." He asserted that if congress "is able to stop it, it will accomplish a job nobody else ever has."

Joyce testified before the senate railroad finance committee that he was "not trying to stop" any constructive legislation which might result from its inquiry, but would "be glad to see it."

"We should have 30 per cent more people working for the railroads today," he declared. "And why don't we have them? Because we are crucified for bad management whenever we spend a little money."

Irked by Senator Truman.

He made his statement with considerable heat after Acting Chairman Truman [D., Mo.] had remarked:

"I think that wholly owned subsidiaries are just as bad for the railways as holding companies are for the carriers and the public utilities."

Joyce agreed that in some circumstances the subsidiaries were "bad for the railroads." He pleaded for government coöperation in helping the carriers solve their difficulties.

Committee experts had criticized a 1930 transaction in which the Chicago, Great Western had supplied $250,000 to a subsidiary, the Mason City and Fort Dodge railroad, which used the money to buy up the parent firm's preferred stock.

Asks About Stock Purchase.

"Don't you think it is unsound for a railroad to buy its own stock, even through a subsidiary?" asked Committee Counsel Max Lowenthal.

"Not altogether," Joyce replied. "It is perfectly all right if it is done for the purpose of reducing the lines' capital structure."

He explained the intention was to buy up the stock at what he considered were bargain prices and cancel it, thus lessening the road's capital burden.

"I never was in 100 per cent agreement with my board. It was a quarrel at every meeting."

Reveal Van Sweringen Loans.

The investigating committee received evidence that the Chicago syndicate which controls the Great Western had received "powerful support" during the depression from the Van Sweringen interests.

Richard O'Hara, a leader of the syndicate, testified that he had asked the late O. P. Van Sweringen for help the day after the 1929 market crash, and promptly received a $1,000,000 loan.

This sum later was increased to nearly $4,000,000. The syndicate—known as Bremo corporation—put up 128,000 shares of Great Western stock as security.

Wholesale Commodity Price Index Unchanged

Washington, D. C., June 3.—[Special.]—The bureau of labor statistics announced today that its wholesale commodity price index stood at 87.4 per cent of the 1926 average on May 29, no change from the week before.

SENATOR CHARGES SPEYER & CO. LOOTED FRISCO RAILROAD

Washington, D. C., June 3.—[Special.]—Charges involving the financial activities of members of J. P. Morgan & Co., officials of the Guaranty company, Speyer & Co., J. and W. Seligman & Co., Richard Whitney, former president of the New York Stock exchange, and Harvey Couch, a former member of the Reconstruction Finance corporation, were made from the floor of the senate today by Senator Harry S. Truman of Missouri, acting chairman of the sub-committee of the committee on interstate commerce.

"When one of these great transportation companies fails," said Senator Truman, "lawyers and investment bankers sit around like vultures at the death of an elephant. When the receivership comes, they get all the flesh and the stockholders and the public get the bones. In instances reorganizations have only been the forerunners of new receiverships and new bone-pickings."

"The looting of the St. Louis-San Francisco railroad by Speyer & Co. is a glaring example. Between November, 1929, and April, 1930, Speyer & Co. bought 25,000 shares of Gulf, Mobile and Northern stock for $951,000. On Dec. 9, 1930, when the board ratified the purchase of the stock, it was worth about one-third what Speyer & Co. paid for it. If they kept the stock Speyer stood to lose $607,000. More than a year after the transaction they claimed they had made the purchase for the St. Louis and San Francisco. If the market had gone up as much as it went down would the Frisco railway have participated in the profits? I leave you to draw your own conclusions."

SANITARY BOARD VOTES TO RETIRE $2,018,000 BONDS

Redemption July 1 of $2,018,000 of series B refunding bonds of the Chicago sanitary district was voted yesterday by the board of trustees. The board also appropriated $2,763,565 for payment of interest due July 1 on the A and B bonds.

The trustees opened bids yesterday on construction work to be done at the southwest sewage treatment plant. The lowest of nine bids for construction of a substructure and frame work of an incinerator building was submitted by Jacobson Brothers, general contractors, amounting to $492,501. A low bid of $520,692 was submitted for furnishing and installing sludge drying equipment by the Combustion Engineering company.

Link Belt company entered the low bid of $251,296 for installation of coal and ash equipment. Contracts are expected to be awarded at the next meeting of the trustees.

Nash Reports Big Gain in May Auto Shipments

A total of 9,173 automobiles was shipped by the Nash Motors company in May, an increase of 127 per cent over shipments in May, 1936, the company announced yesterday.

Field Estate Moves to Get Post Building

Federal Judge Philip L. Sullivan is expected to rule today on a move by the Marshall Field estate to take possession of the Chicago Evening Post building, now occupied by the Daily Times, at 211 West Wacker drive.

The Field estate, owner of the ground under the building which was leased for 99 years to the Chicago Evening Post Building corporation, is seeking to terminate the lease and take possession of the building for nonpayment of rent.

The property has been in financial difficulty for several years. First reorganized in September, 1933, the building corporation filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy on Jan. 25, 1937. According to its petition, liabilities totaled $1,800,000 in bonded indebtedness and $103,000 in back taxes. Since then back taxes have risen to an amount in excess of $150,000.

The Field estate served notice on the building corporation some time ago that the lease was being terminated for nonpayment of rent. No rent has been paid since Jan. 1, 1937. The estate also notified tenants of the building corporation, including the Daily Times, listed as sub-tenants, of termination of the lease.

Lack of Funds Stumbling Block.

Peter B. Carey, former president of the Chicago Board of Trade, is trustee for the property for which a new reorganization is reported to have been sought. The problem of raising sufficient funds to pay the back taxes has been a stumbling block.

Federal Master in Chancery Wallace Streeter, after an examination of the affairs of the property, recommended the lease be terminated. His report is scheduled to come up for review today by Judge Sullivan.

The Post building is 19 stories high and was completed in 1928 at a cost reported to have exceeded $3,000,000.

BOCKSTAHLER NEW HEAD OF KEESHIN LINES

Walter Bockstahler, for many years prominent in railroad freight operations, has been elected president of the Keeshin Transcontinental Freight Lines, Inc., J. L. Keeshin, recently elected chairman of the board and of the executive committee of the motor truck system, announced yesterday.

Bockstahler was with the Universal Carloading company for twelve years, later served for two years as assistant to Joseph B. Eastman, when Eastman was federal transportation coordinator, and for the last year has been merchandise trafic manager for the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. He is a former president of the New York Trafic club, and is a director of the Associated Trafic clubs.

Maurice E. Sheahan, former controler of the Keeshin organization, was elected vice president and treasurer.

U. S. WORRIED BY 12 BILLION HOARD OF GOLD

Steady Inflow May Bring Crisis.

BY THOMAS FURLONG.

America's supply of monetary gold yesterday passed the 12 billion dollar mark as foreigners continued to rush metal to this country for fear that the treasury may soon be forced to withdraw its price of $35 an ounce to all comers. The treasury's daily statement disclosed that the country's total holdings now stand at $12,025,000,000, the greatest hoard of the metal that any nation has ever acquired and considerably more than half of the estimated world supply of monetary gold.

The continuing growth in the swollen gold reserves of the country is believed to forecast a crisis in government monetary policy. For weeks rumors have been circulating throughout world markets that the United States was preparing to reduce the $35 price established in January, 1934, when the dollar was revalued at 59.06 per cent of its old gold parity.

Rumors Refuse to Down.

The rumors, though repeatedly denied by government officials from President Roosevelt down, have continued and it is now believed the administration is being rapidly forced into a position where it will have to take some step to shut off the flow of the metal to this country.

Reports were widely circulated yesterday that the American treasury was preparing to make a statement on the gold question and possibly a joint statement would be forthcoming from this country, Britain, and France. This was promptly denied in Washington. "There is nothing imminent," said Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau.

Although an immediate reduction in the price is considered unlikely because the administration must save face, it is believed by economists that ultimately a price reduction will be resorted to of necessity. In the meantime there is discussion of the possibility of the United States calling a world conference of gold producing countries to limit the output which has been greatly stimulated by America's generous purchase policy.

Question Value of Move.

The efficacy of such a move is questioned because of the probable unwillingness of Russia to enter any such agreement. Russia's emergence as the world's second gold producing nation is one of the developments which has been brought about by the American policy.

Millions of dollars worth of Russian gold has found its way into the American treasury in recent months via London. There is no visible prospect of a letup in the flow of the metal to the United States. Rather, it is held, foreigners will continue to sell all the gold they can command as long as the artificially high price is maintained by the American treasury.

50 Millions Arrive Last Week.

The report of the treasury yesterday showed that approximately 50 millions of gold have been received by this country in the last week. Imports in the last six months have totaled approximately 800 million dollars and in the last year have amounted to twice that figure, or 1 billion 600 million.

Gold reserves of central banks in the 52 principal nations of the world at the end of 1936 were estimated at nearly 22 billion dollars. The United states then held half of the world supply and has increased its share since.

Started by Devaluation.

The figure of $12,025,000,000 for gold holdings shown in the treasury statement was as of Tuesday, June 1. The weekly statement of the federal reserve system showed holdings of $12,027,000,000 as of June 2.

The recent spurt in gold imports is merely a continuation of a movement that has been under way since the Roosevelt dollar devaluation and

3 Firms Plan 130 Millions in New Issues

Washington, D. C., June 3.—[Special.]—Issues exceeding $130,000,000 were filed today with the Securities and Exchange commission. The largest amount was accounted for by the Union Electric Company of Missouri, subsidiary of the North American company. It filed a statement covering $80,000,000 of first mortgage and collateral trust bonds, 3¾ per cent series, due 1962, and $15,000,000 of 3 per cent notes due 1942.

Plan Debentures and Stock.

The New York Telephone company filed a statement covering $25,000,000 of refunding mortgage 3¼ per cent bonds, series B, due July 1, 1967, and Standard Brands, Inc., of New York, filed a similar statement covering the issuance of 200,000 shares of no par value cumulative preferred stock.

Union Electric said the new securities are to be registered under the securities act of 1933 prior to their public offering, the commission has set June 21 for a hearing on the applications.

Proceeds will be used to refund $63,667,000 principal amount of general mortgage bonds, to acquire $22,000,000 principal amount of first mortgage bonds of Union Electric company of Illinois, and for extension and improvement of plants and properties.

Proceeds for Redemption.

Net proceeds from the sale of the $25,000,000 New York Telephone bonds will be applied to the redemption of the company's outstanding issue of the same amount in 6½ per cent cumulative preferred stock which has been called for redemption July 15 at 110 per cent and accrued dividends.

The registration statement of Standard Brands said that $8,700,000 of the net proceeds will be used to pay the principal of temporary bank loans incurred May 6, as follows: Bankers Trust company, $2,000,000; J. P. Morgan & Co., $2,000,000; Guaranty Trust company, $2,000,000; New York Trust company, $1,000,000; Central Hanover Bank and Trust company, $1,000,000, and the Chase National Bank of the City of New York, $700,000. Interest on the loans will be paid from other cash of the company.

STRIKES REDUCE STEEL OUTPUT TO 77.5% CAPACITY

Strikes in the Youngstown, Chicago, and Cleveland-Lorain districts resulted in a decline in steel ingot production this week to 77½ per cent of plant capacity, the lowest operating rate for the industry this year, the magazine Iron Age estimated yesterday. This compares with a revised figure of 85 per cent for last week.

The Youngstown district was hardest hit, with operations estimated at 45 per cent of capacity, compared with 84 before the strike. The Cleveland-Lorain district declined from 80 to 55 per cent, and the Chicago area from 86 to 63 per cent of capacity.

There has been some diversion of orders from companies affected by strikes to those that are not, Iron Age said. A Chicago company whose plants are operating had the largest volume of business this week of the last two months.

N. Y. STOCK LIST'S MARKET VALUE DIPS 600 MILLION

New York, June 3.—(AP)—The value of stocks listed on the New York Stock exchange declined more than $600,000,000 in May, the exchange reported today.

As of June 1 there were 1,230 stock issues aggregating 1,389,161,194 shares with a market value of $57,328,818,936. NEW FINANCING OF U. S. SET AT $800,000,000

Includes Half Billion 'New Money.'

Washington, D. C., June 3.—[Special.]—Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau today disclosed plans for the treasury's June 15 financing before the opening of the market when he announced that it will offer on Monday $800,000,000 of notes. The interest rate and other details are to be disclosed at the time of the offering.

Secretary Morgenthau

The purpose of the issue is to meet a maturity of $300,000,000 in discount bills which fall due on June 15 and to increase the government's working cash fund. The balance of $500,000,000 of the offering will be turned over to the working fund.

Boost Debt to New Peak.

With this issue of notes the nation's debt will stand at approximately 35 billion 700 million dollars, a new all time peak. The total debt will be approximately $700,000,000 more than was estimated in the January budget.

Because of its heavy disbursements, the treasury's working balance for the last few weeks has stood at about $500,000,000. The proceeds from the sale of the new notes will increase it to one billion dollars.

Morgenthau sometime ago said that he desired to keep the working balance at a level of about 1 billion dollars because of the unsettled conditions overseas.

New Money for Gold.

It is indicated that a considerable part of the new money borrowed is being obtained for the purpose of making large purchases of gold if necessary in connection with the administration's gold sterilization policy. Under this policy the treasury borrows money with which to buy gold. It is explained that by this procedure foreign gold is prevented from increasing the domestic credit supply and thereby the administration is able to put a damper on inflationary credit expansion.

In the past, the treasury paid for gold by issuing currency against it. This increased the supply of money available for loans in this country and constituted an inflationary instrument.

James Landis Reappointed Security Board Chairman

Washington, D. C., June 3.—(AP)—James M. Landis of Massachusetts was renamed chairman of the Securities and Exchange commission by President Roosevelt today. Landis' present term expires June 6. He will serve until fall when he returns to Harvard as dean of the law school. The President also sent to the senate the reappointment of T. D. Webb of Tennessee, as a member of the federal home loan bank board.

New York Stocks.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, June 3.—[Special.]—Recovering from early losses, prices on the stock exchange today came back to close with gains slightly outnumbering losses. Railroad and steel shares, which had suffered most, led the recovery. Trading was slow throughout the session, with transactions totaling 549,300 shares.

The market was affected little by either the partial announcement of the treasury's tax date financing or by the record-breaking sale of gold taking place in London. Among retarding factors, brokers said, was continuance of the steel strike.

U. S. Steel jumped up more than a point from its low and closed a fraction higher. Bethlehem acted in similar fashion. Other steel shares, including companies affected by labor disputes, worked fractionally higher.

Rails arrested their downhill course despite estimates that car loadings last week advanced only fractionally from the preceding week. Freight trafic this week will be curtailed by the Memorial day holiday.

Atchison was a bright spot, rising a point. Other carriers moved in a fractional range, with plus signs slightly in the majority.

There was little of interest in the utility division, although American Telephone attracted some attention. President Roosevelt's message to congress asking for additional TVA power developments had but slight effect.

In the aviations Douglas added another 1½ points to yesterday's gain. Other aviations were fractionally higher.

Coppers found support just under their previous closing levels. Oils were mixed, but the group enjoyed considerable activity. Mail order and rubber shares worked slightly higher.

New York Bonds.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, June 3.—The long awaited announcement by Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau of the amount of the government's June borrowing was anything but inspiring to the market for federal bonds today. The trading volume in those issues was less than half that of the preceding day and prices closed slightly higher.

The disclosure that the treasury will offer $800,000,000 in notes for cash came as no great surprise to the financial community, which had anticipated a note issue in preference to a longer term bond flotation.

The market for corporate bonds turned highly irregular and the trading period ended with gains and losses about evenly divided. Declines, however, proved more conspicuous because of their extent among the local traction issues and a few lower grade bonds.

In the railroad list the bonds of New Haven settled back somewhat from the sharp rally of the preceding day and declines of 1 to 4¾ points were shown in those issues. Except for these movements, prices throughout the corporate section held within comparatively narrow limits.

Foreign dollar bonds, under the leadership of Japanese and Polish obligations, were generally higher.

Chicago Stocks.

Stocks on the Chicago board continued weak and inactive locally yesterday. Adams Royalty and Borg-Warner made sizable gains in fairly active trading. Adams Royalty closed 1⅛ points higher at 11⅛, and Borg-Warner advanced 1¼ to 46. Cities Service rose ⅛ and other market leaders, such as Central and South West Utilities common, Chicago corporation common, and Middle West, closed lower.

Bank Stocks.

Chicago bank stocks were irregular yesterday in over-counter dealings. Continental Illinois rose 50 cents, while First National was unchanged. Gains of $5 a share were recorded by American National and Harris Trust, while Chicago Title improved $3 and City National $1. Losses of $5 were shown in Merchandise National, National Boulevard, and National Builders.

Commodities

Heavy selling of rubber futures by both European and North American traders yesterday forced the price of rubber sharply downward in leading markets of the world. Rubber futures in New York declined to the lowest levels in five months as most contracts finished well under 20 cents a pound.

The decline in the futures market ranged between 0.65 and 0.70 cents a pound and the market was very weak at the close. Sales aggregated 494 lots of 22,400 pounds each, a substantial volume, while heavy offerings of rubber for immediate delivery forced the cash price down to 19.60 cents a pound.

Other commodities also moved lower. American metal markets were influenced by weakness in London, attributed to continued uncertainty as to international gold policies and the persistent labor troubles in the United States. Favorable weather reports caused some selling of cotton.

Hides dipped 0.15 to 0.17 cent a pound, cocoa finished unchanged to two points lower. Sugar contracts moved against the trend by scoring advances of a few points.

Grain.

Grain prices fluctuated uncertainly yesterday on the Chicago market, and closed generally lower. Wheat finished ⅝ cent lower to ⅛ cent higher, corn lost ½ to 1⅝ cents, oats were unchanged to ⅝ cent lower, and rye broke 2 to 4⅞ cents.

While declines were small they were sufficient to carry December wheat and corn, September and December oats and rye, and October and December soy beans to new low levels for the season. Volume of trading was moderate with total transactions well below those of the preceding day.

Domestic crop news helped exert a reactionary influence on prices as reports were favorable on growing conditions. From Oklahoma, where harvesting is under way, came reports of better yields. Kansas reported conditions were improved.

Favorable crop news coupled with reports that Argentina is shipping nearly 6,000,000 bushels more corn to this country, were largely responsible for weakness in September and December corn.

Live Stock.

Further concessions by packers in wholesale markets for fresh pork caused another break in hog prices yesterday. Pork in Chicago sold weak to $1.00 per hundred pounds lower, while declines at eastern distributing points amounted to $1.00 to $2.00, with clearance unsatisfactory.

Hogs declined mostly 5 to 15 cents to the lowest levels since middle of last month. Top sales of selected 210 to 250 pound butchers sank 10 cents at $11.65, but it was difficult to sell above $11.45 later in the day. The average price for the session declined 5 cents at $11.05, strength in most classes of sows offsetting part of the loss in better grades.

Additional advances were registered in slaughter lambs, the bulk selling 10 to 25 cents higher than on the preceding session. Selected native new crop stock sold to city butchers up to $13.00 and to packers up to $12.50. The first Idaho range lambs of the season brought $12.25.

With the exception of medium to heavy steers which were weak to 25 cents lower there was a stronger undercurrent in the trade for cattle. Most yearlings and handyweight steers were fully steady, while cheaper grades ruled strong to slightly higher.

Top loads were sold at $14.25, and the bulk at $10.00 to $12.65.

More action developed in beef cows at steady to slightly higher levels. Hefers, canners, and cutters held firm. Bulls and calves advanced 15 to 25 cents.

Butter and Eggs.

Government support of the Chicago egg market yesterday erased an early decline which had carried futures to the lowest levels since 1934, and the close was ⅛ cent above Wednesday's finish. Federal agents purchased 24,000 dozen of storage packed firsts in the cash market, the first buying since early in the year, when 8,345,000 dozen were bought in an effort to stem an abnormally sharp decline in prices. Cash eggs were irregular.

November butter closed ⅛ cent lower at 31¼ cents a pound. Receipts were almost double those of a year ago. Cash butter was unchanged.

More on Preferred Stock.

Preferred stockholders of a corporation usually have no voice in the management of the company, although there are many exceptions to this. The voting privilege normally belongs to common stockholders. The conditions under which preferred stockholders can vote are specified in an agreement at the time the stock is issued.

In the case of cumulative preferred stock, the voting privilege is usually given equally or exclusively to preferred stockholders if a specified number of quarterly dividend payments are not paid. This privilege usually continues until the back dividends have been disbursed. Some corporations give preferred stockholders an equal vote with common share owners, but usually the common vote exceeds the preferred and thus has control.

Another difference between common and preferred stock is that the preferred is frequently redeemable at a certain predetermined price—usually above par—at any time on reasonable notice by directors of the company.

While the preferred has prior rights over the common it is subsidiary to any funded debt, such as notes, bonds, or debentures.

Frequently there is more than one class of preferred stock. Many companies, principally utilities, employ this type of capitalization. A concern might have a prior lien preferred, 7 per cent first preferred, 7 per cent second preferred, 6 per cent preferred, and so on. The relative rights of the various classes of stock, their ranking one ahead of the other and their participation in assets and dividends, are all specified in the indentures or agreements under which the stocks are issued.

U. S. Gold Stocks

Shown above is a record of the growth of the United States monetary gold supply since 1929. By raising the price of gold from $20.67 to $35 an ounce in 1934 the Roosevelt administration wrote up the value of the government's gold by approximately 60 per cent and started a flow of the metal to this country that has grown in volume ever since.

U. S. WORRIED BY 12 BILLION HOARD OF GOLD

Steady Inflow Brings Fear of Price Cut.

the establishment of the new price for the metal. In January, 1934, the country's gold holdings, valued in terms of the new dollar, amounted to $6,829,000,000. In December of the same year they exceeded 8 billion dollars. In December, 1935, they topped 10 billions and reached $11,258,000,000 at the close of last year. In 1929 the United States had only $3,900,000,000 of gold, measured in terms of the old dollar.

Export Private Hoards.

Recent shipments of gold to this country have been made not so much at the expense of the gold reserves of foreign central banks but from private hoards in Europe and elsewhere and from Russia. Foreigners who sought to insulate themselves from the effects of the uncertain monetary policies of their countries by transferring their capital into gold are now stampeding in reverse.

If any loss is to be taken by a reduction in the gold price, they prefer that the United States treasury should take it. The treasury itself is in the delicate position of not wanting all the gold in the world but not being willing to accept a loss on its vast holdings by slashing the price.

Any progress toward world monetary stability that may have been promised by the agreement entered into last September by this country, France, and Great Britain, is placed in jeopardy by the continued accumulation of gold here. If gold is to be the basis of permanent monetary stability, economists assert, it cannot be brought about by one country's gaining a monopoly on the metal. There is the possibility, foreigners point out with something of a threatening note, that the rest of the world may learn to do without gold and leave this country to make what use it may of it.

Additional Gold Bought.

After the issuance of the treasury's statement the Federal Reserve Bank of New York reported additional gold purchases abroad, the largest for any single day in recent weeks. At the same time foreign currencies showed a general recession in the exchange market in terms of the dollar.

The reserve bank reported the purchase of $10,753,000 of gold in England and an additional $5,250,000 in Japan for shipment to this country. The London purchases brought the total for the last three days to nearly $40,000,000.

The British pound dropped ⅜ cent to $4.92½ in exchange transactions, and the French franc lost .005 cent to close at 4.45 cents. Other foreign moneys showed comparable losses.

London dispatches reported gold coming out of hoarding at the fastest rate yet seen. Since Saturday an estimated $8,500,000 has found its way into the London market from private hoards.

VALUE OF MAY LIVE STOCK RUN BEST IN 6 YEARS

Despite the fact that farmers last month marketed the smallest May supply of live stock on record at Chicago, they received more money than in any corresponding month in six years, valuation figures at the stock yards disclosed yesterday. The 593,237 cattle, calves, hogs, sheep, and lambs received were valued at $20,103,000, an increase of $803,000 over the May, 1936 value, and $5,914,000 more than in 1932, the low time of the depression.

Cattlemen obtained $12,516,000 for cattle and calves, compared with $11,249,000 last year and a depression low for May of $8,749,000 in 1932. Sheep and lambs brought $1,782,000 compared with $1,299,000 in 1936 and a low of $1,245,000 in 1934.

Hogs were the only class that returned less money than a year ago, due to the extremely low volume of receipts rather than a decline in the price. Hog returns were $5,805,000 compared with $6,752,000 in May last year and a low of $4,095,000 five years ago.

In the first five months a total of 3,811,007 cattle, calves, hogs, sheep, and lambs valued at $120,856,000 was received at the yards, compared with 3,547,775 head worth $103,914,000 a year ago, and 4,139,634 head worth $104,952,000 two years ago.

New Orleans Cotton, Naval Stores Markets Closed

60 MILLION DROP RECORDED IN IDLE FUNDS OF BANKS

Money in Circulation Up 88 Millions.

An expansion in money in circulation and greater employment of bank funds in New York last week resulted in a shrinkage of 60 million dollars in excess reserves of the nation's banks, according to the weekly statement of the federal reserve system released yesterday.

Money in circulation increased 88 millions over the preceding week, a result in part of month-end settlements and disbursements.

Expand Use of Funds.

Seventy-two million dollars of additional bank money found employment in New York, most of which, 42 millions, went into government securities. Loans to brokers and dealers in New York were 16 millions higher than the preceding week.

Contributing to the shrinkage in reserves was the withdrawal by the treasury of 18 millions of deposits from New York banks. Treasury deposits with the central reserve banks were increased 35 millions.

Decline Shown in Chicago.

Bank funds employed in Chicago showed a decrease for the week. Total loans and investments declined 20 millions, of which 19 millions were accounted for by the sale of government securities.

The shrinkage in reserves of New York banks amounted to 121 millions or more than the 90 million drop in total reserves for the entire country. This means that an increase occurred in other reserve districts.

BROWN FENCE, MUELLER BRASS DECLARE EXTRAS

Brown Fence and Wire company yesterday declared an extra dividend of 60 cents a share on common stock. It has paid dividends of 60 cents a share during the fiscal year which ends June 30, so the total for the year will be $1.20 a share. Directors of the Mueller Brass company voted an extra of 10 cents a share and the regular quarterly dividend of 25 cents, while Mapes Consolidated Manufacturing company declared an extra of 25 cents a share in addition to the usual quarterly payment of 50 cents a share.

National Tea company announced that consideration of its payment, which is due July 1, will be taken up later in the year. It said the omission was decided upon in view of provisions of the 1936 revenue act relating to the surtax on undistributed profit and restriction of credits allowed for dividends paid out of excess earnings. The company indicated that the directors also were induced to omit the dividend because profits of the company for 1937 cannot now be accurately estimated and also because of their desire to increase the company's working capital.

DISMISSAL ASKED OF ALUMINUM CO. INJUNCTION SUIT

Pittsburgh, Pa., June 3.—(AP)—The government asked today dismissal of a preliminary injunction granted the Aluminum Company of America restraining prosecution of an anti-trust suit against the company, filed in the Southern district of New York. Robert H. Jackson, assistant attorney general, and Walter L. Rice, special assistant to Attorney General Homer Cummings, made the request in a petition in Federal court. The preliminary injunction was granted May 14 by Judge R. M. Gibson.

The company contended that a suit filed in Pittsburgh in 1912 was similar to the present anti-trust action and had been terminated by a consent decree. Government attorneys argued in their petition that all the company's records were not kept in Pittsburgh and that the New York suit is not identical with the 1912 suit.

CHICAGO FIRM LOW BIDDER ON PWA PROJECT

Maurice L. Bein, Inc., of Chicago, now building the additions to the Jane Addams houses, Public Works administration housing project on the west side, yesterday submitted the low bid of $2,974,500 on the Brewster WPA housing development in Detroit.

John Griffiths & Son company of Chicago was next lowest, with a bid of $3,035,000. The Great Lakes Construction company of Chicago was third with a bid of $3,059,000.

Bids on the Detroit project were rejected last fall by PWA Administrator Ickes, who claimed they were excessive.

CORPORATIONS FAVORED BY NEW U. S. TAX RULINGS

Accept Decisions of Appeals Board.

Washington, D. C., June 3.—[Special.]—Two decisions favorable to corporations in the payment of income taxes were announced today by Guy T. Helvering, commissioner of internal revenue.

In one he disclosed that the treasury will allow parent corporations which have absorbed subsidiaries to deduct from their taxable income the bond discount amortization due to the subsidiary. In the other he announced that the federal government will drop its efforts to stop the use by certain companies of the inventory method of computing gain or loss on stock transactions.

Will Not Appeal Decision.

Explaining the first decision, Helvering said that the government will not appeal a suit in which the board of tax appeals had ruled that the Connecticut Electric Service corporation was entitled to deduct from its taxable income the discount amortization due on the bonds of a predecessor company of one of its consolidated subsidiaries.

Connecticut Electric had filed a petition asking for a redetermination of a $2,497 deficiency in income tax for 1931. The decision announced today was an outgrowth of that action.

Explaining the second decision, Helvering said the treasury hitherto has sought to prevent subsidiaries which deal in the stock of their parent company from using the inventory method in computing gain or loss. It has decided, however, to acquiesce in a decision of the board of tax appeals which gives such companies the right to inventory their securities.

Alters Classification.

Helvering said that under the decision the subsidiary is entitled to be classed as a dealer in securities.

The second decision is the outgrowth of a petition filed by the Claude Neon Electrical Products Corporation, Ltd., against a $3,430 deficiency claim on income tax for 1931. The question before the board was whether the government had erred in not permitting a deduction of $27,496 claimed on a consolidated return as an inventory loss by the Epco Investment Corporation, Ltd., a subsidiary of Claude Neon, which joined in the return.

It was shown that Epco, licensed in California to sell and deal in securities, in 1931 dealt in the stock of the parent company and regularly inventoried in its books, at cost or market, whichever was lower, the unsold common stock on hand of the parent company.

CAPITAL GAINS TAX DENOUNCED AS PUNITIVE

Hurts Trade, Keeps Many Idle, Says N. Y. Controler

New York, June 3.—[Special.]—Asserting that the capital gains tax is "punitive rather than promotive," that it "amounts to confiscation of capital assets," "dams up the normal ebb and flow of trade," and "is now undoubtedly keeping thousands out of jobs," State Controler Morris S. Tremaine urged those who attended the Congress of American Enterprise at Carnegie hall today to seek its repeal.

Morris S. Tremaine.

Among other speakers Representative Clare E. Hoffman [R., Mich.], who, in a talk on sitdown strikes, attacked the C. I. O. and John L. Lewis vehemently, hinted at levying an income tax on the organization, which he said receives about $36,000,000 a year, and said that the blood of the dead in steel strike riots is on the hands of Lewis.

Invitation to Tax Dodger.

"The capital gains and loss tax appears to be primarily an invitation to the tax dodger," Tremaine said, "and is probably the largest item of expense in auditing the income tax accounts. It causes more differences between public officials and the taxpayer than perhaps any other item.

"It is inherent in the American people that they resent what they consider unfair taxation. I, for one, believe that the capital gains and loss tax is so unfair that it causes extreme resentment and certainly acts as a break on recovery, undoubtedly keeping thousands of people out of jobs. It does much to prevent activity in real estate and building. It takes away the cushion for credit."

Hoffman Assails C. I. O.

Representative Hoffman told the congress that "from the President's message to congress on June 1, it is apparent that once again he is of the opinion that either another emergency or a great crisis has come upon us.

"His message refers to many ways in which the payment of a tax has been legally avoided and, in this connection, occurs the thought that he makes no reference to the income of the C. I. O., which, if its present claim of membership be accurate, has 3,000,000 members," he said. "With dues of $1 a month, to say nothing of special assessments, that means $36,000,000 a year—all taken from the pocket of the worker.

"It is true that a real crisis does exist in this country, but on it the President has sent no message to congress. He is voluble on almost every topic except on the illegal, dangerous sitdown strike method."

COTTON

Cotton prices moved lower yesterday in dull trading on the Chicago and New York markets. New Orleans was closed in observance of Southern Memorial day. Prices here were .02 to .09 cent a pound lower at the finish.

Reports that considerable replanting will be necessary in northwest Texas because of damage caused by recent rains were largely ignored. Cloth markets reported business slightly improved. Southern spot sales totaled 2,067 bales at an average price of 13.02 cents a pound for middling.

Chicago Mail Order.

Investors' Guide: Please send me information on the Chicago Mail Order stock. Is it high, medium or low grade?—S. D. H.

Answer: The Chicago Mail Order company does business almost exclusively by mail, its only retail store being a small outlet in its plant in Chicago. The company specializes in women's clothing, but also handles men's and children's clothes, dry goods, shoes, jewelry, toys, and a variety of other items.

Dependent on sales in rural areas for most of its business, the company has benefitted substantially from increased purchasing power of farmers in the last several years. Beginning this summer the company will depart from its traditional policy of sales for cash only, introducing a deferred payment plan similar to those successfully used by other mail order houses in expanding volume. The plan is expected to apply to all purchases by next fall. Mailing lists and good will of three small mail order houses were purchased in 1935 and 1936.

Mail order companies usually find it easier to make profits in periods of rising prices and correspondingly difficult in periods of declining prices because of large purchases made well in advance of selling the goods.

Sales last year topped the previous record of $26,642,000 in 1929 and net income was second only to the $1,146,000 reported in 1928. The record of recent years follows:

	Sales.	Net Income.	Income per share.
1936	$27,102,000	$992,000	$2.86
1935	24,053,000	806,000	2.33
1934	18,972,000	698,000	2.02
1933	17,973,000	222,000	.64
1932	18,189,000	623,000	1.80

Current assets were $5,864,000 and current liabilities were $2,006,000 on Dec. 31, 1936, reflecting strong current position.

Outstanding capitalization consists solely of 346,181 shares of $5 par common stock. There is no funded debt.

Dividends, omitted in 1930 and 1933, were placed on a regular basis of $1 a year, in 1934, with extras amounting to $1 in 1935 and $1.87½ in 1936. The regular annual rate was boosted to $1.50 this year, with extras of 12½ cents being paid March 1 and June 1.

Day By Day Story of the Experimental Farms

By Bob Becker

Dogs Vex White Swans.

TWO stray dogs invaded the experimental farm this week to give the white swans some anxious moments. Fortunately, one of the men on the farm was near the pond where the white swans are nesting when the dogs tried to get at the birds. He was able to prevent the animals from getting over or through the wire fence and also drive them away.

The way the male swan, or cob, behaved while the dogs were trying to get at him and his nesting mate was an excellent example of how many of our domesticated and wild birds rally to the defense of their mates. When the invading dogs appeared outside of the wire enclosure in which the white swans are kept, the pen [or female swan] was on her high nest of straw. She didn't move from her precious eggs. The cob, with his head back, neck arched, and wings partly opened in "battle formation," came up to the nest beside his mate and stood beside her just like a knight of old ready to do battle for his fair lady. It wouldn't have made any difference whether it was one dog or six. The courageous old bird was ready to fight for his mate.

Situation Is Not New.

The presence of stray dogs on the farm attempting to attack either birds or sheep is nothing new. Every year the men have to keep a close watch in the fields for these dogs that are permitted to roam at will by their owners. In former years it has been necessary to shoot several of these "hunting" canines . . . a right that the landowner and stockowner has when he finds a strange dog making trouble on the premises.

So far this year none of the ewes or lambs has been severely injured or killed by dogs. But in former years we have seen wounded ewes that had been attacked by dogs . . . examples of what may happen when the careless dog owner lets his pets run the fields and woods instead of keeping them at home.

Black Swan Missing.

When we were on the farm the other day one of the black swans was not in evidence. This made us wonder if the bird had begun to nest. So far this season only the white swans have shown any desire to raise a family.

Two pairs of martins have established their homes in one of the new martin houses near the white swan pond. We watched these birds for some time the other day when we were hiking near the barn. But the poor martins are having their troubles with the sparrows. The latter also are nesting in the big martin house. Right now these two species of birds are having many battles. One of the boys is going to put an end to this by cleaning out all the sparrow nests so the martins will have the nesting box to themselves.

Two Grebes Hatched.

One of the grebes, or hell divers, that nested on the big pond has hatched out two little ones. Rawlings accidentally got near the nest of this bird and as a result was given a rare treat. He was telling us yesterday what a funny thing happened when the mamma grebe decided to leave the nest with her little ones.

When she ambled out of the grass with her young ones the two little ones got on her back and then she steamed away like a little gunboat, full speed ahead, with the cute little ones sitting contentedly and unafraid on their feathered ferryboat. The second pair of grebes on the farm has built a nest on Half Moon pond. They should have their eggs hatched any day now.

LARD

Business in corn and hogs resulted in sympathetic selling of lard futures on the Chicago market yesterday. Prices eased from 3 to 5 cents a hundred pounds. Eastern interests were active buyers on the decline.

Spot prices in Chicago were quoted at $12.42 a hundred pounds for cash lard, $12.30 for loose, $12.50 for leaf, and $16.37 for clear bellies. Liverpool spot lard advanced 6 pence and futures rose 3 pence. There were no exports from New York. Range of future prices on the Chicago Board of Trade, in dollars per hundred pounds, follows:
